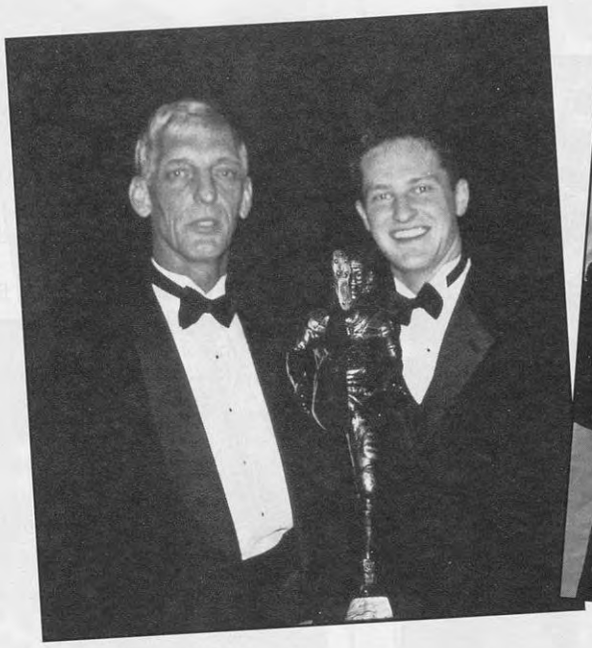
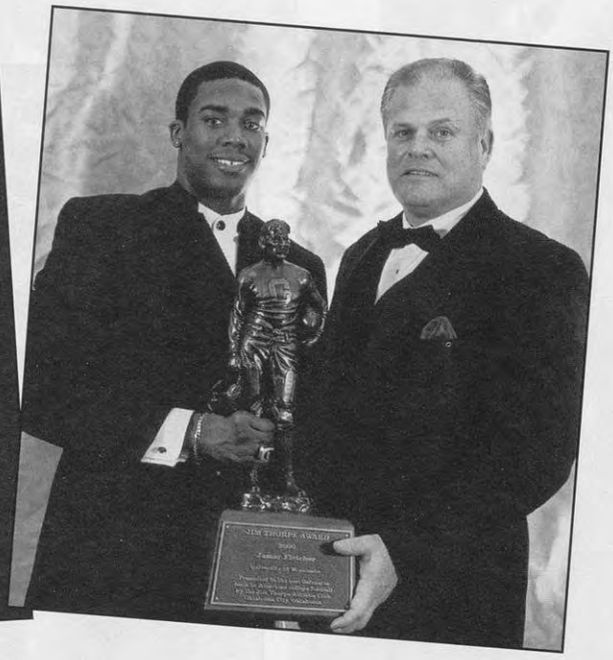
Thorpe and Guy Awards added to UW trophy case





Wisconsin was the only school in the nation that had two different players earn college football major awards in 2000. Punter Kevin Stemke joins the namesake of the Ray Guy Award (above left) and Jamar Fletcher and coach Kevin Cosgrove pose with the Jim Thorpe Award.

Ron Dayne won nearly every major award in 1999, including the Heisman Trophy. Dayne addresses the media in the Downtown Athletic Club after winning the Heisman Trophy.

A premiere total sports program at the Division I-A level

Wisconsin Is Among The Elite

A comprehensive study of all Div. I-A (football and men's basketball) schools conducted by The Sporting News shows that Wisconsin has the nation's 10th-best total sports program.

The Sporting News rated schools in four areas: (1.) Did we win; (2.) Did we graduate; (3.) Did we rock (school support by both fans and the administrators); and (4.) did we play fair.

Home for Badger football is

Camp Randall Stadium

One of the most exciting environments in college football

Camp Randall Stadium, built in 1917, is home for Wisconsin's football team. Distinguished by its double-deck structure and horseshoe design, Camp Randall Stadium has a seating capacity of 76,634. Besides the field, Camp Randall houses the athletic department offices, lounges and study areas for student-athletes, as well as video, training and weight rooms, training table for meals and a display of football memorabilia. The Stadium is a cornerstone of the athletic complex. Located on the same block are the McClain Facility and the Wisconsin Field House.

The Dave McClain Athletic Facility is the Badger football team's practice site during inclement weather. Constructed in 1988, the building features a 90-yard artificial turf playing surface that was installed in 1998.

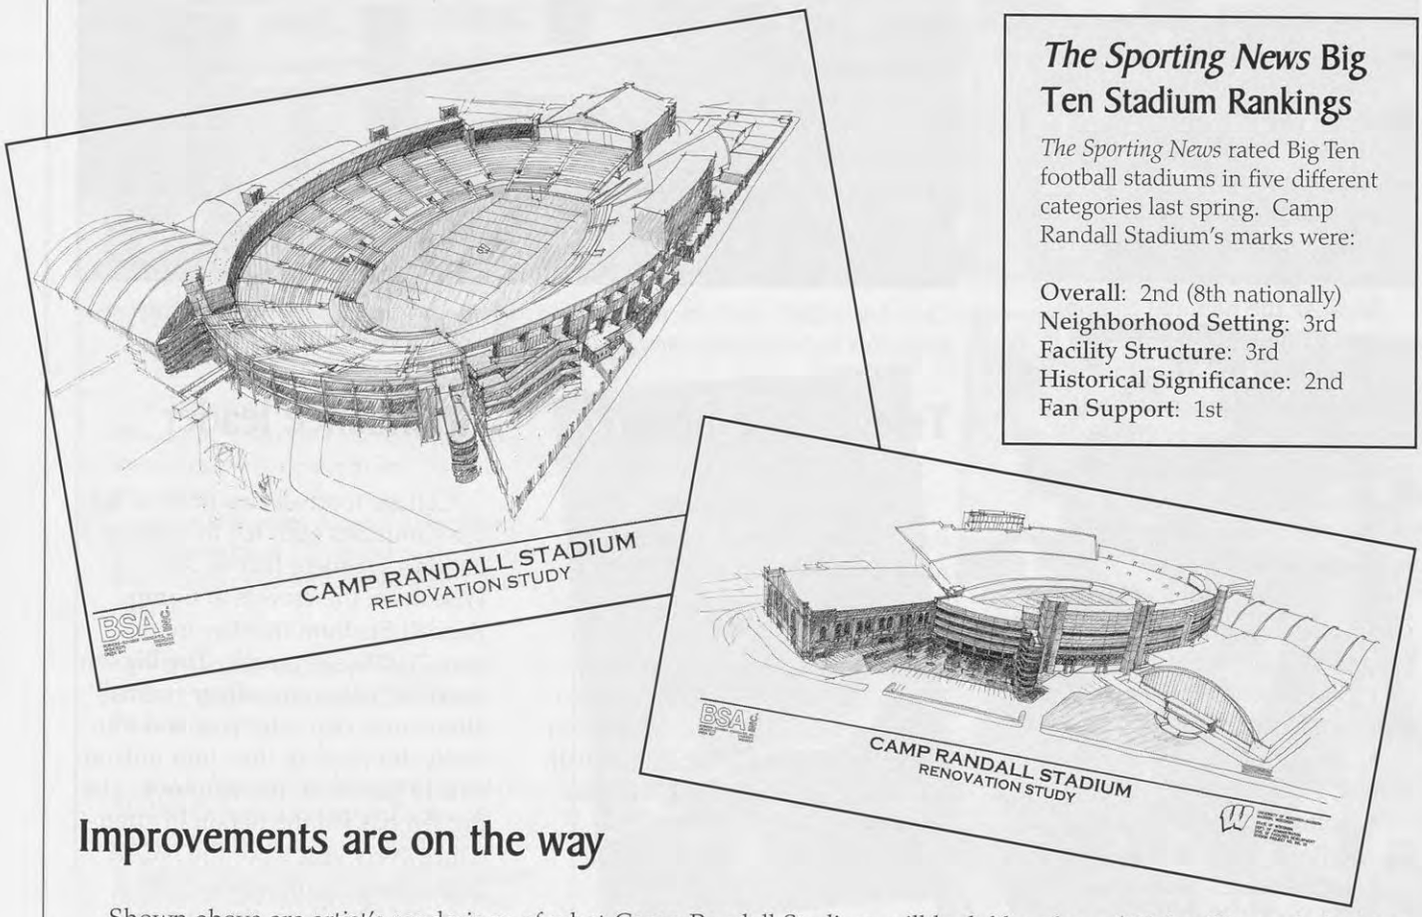
The Sporting News Big Ten Stadium Rankings

The Sporting News rated Big Ten football stadiums in five different categories last spring. Camp Randall Stadium's marks were:

Overall: 2nd (8th nationally)
Neighborhood Setting: 3rd
Facility Structure: 3rd
Historical Significance: 2nd
Fan Support: 1st



Improvements are on the way

Shown above are artist's renderings of what Camp Randall Stadium will look like after a $99.8 million refurbishing project is completed in 2004. The total facility improvement will include new restrooms, concession stands and luxury boxes; an enclosed bowl in the south end zone; a new office building for athletic department staff; and a general overhaul of pedestrian traffic patterns, including wider concourses, to help customers better enjoy their trips to Camp Randall Stadium. Capacity of the facility will increase to nearly 85,000 when the construction is completed.

Big Ten football ...

means exposure, bowl games & boisterous fans

Bowl games

The Big Ten boasts one of the deepest college bowl lineups in the nation. The Big Ten is one of six conferences with an automatic berth into the Bowl Championship Series (BCS), which was established three years ago to determine a national champ. The Big Ten also has five other bowl bids guaranteed for member schools each year.

"The Big Ten's association with our bowl partners stabilizes the Conference's post-season future," says Commissioner James Delaney. "They also provide fans with terrific bowl destinations and games with quality opponents."

Because the national championship game will be contested in the Rose Bowl this year, the league champion will participate in the one of the BCS bowls (if they're not in the national championship tilt at the Rose Bowl).

The Big Ten's bowl lineup for this fall is listed below:

- Champion: One of the Bowl Championship Series Games (Sugar, Orange or Fiesta)
- Second choice: Capital One Florida Citrus Bowl, Orlando, Fla.
- Third choice: Outback Bowl, Tampa, Fla.
- Fourth choice: Sylvania Alamo Bowl, San Antonio, Texas
- Fifth choice: Wells Fargo Sun Bowl, El Paso, Texas

Television exposure

When Big Ten fans aren't packing stadiums, they're watching the most comprehensive college football package on television. A partnership with ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and ESPN Regional will allow the Big Ten to televise a record number of games again this fall. More than 90 percent of all Big Ten games will be shown on live TV in 2001, making the Big Ten Conference the most-watched conference in the nation.

Attendance leader

College football fans flock to Big Ten campuses each fall to watch the nation's premiere teams. At Wisconsin, the crowds at Camp Randall Stadium number more than 76,000 each week. The Big Ten leads the nation in college football attendance year after year and routinely draws more than four million fans to games on its campuses. The Big Ten has led the nation in attendance every year since the NCAA began keeping records in 1949, a string of 53 consecutive seasons.

Top-rate education in a beautiful city

UW Is World-class

The University of Wisconsin, founded in 1848, has been recognized throughout its history as one of the nation's leading institutions of higher learning. Kiplinger's Personal Finance, in 1998, ranked UW-Madison's educational value sixth-best nationally.

• Wisconsin is one of just 62 members of the Association of American Universities, the most prestigious organization of higher education in the United States.

• U.S. News and World Report ranked the UW-Madison eighth in academic reputation among public universities.

• UW-Madison ranks first nationwide in voluntary support among public institutions.

• According to Standard & Poor's, Wisconsin is second nationally in producing corporate executives.

• The Wisconsin Alumni Association has a network of 125 chapters around the world helping to serve more than 300,000 alumni.

• U.S. News & World Report rated UW-Madison's sociology, women's history and speech pathology departments No. 1 in the nation. Additionally, the magazine ranked educational psychology second, chemical engineering fifth, education ninth and veterinary medicine ninth-best.

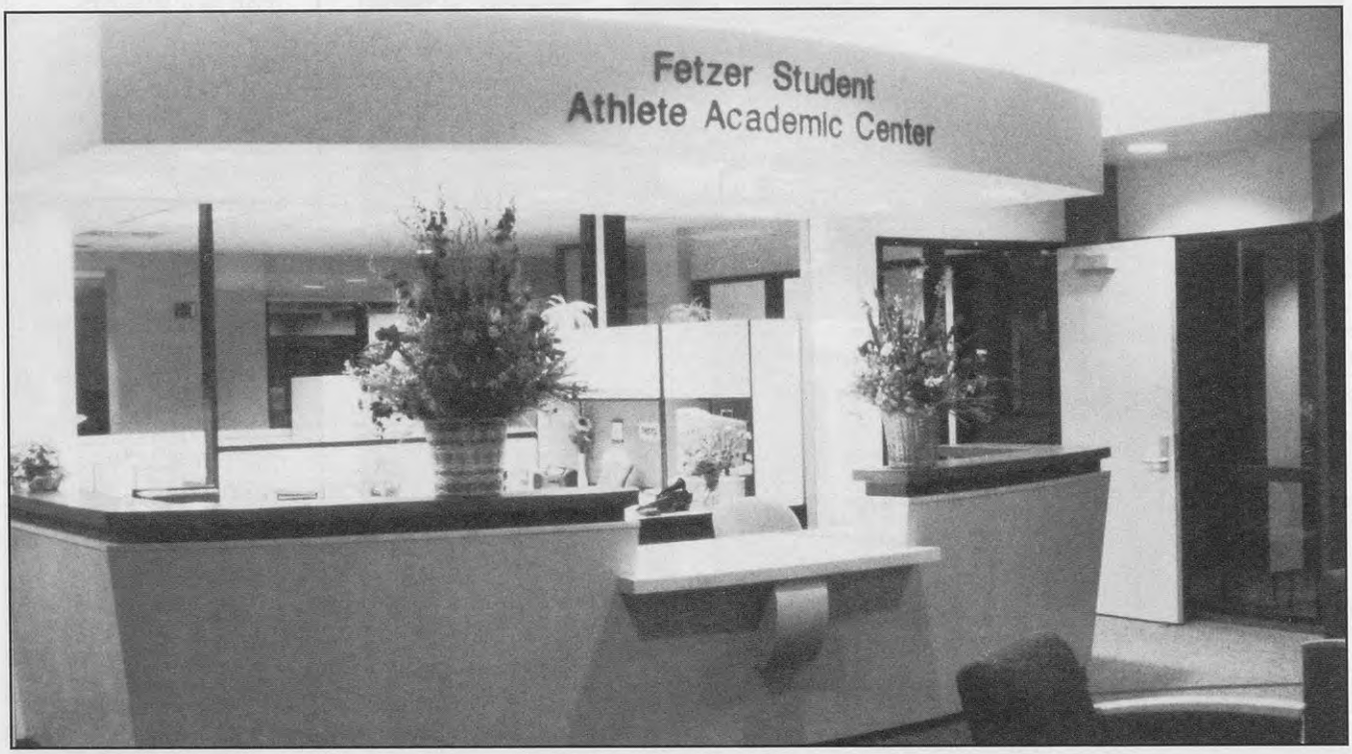
Student affairs office

Developing the total person at the UW-Madison



The Fetzer Academic Learning Center is a $1.6 million facility dedicated to giving student-athletes the best in academic support. Funded by a generous contribution from UW alumnus Wade Fetzer, the facility is located in the lower level of the McClain Athletic Center.

The primary objective of the student affairs office is to ensure the academic success of all UW student-athletes.

The academic and student affairs staff assists the Badgers' 700 student-athletes in registration and course selection, monitoring progress toward degrees and career guidance.

Staff members work with student-athletes who desire extra academic help. The department utilizes the services of more than 100 tutors to provide one-on-one academic assistance or group tutoring.

The department arranges for exam proctoring, offers advice on resume preparation and sponsors an annual career fair.

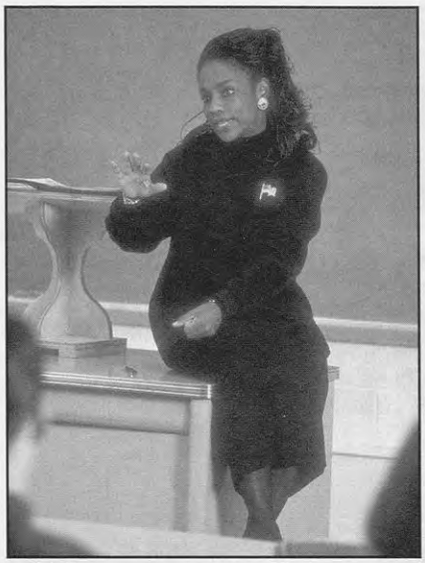
A recent addition to help student-athletes reach their academic aims is the $1.6 million Fetzer Academic Center, which opened in '97. Located in the McClain Facility, it houses the academic support staff and features a computer lab, classrooms, study carrels and an auditorium.

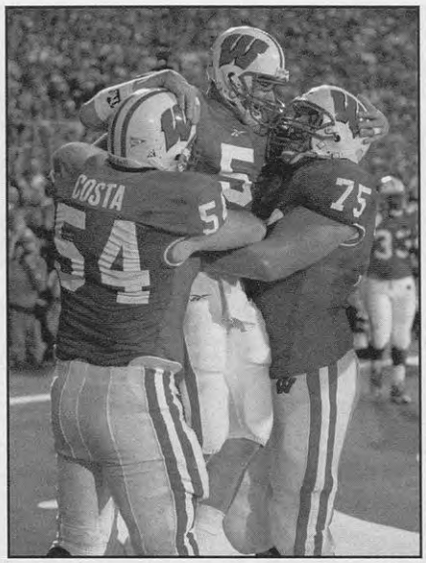
Mission Of The Student Affairs Office

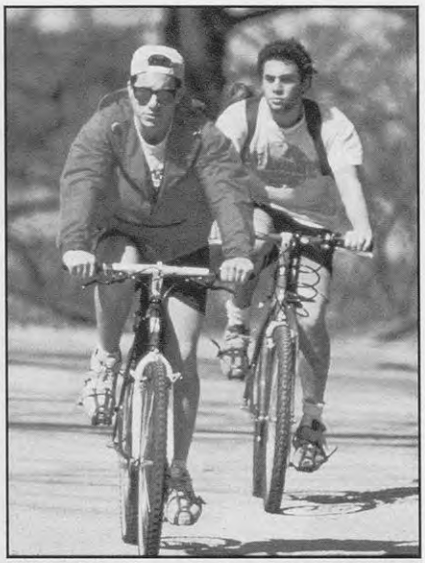
The UW-Madison encourages student-athletes to transfer the lessons learned on the playing field to their daily lives. Wisconsin is dedicated to providing its student-athletes with excellent teaching, facilities, support programs, academic tutoring programs and career guidance to help them reach their full potential as students.

Success in every way

Academics ... athletics ... student life







Balancing books and ballgames

Achieving national recognition in both academics and athletics is a difficult challenge for universities today. The UW-Madison is one of a select group of institutions that has earned praise for its work in the classroom and on the field.

Balancing the academic requirements of an outstanding institution with the demands of collegiate athletic competition is challenging. However, the University of Wisconsin has attacked the challenge and succeeded.

- With its inclusion in the Association of American Universities (AAU), the University of Wisconsin-Madison is recognized for its exceptional performance in the academic world. In fact, only 62 schools nationwide are in the AAU.
- On the field, Badger football is also among the nation's elite. With 30 wins in the last three seasons and three Big Ten championships since 1993, Wisconsin has one of the nation's best football programs.

The Philosophy

"The goal of the Wisconsin strength and conditioning program is to train for total athletic excellence. We profile each student-athlete upon arrival on campus and set up specific training regimens to help players reach their individual potential. The plan is to build overall strength, speed, agility and stamina. Our program is comprehensive and the end result is that we are as productive on the field as possible."

John Dettmann
Strength and Conditioning Coordinator

Professional health care

Athletes benefit from total care approach

Sports medicine team provides total care

The Wisconsin sports medicine program features top-rate facilities and the outstanding services of many sports and health care professionals.

The sports medicine program focuses on injury prevention. Staff members utilize Cybex strength-testing devices, measure physiological capacity and outline programs to improve an athlete's flexibility.

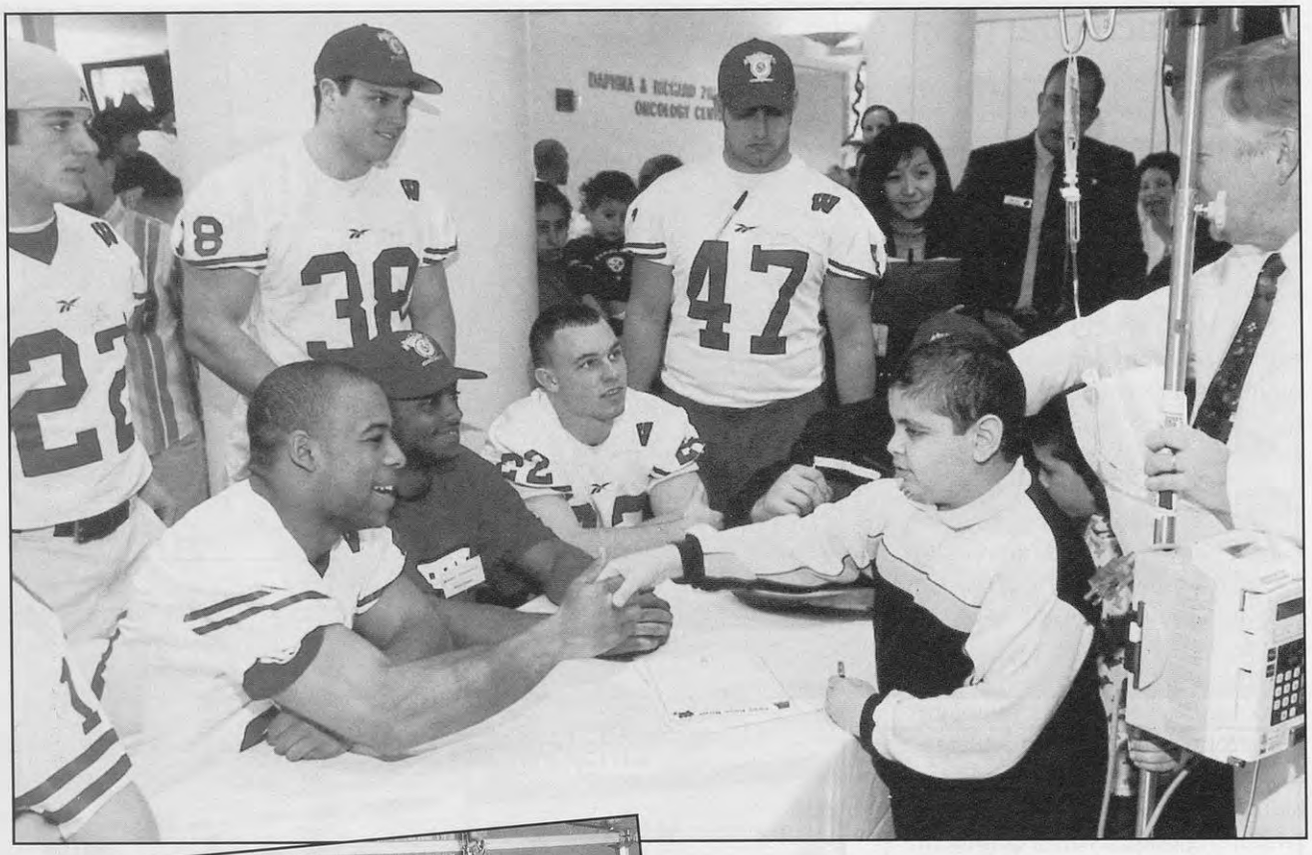
The UW-Madison is one of a handful of schools with an on-site X-ray machine, enabling physicians to quickly and thoroughly evaluate injuries.

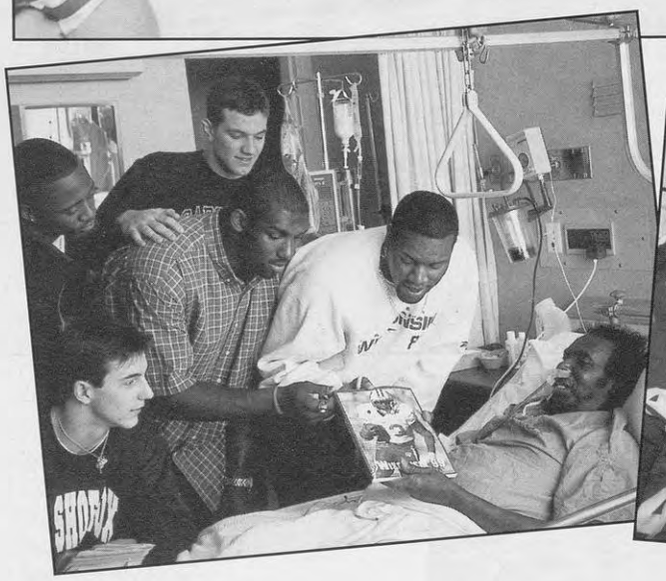
Athletic trainers and physicians work together to design rehabilitation programs for injured athletes. A variety of facilities and equipment, including a rehabilitation swimming pool, Cybex equipment, an Impulse Inertial Exercise System, Stairmasters and Fitron Bicycles, help athletes rehabilitate injuries and minimize loss of fitness during recuperative time.

The University also has a sports nutritionist dedicated to ensuring that student-athletes meet their dietary and nutritional needs. The Wisconsin football team has its own training table in the McClain Athletic Facility for post-practice meals. The training table is operational during both spring camp and throughout the regular season.

Giving back to Madison

Community service projects are a yearly highlight



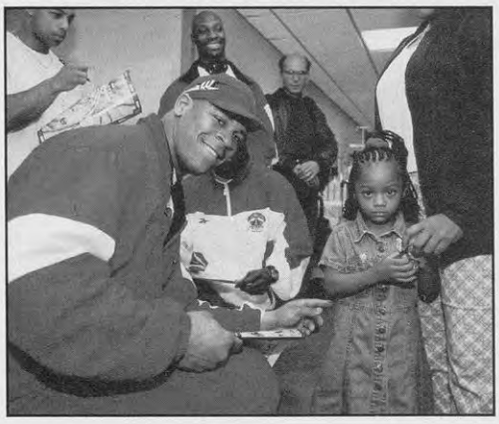


Gridiron Badgers help out Madison residents

The Wisconsin Department of Athletics has a number of teams that regularly contribute to the city via outreach programs. The Madison community is truly supportive of the UW athletic teams and their student-athletes.

In appreciation for that support, many student-athletes volunteer frequently in community service projects. Every season, the football team works together on a community service project to give something back to Madison. Among the projects that the Badgers have participated in most recently were landscaping and cleanup days in the Eric Circle, Allied Drive, Vera Court and Harmony Park neighborhoods. The team has also participated in several walk-a-thons to raise funds for charitable causes.

Players and coaches make visits throughout the year to the UW Childrens' and Veterans' Hospitals, area schools and numerous other charity functions and organizations.



"Good Works" Team

Cecil Martin (left), a senior on the 1998 Wisconsin football team, was named to the American Football Coaches Association "Good Works" team for community service in both 1997 and 1998. He was cited for establishing an offseason program for players to visit the UW Children's Hospital. Martin made weekly visits to see patients during the playing season. He served as a mentor at the Southside Community Center, where he tutored and played with children. Martin has continued his charitable support in 2000 as a member of the Philadelphia Eagles where he won the Ed Block Courage Award and was named an "Unsung Hero" by the NFL Players' Association.

Give college ball a shot

Contributions of walk-ons are critical at Wisconsin

Not all high school players earn scholarships to compete in college. However, that doesn't mean there isn't an opportunity for those individuals, especially at the University of Wisconsin, where walk-on athletes have a history of major success.

Joe Panos became a walk-on success story in the early 1990s. Panos transferred from UW-Whitewater in 1991. He changed positions at UW, earned a scholarship, became a three-year starter, captained the Rose Bowl team and now plays for the New England Patriots.

"Walk-ons have that extra drive because they're trying to prove something," says Coach Barry Alvarez. "I love that spirit and determination in my players."

Four former walk-ons became Badger team captains (Jason Doering, Joe Panos, Bob Adamov and Donnel Thompson), two (Joe Panos and Matt Davenport) earned first-team all-league honors and four were on NFL rosters in 2000 (Panos, Thompson, Mark Tauscher and Mike Schneck). Additionally, Jason Doering was drafted by the Indianapolis Colts in the 2001 NFL Draft.

These Pros Began As Walk-ons

Several players have walked on at Wisconsin, eventually earned scholarships and played professionally in the NFL. That list includes:

- Joe Panos, Philadelphia Eagles, Buffalo Bills and New England Patriots
- Chad Cascadden, New York Jets & New England Patriots
- Mark Tauscher, Green Bay Packers
- Donnel Thompson, Pittsburgh Steelers
- Mike Schneck, Pittsburgh Steelers
- Jason Doering, Indianapolis Colts (2001 draft pick)

PREVIEW

Mike Echols is one of the favorites for the 2001 Jim Thorpe Award, given to the nation's top defensive back. He recorded 75 tackles, 25 passes broken up and five interceptions last fall.

Wisconsin football followers will need to buy game programs this season to keep up with all the unfamiliar faces on the field. Losing 45 percent of last season's lettermen (27 of 60 used up their eligibility) means that many new faces will be trying to keep the Badgers among the nation's elite programs.

Wisconsin — based upon Rose Bowl and Big Ten championships in both 1998 and 1999 plus a total of 30 victories in the last three seasons — has a strong legacy to uphold.

Although Coach Barry Alvarez knows that a lot of experience has left the program (10 returning starters are the fewest of his career), he's excited about the potential of his very young club.

"I would be disappointed if this group doesn't materialize into a fine team," Alvarez said. "But, it doesn't happen automatically. These young players have been around a lot of success, and now it's time for them to step up and carry on the tradition."

Alvarez and his staff must replace seven linemen (three on defense and four on offense) that started a staggering 275 games; two of the biggest playmakers on the squad (Chris Chambers and Michael Bennett combined for 27 plays of at least 20 yards in 2000); both kicking specialists (Kevin Stemke was the Ray Guy Award winner and Vitaly Pisetsky was a Lou Groza Award finalist during his career); and two three-year starters in the secondary (Jim Thorpe Award winner Jamar Fletcher and two-time team captain Jason Doering). Fourteen Badgers in all were drafted by the NFL or got free agent opportunities last spring.

Who are the candidates to take leading roles in the 2001 season? Here is an in-depth look at the club, position by-position.

2001 Personnel

Lettermen Returning: 33

Nearly one quarter of Wendell Bryant's career stops have been for losses.

Alvarez on Bryant

"There aren't many defensive linemen in the nation that cause as many headaches for the opponent as Wendell Bryant. He gets special treatment every play, and that's a tribute to his abilities."

The Defense

Defense is what determines champions according to Alvarez. He wants to see improvement in all areas of the defensive troops. The Badgers surrendered nearly 100 yards more per game in 2000 than in the league title season of 1999. The defensive scoring average also jumped by a touchdown per game. Alvarez' philosophy on defense is to stop the run, and that begins with the front seven.

Defensive Line

The Badgers rotate a lot of players on the defensive line, so although the departure of longtime starters John Favret, Ross Kolodziej and Eric Mahlik is significant, there are returnees with playing experience.

The best lineman on the team, and also one of college football's top performers, is senior Wendell Bryant. The 293 pounder was a semi-finalist for the Lombardi Award and shared Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year honors as a junior. A two-time, first-team all-Big Ten pick by the coaches, Bryant has made nearly one quarter of his career tackles behind the line of scrimmage.

"There aren't many defensive linemen in the nation that cause as many headaches for the opponent as Wendell Bryant," said Alvarez. "He gets special treatment every play, and that's a tribute to his abilities."

Bryant's back-ups at the five-technique include rangy Jesse Mayfield and walk-on Matt Katula.

Jake Sprague, another senior with quite a bit of experience, is the starter at junk tackle. Sprague, a former state high school player of the year, had six QB hurries in a reserve role last season. He missed all of spring training with an injury but will be fit for action in the fall. Senior Chuck Smith, a two-year letterman, and freshman prospect Jason Jefferson are in reserve.

Senior Ben Herbert has made a position switch to noseguard where he is the projected first teamer. A former linebacker and rush end, Herbert is a valued pass rusher. The quick and agile 238-pound Herbert may cause some matchup headaches in the interior of the line. Highly touted redshirt freshman Traison Lewis and walk-on Nick Cochart are in the back-up role to Herbert.

Herbert's move from rush end leaves sophomore Darius Jones, one of the nation's top linebacker recruits a year ago, and senior Delante McGrew as the top two candidates there. Jones moved to rush end late in his freshman season and is coming off an impressive spring camp. McGrew was slowed by injuries in 2000, but he is an excellent pass rusher. Jonathan Welsh is an exciting 6-foot-4 athlete and a good prospect at the position.

Linebackers

Since a linebacker has been the team's leading tackler in 18 of the last 19 seasons, the returning experience is certainly a positive for the 2001 campaign.

Ben Herbert, who moved to noseguard in the spring, is playing his third position at UW.

Nick Greisen became the first Badger since 1996 to lead the Big Ten in tackles (146). Greisen also topped the team in tackles for loss (14) and tied for the squad lead in quarterback sacks (six). He picked off three passes en route to earning first-team all-Big Ten honors by the media.

Wisconsin native P.J. Cannon and freshman Howard Boye-Doe, a running back recruit in 2000, are Greisen's understudies. Boye-Doe missed all of his freshman season with an injury.

Senior Bryson Thompson, the younger brother of Pittsburgh Steeler Donnel, has played multiple positions at Wisconsin. The hard-hitting 223 pounder is being counted on to have a productive final season at ILB.

Redshirt rookie Kareem Timbers, a former safety, is second team at linebacker. His move from the secondary is indicative of Alvarez' intention to improve the overall speed of the defense. Timbers runs the 40 in 4.5 seconds.

Jeff Mack, whose 55 tackles were the most by a freshman linebacker during the Alvarez era, is the starter at drop linebacker. He played inside last fall.

Jerron Smith, the club's defensive scout team player of the year, is No. 2 at drop linebacker. Smith is from the same high school as 1999 Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne. Fifth-year senior Jason Schick, another former defensive back, made a smooth transition to OLB and will get some playing time.

Secondary

The losses from last year's nationally ranked pass defense are significant. Jamar Fletcher, the nation's fourth-leading interceptor, and the team's surest tackler (Jason Doering) are the key departures.

The good news is that Fletcher's teammate at cornerback, Mike Echols, is back for his senior season after leading the Big Ten in pass break-ups (25).

Echols, an insulin-dependent diabetic, is one of the team's fastest defenders (4.3 in the 40). He intercepted five passes as a junior and returned one for a TD against Minnesota. Echols will receive legitimate consideration for all-America honors and may make a run at becoming the school's second consecutive Thorpe Award recipient.

"Echols' abilities have been somewhat overshadowed by Fletcher," said Alvarez. "We need Mike to take on a leadership role in the back end, and he's ready for that assignment."

The back-ups at boundary cornerback are Matt Birkett, a wide receiver transfer from Rhode Island, and walk-on Chris Holznecht.

Senior Joey Boese, a two-time academic all-league selection, will start somewhere in the secondary. He played cornerback his first two seasons and started at strong safety (58 tackles) in 2000. Boese was slated to start at free safety this fall, but he took over starting duties at field cornerback in the spring.

Junior B.J. Tucker, a placewinner in Big Ten sprint competitions during his career, is No. 2 at cornerback and will likely be the nickel back. Tucker had 23 tackles and seven PBUs in limited action. Redshirt freshman Chuckie Cowans will also challenge for time at field cornerback.

Sophomore Michael Broussard (11 tackles, one interception as a true freshman) emerged from spring drills as the starting strong safety. The former prep tailback was the club's fifth defensive back as a rookie and is an exciting prospect at safety. The understudies at strong safety are walk-ons Ryan Simmons and Nate Howard.

Replacing Doering at free safety is an open competition. Senior Carlease Clark has the most playing experience and is coming off a 29-tackle season. Ryan Aiello, who lettered as a true freshman, and former receiver Chris Catalano are youngsters looking for an opportunity.

Senior Joey Boese will start in the secondary at either cornerback or free safety this fall. He played strong safety in 2000.

The Offense

The youthful offense gets a huge shot of confidence from the presence of two proven winners at quarterback. "Experience under center can cover up some inadequacies, including lack of overall experience," said Alvarez.

Quarterback

The quarterback situation has never been stronger during Alvarez' tenure. Junior Brooks Bollinger, a two-year starter with a career record of 17-3, is first team. The third-most accurate passer in school history has also run for 913 career yards.

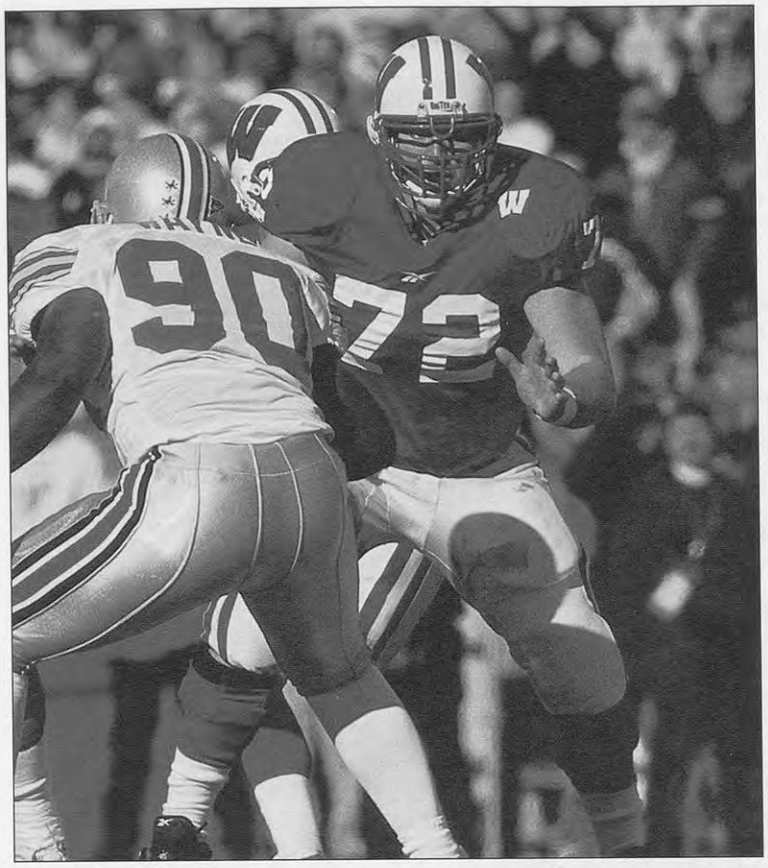
Bollinger was Big Ten freshman of the year in 1999 when he led the Badgers to a Rose Bowl win. He threw for 1,479 yards last season, despite missing action with a concussion and an ankle sprain.

When Bollinger had to sit out last year, Jim Sorgi was an extremely effective replacement. The 6-5 Sorgi passed for 615 yards while completing two-thirds of his attempts. Sorgi engineered comeback victories on the road at Michigan State and Indiana. In his lone start, he produced better statistics (Sorgi hit 21-29 passes for 243 yards and two touchdowns) than Purdue's Drew Brees.

"Brooks is the starter," said Alvarez, "but like all positions, we treat it as open competition. It's a great feeling to know that we have two guys capable of leading us to victory at quarterback ."

Bollinger is the second all-time leading runner among QBs

Lee Evans made his mark both on the field (19-yard average per catch) and in the classroom (academic all-Big Ten) as a sophomore in 2000.



Junior Al Johnson, who started all season in 2000, is one of the nation's emerging offensive linemen. He is a candidate to win the Dave Rimington Award given to college football's top center.

in Wisconsin history and has two 100-yard games to his credit. Sorgi is an excellent thrower and his pass efficiency rating of 164.4 would have ranked second nationally if he would have had enough attempts last fall.

Sophomore Scott Wille, who had a solid spring camp, and redshirt freshman Matt Schabert are the other candidates competing at quarterback.

Running Back

The Badgers' string of consecutive seasons with a 1,000-yard rusher is eight, a Big Ten record. The question is whether that streak will continue.

Michael Bennett, the NCAA's third-leading rusher, passed up his senior season to turn professional. Three redshirt freshmen tailbacks will vie for time.

The projected starter in the spring was sophomore Broderick Williams, who gained 26 yards in 2000. Williams tore his ACL in the spring and will miss the entire upcoming campaign.

The trio of redshirted freshmen include shifty Jerone Pettus (5-9), speedy Anthony Davis (5-8) and powerful Tyron Griffin (231 pounds). Pettus was the 2000 scout team offensive player of the year; Davis was a prep track standout and Griffin scored 105 TDs in high school. The three runners combined for 267 yards (6.7 ypc) and five touchdowns in the team's spring game.

Chad Kuhns is a terrific blocker and receiver at fullback. He is entering his third season as the starter and will play in some one-back formations. Junior Erik Bickerstaff, and Russ Kuhns, Chad's brother, are the reserves.

Wide Receiver

The Badger pass offense steadily improved last season, and the production of the receivers mirrored that success. Much of that credit goes to Chris Chambers, the team's MVP. Replacing Chambers, a second-round draft pick by the Dolphins, will be the biggest task.

Junior Lee Evans, who played at the same high school as Chambers, will be the No. 1 threat. The academic all-league choice averaged a sparkling 19.2 ypc, the fourth-best figure in school history. Evans caught a pass in every game last fall, including the game winner in the final minute at Michigan State.

The back-ups at flanker are David Braun and Stephon Watson. Braun is a former walk-on from Madison and Watson was a highly recruited safety.

Senior Nick Davis, who has made his mark as a kick returner, must emerge as a game-breaking split end. Davis topped the Big Ten in punt returns as a freshman and kickoff returns as a sophomore. He needs 281 yards receiving and 239 yards on punt returns to become the only player in school history with more than 1,000 yards in three categories (receiving, punt returns and kickoff returns).

Byron Brown, an option QB as a prep, emerged during Sun Bowl preparations. Brown, another prospect from Ron Dayne's high school, is a big-play threat.

Tight End

Wisconsin tight ends had a productive second half of the year, making 25 receptions in the last seven weeks. Two of those players completed their eligibility, so senior Mark Anelli is the only tight end on the team with playing experience. Anelli made a career-high 10 catches and started eight games in 2000. Redshirt freshmen — Mark Bell and Tony Paciotti — are the top reserves.

Nick Davis is one of college football's most dynamic kick returners. He has topped the Big Ten in both punt and kickoff returns during his career.

Offensive Line

When Wisconsin started three freshmen on the offensive line in the 1997 season opener, it knew the day would come when that trio concluded its eligibility. Casey Rabach, Bill Ferrario and Dave Costa started 139 games in their careers, and all three must now be replaced. Additionally, RT Brian Lamont, who battled a number of injuries while starting most of 2000, has retired. There will be many new faces in the trenches, led by a pair of promising cousins, Al and Ben Johnson.

The Badgers had to reshuffle their offensive line a number of times last season. One of the beneficiaries was Al Johnson, who stepped in at center and started 11 games en route to all-Big Ten honors. Al Johnson has the tools to be another major honors candidate on the line.

Al's cousin, Ben Johnson, started most of his sophomore campaign at left tackle. The 6-7 blocker is an imposing figure and a potential all-American.

Other than the Johnsons, experience is limited among the prospects. The guard candidates include redshirt freshmen Dan Buenning, Jonathan Clinkscale and Kalvin Barrett. Alvarez likes the athletic ability of all three freshmen and singled out their strong play in the spring.

The experienced depth at tackle is also thin, but Alvarez likes the potential of the young players. Junior Jason Jowers, who has taken turns at guard, center and tackle, held the starting spot at right tackle all spring. Mike Lorenz, a gifted freshman, has been groomed to get a lot of time at tackle. Fred Nieforth and Morgan Davis are other tackle prospects that could challenge.

Special Teams

Kickers and Punters

The Badgers reaped the benefits of two of the nation's top kicking specialists the last several seasons. The loss of punter Kevin Stemke and placekicker Vitaly Pisetsky leaves a big hole.

Stemke helped UW average more than 42 yards in net punting, a Big Ten record, on the way to winning the Ray Guy Award.

The heir apparent to Stemke is walk-on Kirk Munden, a sophomore. Munden was all-state as a prep and averaged 45 yards per kick as a senior.

Pisetsky, the school's 10th all-time leading scorer, also departs.

Mark Neuser, another walk-on from Wisconsin, and redshirt freshman Adam Espinoza will challenge for the vacated spot. Neuser has one PAT to his credit as a collegian. Espinoza, a California native, made 98 percent of his extra points as a prep.

Kick Returners

Nick Davis is one of college football's top kick returners. He finished 33rd nationally in kickoff returns last year, and that didn't include a 95-yard return called back for a penalty at Hawaii. Davis is currently second in both career punt and kickoff returns at the UW. His punt return average (12.1) is first in school annals and his kickoff return norm (23.7) is third. Michael Broussard, a high school running back, will most likely return kickoffs with Davis.

Schedule

Seven of this fall's opponents participated in post-season play last year. Virginia (Eddie Robinson Classic), Oregon (which owns a 20-game home field winning streak), Fresno State and Western Kentucky (11-2 in Div. I-AA) comprise the non-league slate. UW does not face Purdue or Northwestern in Big Ten action.

Notebook Items

• Wisconsin is the only school in the nation that has won two Bowl Championship Series games.

• Only seven schools in Division I-A have won at least 30 games in the last three years. The Badgers are joined by Florida State, Marshall, Kansas State, Nebraska, Virginia Tech and Tennessee.

• Wisconsin's last eight teams have averaged 8.5 wins per season.

• Wisconsin, along with Florida, Tennessee and Florida State, are the only schools to play in more than one BCS game during the format's three-year existence.

• The Badgers were the only school in the NCAA to have two different players win major awards in 2000. Jamar Fletcher and Kevin Stemke were named Jim Thorpe and Ray Guy Award winners, respectively.

• Wisconsin's five-game winning streak entering 2001 is the nation's seventh longest.

• Wisconsin, Florida, Florida State, Kansas State, Michigan, Nebraska, Ohio State, Penn State, Tennessee, Virginia and Virginia Tech are the only schools to play in at least seven bowls in the last eight years.

• The Badgers' record in non-conference action since 1993 is 28-6-1, a winning percentage of 81.4.

• Wisconsin and Washington were the only teams to win three Rose Bowls in the 1990s.

• Wisconsin had more academic all-Big Ten picks (10) in 2000 than any previous season.

• In the last three seasons, Wisconsin has registered winning streaks of nine (1998), eight (1999) and five (2000) games.

• Wisconsin has won 26 of its last 27 games when it has the same or fewer turnovers than the opponent.

• Wisconsin has produced a 1,000-yard rusher eight straight seasons, a Big Ten record. The list includes Brent Moss, Terrell Fletcher, Carl McCullough, Ron Dayne (four times) and Michael Bennett.

• During the Barry Alvarez era (1990-present), Wisconsin is 11-0-1 in games it rushes and passes for at least 200 yards each.

• Wisconsin has won 43 of the last 47 games when it had at least 50 carries from scrimmage. The Badgers are also 47-6-2 in games since 1990 when the opponent failed to rush for at least 125 yards.

• The UW has never lost a game (38-0-1) since Alvarez became coach when the club gains more than 200 yards rushing and allows fewer than 125 yards on the ground.

• Wisconsin has ranked among the NCAA's top 25 rushing offenses in four straight seasons. The Badgers were 25th in 1997, third in 1998, 20th in 1999 and 22nd in 2000.

• The Badgers threw for more than 200 yards six times in 2000. That tied the school's single-season record, established in 1983. Wisconsin had just six total games of at least 200 yards passing in 1996, 1997, 1998 and 1999 combined.

• Wisconsin's non-conference schedule in 2001 includes Virginia (7-5), Fresno State (7-5), Oregon (10-2) and Western Kentucky (11-2). Each of those schools participated in post-season play last fall.

• Alvarez' 11-year tenure at UW is the longest active streak among Big Ten coaches (Joe Paterno has been in the league only eight years).

Q&A with Alvarez

How does your approach change when you're coaching a young team? "Practice changes because we need to do more hitting and situational work. It's always exciting with new people because young players have a special enthusiasm for the game."

On a young team, talk about the advantage of having experience at QB. "If your quarterback isn't effective, then you struggle. If there's one place you want experience, it's under center. We're blessed to have two guys at the position that are proven winners."

Assess the competition at tailback. "I would say it's a position by committee. We have three players with unique styles competing. I think there will be a place for all of them unless one separates himself from the pack."

How much will the "spread" offense become a part of the attack? "The players liked it (during bowl preparations), and it adds a bit to our offense. We'll continue to experiment with it."

What area do you wish to improve the most on defense? "We must eliminate big plays. That is one area where we did a poor job last year."

How much of a concern is the kicking game? "It's a concern because I haven't had to worry about it for several years. We've got some candidates, and we'll certainly encourage competition. Whoever is in there will be brand new, but we'll work hard on it during the fall."

Talk about Wendell Bryant and Mike Echols. "Bryant has tremendous physical skills and draws an awful lot of attention. Each has taken an active leadership role on this team. Echols has been in Fletcher's shadow, but in his own right, has been a big playmaker for us."

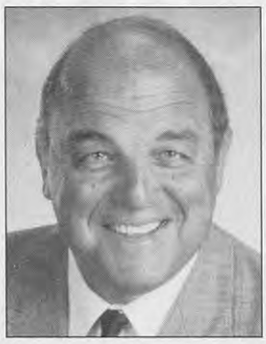
Barry Alvarez



"I'm here to tell you that I've made the decision to stay at the University of Wisconsin and finish my career."

With those words on Feb. 2, 2001, Barry Alvarez, the winningest coach in Wisconsin history, told Badger partisans, recruits and current players that he will be the UW coach until he hangs up his whistle.

Any early retirement talk can also be shelved for awhile. "My staff and I have put in over a decade of work building a program that we think is well run and on solid ground," Alvarez said. "I'm excited and energized to continue building this program."

The program that Alvarez wants to continue to build is one that has enjoyed remarkable success. In 11 years as the head coach at formerly downtrodden Wisconsin, the 54-year-old Alvarez has built a team that is one of the nation's elite.

When sizing up Alvarez' coaching career, it's easy to get overwhelmed with statistical evidence. Simply, he has restored a proud tradition at Wisconsin, built a fan base that is legendary, won many games and done so in a first-class manner. Consider some of these Alvarez superlatives:

- winningest coach in school history.
- his teams have won at least a share of three Big Ten titles since '93.
- coached the four winningest teams in the modern era at Wisconsin.
- remains the only coach in the NCAA to have won more than one Bowl Championship Series game.
- won back-to-back league titles in 1998 and 1999. Wisconsin hadn't done that since 1896-97.
- his last three Badger teams have combined to win 30 games. Only six other schools in the nation can make that claim.
- coached winners of five — Heisman Trophy, Doak Walker Award, Maxwell Award (all by Ron Dayne), Jim Thorpe Award (Jamar Fletcher) and the Ray Guy Award (Kevin Stemke) — national awards.

Alvarez, who grew up in the mining areas of western Pennsylvania, made a steady climb in the high school coaching ranks before getting his college start from former Iowa Coach Hayden Fry. He got Alvarez to join his Hawkeye staff in 1979, one year after Alvarez' Mason City (Iowa) High School team won a state championship. The Hawkeyes played in six bowls during Alvarez' eight years in Iowa City. His star player with the Hawkeyes was Larry Station, the school's career tackle leader and an all-American on the field and in the classroom.

Then-Notre Dame Coach Lou Holtz hired him from Iowa and during Alvarez' three years there, he was promoted -- linebackers coach, defensive coordinator and assistant head coach -- every season. Notre Dame was 32-5 while Alvarez was there and won the 1988 national championship.

Four of Alvarez' Fighting Irish linebackers earned all-America praise, including consensus choice Michael Stonebreaker in 1988.

Alvarez said his college coach, the legendary Bob Devaney, urged him to set a timetable for becoming a head coach by the time he turned 42. Alvarez was hired at UW on Jan. 2, 1990, one day after the Fighting Irish defeated Colorado in the Orange Bowl. His 42nd birthday was three days earlier.

The successes of Alvarez' teams have confirmed his status as one of the elite coaches in football. Seemingly every year, suitors have called the football office to see if Alvarez wanted to take on another rebuilding effort. Alvarez answered those inquiries last February. "This (Wisconsin) is my program, and I think I've got my stamp on it," Alvarez said. In other words, he'll continue to build Badger football.

No football coach in Wisconsin history has won more games than Barry Alvarez. His first 11 years as coach featured three Big Ten championships and six bowl wins.

Tom Lemming, Prep Football Report

"Alvarez is the nation's No. 1 recruiter. He is a truly honest, sincere and personable coach with a great rapport. Recruits take to him immediately, and so do their parents. His well-earned national recognition gives him an edge when recruiting prospects."

The Book On Barry

• Barry Alvarez is the only coach in collegiate history to win more than one Bowl Championship Series game. Alvarez is 2-0, while Bobby Bowden (Florida State), Lloyd Carr (Michigan), John Cooper (former Ohio State), Butch Davis (former Miami, Fla.), Dennis Erickson (Oregon State), Phillip Fulmer (Tennessee), Rick Neuheisel (Washington), Frank Solich (Nebraska), Steve Spurrier (Florida) and Bob Stoops (Oklahoma) all have one BCS game victory.

• He led the Badgers to the three winningest seasons (11 in 1998, 10 in 1993 and 10 in 1999) in Wisconsin history.

• Barry coached winners of national player of the year awards by the Associated Press, Walter Camp and The Sporting News (Ron Dayne) and recipients of the Heisman Trophy, Maxwell Award and Doak Walker Award (Dayne), Jim Thorpe Award (Jamar Fletcher) and Ray Guy Award (Kevin Stemke).

• Alvarez is the only coach in Big Ten history to win the Rose Bowl in back-to-back years.

• He coached Wisconsin to consecutive league championships ('98-99), something that hadn't been accomplished in Madison for more than 100 years.

• Barry became the winningest coach in Wisconsin history with a 40-10 rout of 11th-ranked Michigan State in '99.

• Alvarez renewed spirit in a program that has attracted nearly four million fans to Camp Randall Stadium during his 11-year tenure and sold more than 50,000 season tickets seven years in succession.

• He joined Ohio State's Woody Hayes as the only coaches in Big Ten history to win at least three Rose Bowls. Alvarez' Wisconsin clubs have captured three in the past eight years. Hayes' Buckeyes won four Rose Bowls over a span of 20 years.

• Alvarez owns a 6-1 career bowl record, including a perfect 3-0 mark at the Rose Bowl. Alvarez' career winning percentage in bowls (.857) is tied for second-best all-time (with Frank Kush, Gene Stallings and Warren Woodson) for coaches with a minimum of seven bowls.

• Barry built a fan base so large, that Wisconsin has played before crowds of at least 70,000 in Camp Randall Stadium 47 games in a row.

• Alvarez led the UW to seven bowls in eight seasons after the school qualified for only six bowls in the previous 103 years.

• He coached six consensus first-team all-Americans (defensive end Tom Burke, tailback Ron Dayne, cornerback Jamar Fletcher, offensive tackle Aaron Gibson, offensive tackle Chris McIntosh and center Cory Raymer).

Coaching Awards

• Finalist for ESPN College Coach of the Decade in 1999
• Victor Award as National Coach of the Year in 1999
• American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) National Coach of the Year in 1993
• Bobby Dodd Foundation National Coach of the Year in 1993
• College & Pro Football Newsweekly National Coach of the Year in 1993
• Big Ten Coach of the Year in 1993 and 1998
• Head coach at the Blue-Gray Game (1995), East-West Shrine Game (1996) and Hula Bowl (2000)

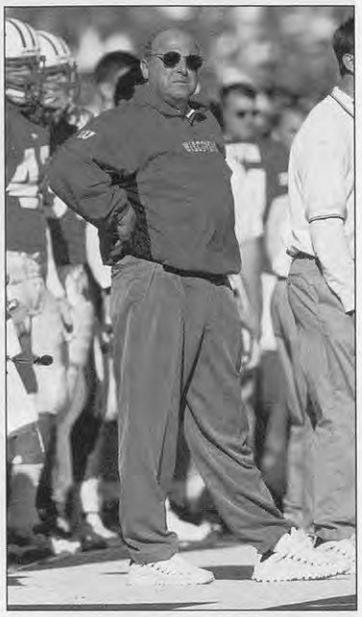
Alvarez' Wisconsin Teams

2000 (9-4): A five-game winning streak to end the season highlighted the Sun Bowl champions' 9-4 season. Fighting injuries and suspensions, the Badgers had a difficult time getting consistency in the early part of the league season. Jamar Fletcher (Jim Thorpe Award) and Kevin Stemke (inaugural Ray Guy Award) allowed UW to be the only school in the nation with two different players winning major awards.

1999 (10-2): A 17-9 win over Stanford in the Rose Bowl allowed Wisconsin to become the first Big Ten school in history to win the "Granddaddy of Them All" in back-to-back campaigns. The 10-2 Badgers finished fourth in both the media and coaches final polls. Wisconsin defeated five nationally rated foes for the first time in school history and concluded the year with eight consecutive victories. The Badgers led the Big Ten in both scoring offense and scoring defense. Ron Dayne became the NCAA's all-time leading rusher and then walked away with the Heisman Trophy, Maxwell Award and Doak Walker Award. Chris McIntosh (Outland Trophy) and Vitaly Pisetsky (Mosi Tatupu and Lou Groza Awards) were major award finalists. Alvarez was forced to coach from the press box or hospital in eight games after mid-season knee surgery.

1998 (11-1): The winningest season (11-1) in school history ended in dramatic fashion with a thrilling 38-31 upset of sixth-ranked UCLA at the Rose Bowl. Ron Dayne keyed the win with 246 yards rushing. Wisconsin led the nation in scoring defense and turnover margin. The Badgers' nine-game win streak to open the season tied a school record. Tom Burke (NCAA sack leader) and Aaron Gibson (a finalist for the Lombardi Award and the Outland Trophy) were consensus all-Americans. Alvarez was Big Ten Coach of the Year.



Barry Alvarez' 1998 (11), 1993 (10), 1999 (10) and 2000 (nine) teams are the winningest in the modern era at Wisconsin.

1997 (8-5): A six-game winning streak catapulted the Badgers to a second consecutive eight-win season and berth in the Outback Bowl vs. Georgia. The Badgers joined the '37 Michigan team as the only squads in league history to win three one-point decisions. Ron Dayne earned first-team all-America honors and Matt Davenport won two games with last-second field goals.

1996 (8-5): The Badgers opened quickly with a 3-0 non-league slate before losing four games (three by a combined total of 10 points) to highly ranked foes. The UW closed 4-1 and posted a 38-10 win over Utah in the Copper Bowl. Ron Dayne set an NCAA freshman rushing record and had 2,109 yards, including the bowl win.

1995 (4-5-2): With the most inexperienced squad in the Big Ten and facing the nation's most difficult schedule (according to the Seattle Times), the Badgers posted a 4-5-2 mark. Darrell Bevell broke many passing records at the UW. The 17-9 upset at Penn State broke the NCAA's longest win streak (20 games).

1994 (8-3-1): Wisconsin won its second straight January bowl game by defeating Duke in the Hall of Fame Bowl. The regular season featured a win at Michigan for the first time since 1962. Center Cory Raymer was a consensus all-American. Seven players were drafted by the NFL.

1993 (10-1-1): The 10-1-1 Badgers were Big Ten co-champions, beat UCLA in the Rose Bowl and were ranked as high as fifth (coaches) in the final polls. The UW had the NCAA's largest attendance increase, and its .875 winning percentage was the best by a Big Ten team since '79. A school-record eight players were named first-team all-Big Ten. Brent Moss was the Badgers' first Big Ten MVP since 1962.

1992 (5-6): The UW was 5-6 and climbed in the Big Ten standings for the third season in a row. The Badgers upset 12th-ranked Ohio State, the first win over a nationally rated foe in eight years. Wisconsin received votes in the national polls for the first time in Alvarez' career and ended the year one victory short of a bowl bid. Three of the losses were by a total of four points.

1991 (5-6): Wisconsin improved its win total by four games, the fourth-largest improvement in the NCAA. Troy Vincent was an all-American, runner-up for the Jim Thorpe Award and the seventh pick in the NFL draft by Miami. A victory at Minnesota broke a 23-game road losing streak.

1990 (1-10): Wisconsin was within striking distance entering the fourth quarter in 10 games, although its only victory was over Ball State. UW had the third-best attendance gain nationally.

BCS Perfection

The Bowl Championship Series (BCS) format was established in 1998 to help determine a true national champion. Four bowls (Rose, Fiesta, Orange and Sugar) are considered BCS bowls. Since the format was instituted, the Badgers are the only school in the nation with more than one BCS game victory.

Three Rose Bowl Wins

Only seven coaches in college football history have won at least three Rose Bowls during their careers. Wisconsin's Barry Alvarez and Ohio State's Woody Hayes are the only Big Ten coaches to win at least three Rose Bowls. The list includes:

Barry Alvarez, Wisconsin
Terry Donahue, UCLA
Woody Hayes, Ohio State
Don James, Washington
Howard Jones, USC
John McKay, USC
John Robinson, USC

That Staff Was Loaded

Barry Alvarez got his college coaching start with Hayden Fry at Iowa in 1979, one season after leading Mason City High School to the 4A state championship. One of the staffs Alvarez was a member of featured six men who went on to lead their own college programs.

Interesting Alvarez Items

• Alvarez and his wife, Cindy, endowed a football scholarship at the UW in the spring of 2000. "I thought it was a small way for me to say thanks to the UW-Madison," Alvarez said of his quarter-million dollar contribution to the school's foundation.

• Alvarez set a goal to become a collegiate head coach by his 42nd birthday and was named to the Wisconsin post three days after he turned 42.

• Alvarez added administrative duties to his job description in 2000 when he was named Associate Athletic Director. In that role, he serves on the department's policy-making management team.

• Alvarez grew up in a small mining town (Burgettstown) in western Pennsylvania. He played all sports as a kid and idolized former Pittsburgh Pirate outfielder Roberto Clemente.

• Babcock Hall, which houses the UW-Madison's nationally acclaimed dairy school, developed an ice cream flavor in honor of the Badger head coach in 1994. It was named Berry Alvarez, and the flavor was a mixture of raspberry, strawberry and blueberry.

• Alvarez, a big baseball fan, helped honor former Chicago Cubs' announcer Harry Caray by singing "Take me out to the ballgame" during a seventh-inning stretch in May of 1999.

• He was the leading tackler among linebackers on Nebraska's 1967 squad, which led the nation in total defense and created a school-record 40 turnovers.

• Alvarez was a finalist for ESPN's College Football Coach of the Decade Award. He was one of 18 coaches named to new positions in 1990 and just three (Alvarez, Steve Spurrier and Ron McBride) are still at the schools which hired them.

Brian White

Offensive Coordinator & Running Backs

Third-year offensive coordinator Brian White continues his ascent to the elite level of college football coaches. The enthusiastic White, who has coached UW running backs since 1995, continues to make his mark both on the field and the recruiting trail.

In two years directing the offense and calling the plays, the former college quarterback has begun to leave his imprint on the Badger program.

In his rookie season at the controls of the offense (1999), the Badgers set a school scoring record and finished 10th nationally in that category.

Last fall, first-year starter Michael Bennett was the NCAA's third-leading rusher, but the team also had a school-record six 200-yard passing games.

As backfield coach, White has helped the Badgers produce a 1,000-yard rusher in each of his six seasons at the school. The UW has led the Big Ten in rushing three times (1996, 1998 and 1999) with White on staff.

White's star pupil, of course, is 1999 Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne. White was a driving force in Dayne's march toward the NCAA Division I-A career rushing mark.

One of college football's top recruiters, the personable White is credited with opening doors in Texas and California for the Badgers. White has signed a number of top prospects from talent-rich California in the last three seasons.

Prior to Wisconsin, White worked for Jeff Horton (now the Badger quarterbacks coach) at UNLV and Nevada. Randy Gatewood, one of White's wide receivers at UNLV, caught 23 passes (for 363 yards) in one game. QB Chris Vargas was second nationally in total offense while White was at Nevada.

As a graduate assistant for Lou Holtz at Notre Dame, White helped tutor running backs ('88-89) and worked with Jerome Bettis and Reggie Brooks.

The former Harvard quarterback (school's No. 2 career passer) earned his B.A. in 1986, an M.A. from Fordham in 1988 and an M.B.A. from Notre Dame in 1990.

Brian and his wife, Salli, have a daughter, Cassi, and a son, Jackson.

Tim Davis

Tight Ends Coach

Once a Badger, always a Badger is how Tim Davis figures it. The former Wisconsin graduate and volunteer assistant for Dave McClain in the mid-1980s is entering the fifth year of his second stint at the UW.

Davis, who coaches tight ends, worked four years (1983-86) previously at the UW helping with the offensive line. Davis coached future NFL blockers Paul Gruber, Jeff Dellenbach and Dan Turk. The Badgers played in the 1984 Hall of Fame Bowl during his first stint in Madison.

After leaving Wisconsin, Davis coached one season each at Arizona (1987), Walla Walla Community College (1988) and Idaho (1989) before serving seven years as offensive line coach at Utah (1990-96). With the Utes, he worked for former Badger assistant coach Ron McBride.

Utah played in four bowl games while Davis was there, including a 1996 Copper Bowl appearance against the Badgers.

Davis' line was given much credit for helping Jamal Anderson (Falcons) and Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala (Steelers) record large rushing totals at Utah.

Davis, the Badgers' main in-state recruiter, has on-field duties with the tight ends. His trio last season (John Sigmund, Dague Retzlaff and Mark Anelli) combined for the most catches by the position since '96.

He has been on coaching staffs of two Rose Bowl championship squads (1998 and 1999) since his return to Madison.

Tim and his wife, Janice, have a son (Nick) and a daughter (Mary Rose).

In Tim Davis' two stints at Wisconsin, the Badgers have participated in five bowls.

Jeff Horton

Quarterbacks Coach

Jeff Horton's reputation as a first-rate developer of quarterbacks continues to flourish. His two-year term as quarterbacks coach at Wisconsin has produced some significant successes.

In his rookie season at UW, Horton had to replace two-year starter Mike Samuel at the controls. He supervised the development of freshman Brooks Bollinger, who started his first game in front of more than 90,000 fans in historic Ohio Stadium and guided the club to a Rose Bowl championship win. Bollinger, 19 years old at the time, was the league's Freshman of the Year and finished second in the league in pass efficiency.

A year ago, Bollinger had another solid campaign but injuries took him out of games for extensive periods of time. Once again, Horton turned to a freshman.

Jim Sorgi came off the bench three times with games in balance and turned two of those opportunities into road victories. Sorgi posted a pass efficiency rating (164.4) that would have ranked second nationally if he had more attempts.

With both Bollinger and Sorgi contributing, the Badgers tied their school record with six games of at least 200 yards passing in 2000.

Horton, the former head coach at both Nevada and UNLV, earned his reputation with quarterback development at both of those stops. Chris Vargas, his signalcaller with the Wolf Pack, finished second nationally in total offense in '93 and Jon Denton threw for more than 7,000 yards and broke 10 NCAA records in two seasons at UNLV.

Horton's head coaching experience included five years at UNLV (1994-98) and one season at Nevada (1993). Horton also worked five years as an assistant at Nevada.

His 1994 UNLV squad played in the Las Vegas Bowl and Horton was named co-Big West Coach of the Year.

Horton got into college coaching at Minnesota (1984) where he was a graduate assistant.

An active member of the American Football Coaches Association, Horton has served on the public relations (twice) and ethics (once) committees.

His wife's name is Teri.

Jeff Horton's impact on the Badger program resulted in 200-yard passing games in six of the final eight weeks of last year.

Jim Hueber

Offensive Line Coach

Sometimes a college football program gets known for producing star performers at a specific position. The case can be made that Wisconsin develops as many top-flight offensive linemen as any program in the nation.

Jim Hueber has coached Badger linemen for six seasons, and he is the coach responsible for helping build the reputation of Wisconsin's strong line play.

Hueber, entering his 10th year at Wisconsin and his 18th in the Big Ten (he coached for eight years at Minnesota), has worked with 11 offenses which ranked in the top 25 nationally in rushing. Six of the offenses he's coached led the Big Ten in rushing offense, including three of the last five at Wisconsin.

Hueber's lines have paved the way for a 1,000-yard rusher in eight straight seasons. That's a Big Ten record.

The 2000 Badgers broke in a new tailback and fought a lot of lineup inconsistencies. Yet, Michael Bennett finished third nationally in rushing. Three of Hueber's seniors (Casey Rabach, Bill Ferrario and Dave Costa) earned pro contracts last spring.

His 1999 line helped Ron Dayne become college football's career rushing leader. Among Hueber's blockers was Chris McIntosh the league's 1999 Offensive Lineman of the Year and a finalist for the Outland Trophy.

One of his other former pupils was Aaron Gibson, a finalist for the Lombardi Award and the Outland Trophy. Gibson, like McIntosh, was a consensus all-American and first-round NFL draft pick. Twenty-five of Hueber's former players have made NFL rosters.

Hueber also coached running backs for three seasons (1992-94) at UW. He tutored Big Ten MVP Brent Moss and Terrell Fletcher in 1993 when that duo combined for 2,633 yards.

Jim and his wife, Nancy, have four children: Jeffrey, Jonathan, Joseph and Kristine.

Henry Mason

Wide Receivers Coach

In six seasons at Wisconsin, Henry Mason has quietly built a reputation for developing and bringing major league talent to the UW-Madison campus.

The Badgers, especially during the Ron Dayne era, certainly ran the ball more than they passed.

That trend is starting to change a bit and part of the reason has been the outstanding play of the Wisconsin receivers.

The Badger receiving corp started to make a name for itself when Tony Simmons and Donald Hayes formed one of the best tandems in college football. That duo ranks third (Simmons) and sixth (Hayes) in career yardage at Wisconsin.

The most-recent pair of star pass catchers at Wisconsin are a pair of Bedford, OH natives (Chris Chambers and Lee Evans) that Mason recruited.

Chambers, the school's MVP last season, joined Al Toon as the only Badgers in history to record more than 2,000 yards receiving. Chambers was picked by Miami in the second round of the 2001 NFL Draft.

Evans, as a sophomore, averaged 19.2 yards per catch and added academic all-league honors as well.

Mason came to Wisconsin prior to the '95 season after helping Western Michigan lead the Mid-American Conference in passing three times in four seasons.

His lone head coaching position was an impressive rebuilding effort at Smith-Cotton (Mo.) High School from 1982-90. His 1988 team became the first in 13 years at the school to post a winning record.

Mason served one year as an assistant coach at Baker University (1981) and two seasons at Lexington (Mo.) High School (1979-80) before taking over at Smith-Cotton.

Mason, who lettered in football and baseball at Central Missouri State, was drafted by the Baltimore Colts and played one season with the St. Louis Cardinals.

His wife's name is Debbie.

Kevin Cosgrove

Defensive Coordinator & Linebackers

One constant on defense during the Barry Alvarez era has been that an inside linebacker nearly always leads the club in tackles. Another constant during the Alvarez era has been that Kevin Cosgrove has led the linebacker contingent.

Cosgrove, the only remaining member of Alvarez' first coaching staff, has coached LBs for 11 years. For the last seven years, Cosgrove also coordinated the Wisconsin defense.

That's a defense which, in the last three years, has built a resume that suggests it is one of the top units in college football.

Cosgrove's 1998 defensive team finished among the top 10 nationally in all four major categories. The Badgers led the nation in scoring defense, surrendering just 10.2 ppg.

The Badger defense of 1999 was fifth nationally in scoring defense and boasted the Big Ten's top defense for scoring, total yards and pass efficiency. UW was second in rushing defense.

Wisconsin's 2000 stop troops boasted the winner of the Jim Thorpe Award (Jamar Fletcher) and Big Ten co-Defensive Lineman of the Year (Wendell Bryant). Fletcher and Bryant were Cosgrove recruits.

In 10 of his 11 years on staff, a Cosgrove-coached linebacker has topped the team in tackles. Two of Cosgrove's linebackers -- Pete Monty in '96 and Nick Greisen in '00 -- led the conference in tackles, too. Monty is the Badgers' No. 1 career tackler.

Cosgrove has 18 years of experience in the Big Ten having worked at Illinois from 1980-87. He was also a defensive assistant at Colorado State (1989) and SE Missouri State (1988).

Cosgrove's list of Badger recruits includes Aaron Gibson (Lions), Monty (Giants), Terrell Fletcher (Chargers), plus Bryant and Jamar Fletcher. At Illinois, Cosgrove signed Jeff George (NFL's No. 1 draft pick), Moe Gardner (two-time all-American) and Darrick Brownlow (Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year).

Kevin and his wife, Shelly, have two sons (Clint and Connor) and a daughter (Shannon).

Kevin Cosgrove, the school's defensive coordinator, is the lone remaining member of Coach Barry Alvarez' first UW staff.

Todd Bradford

Defensive Backs Coach

Todd Bradford's first season at Wisconsin was a memorable one considering that his pass defense had one of the nation's top efficiency ratings and his field cornerback (Jamar Fletcher) won a major national award.

Fletcher, under Bradford's tutelage, led the Big Ten in interceptions for the third season in a row and capped off his junior season by winning the Jim Thorpe Award (given to the nation's top defensive back). He was a first-round draft pick by the Dolphins.

Bradford also oversaw the continued improvement of Mike Echols, who led the Big Ten and established a school record with 25 passes broken up. Fletcher and Echols combined for 12 interceptions and 46 pass breakups in 2000.

Before his appointment at Wisconsin, Bradford had worked three seasons (two as defensive coordinator) at Louisiana Tech.

His experience facing high-powered passing offenses was tested every day in practice at Tech. He had to coach against Tim Rattay, one of the nation's top quarterbacks in the late '90s.

Louisiana Tech won 24 games in Bradford's three seasons there, including a school-record nine in 1997. One of the defenses he coordinated improved its yards allowed average by 65 per game from the prior season.

Prior to Tech, Bradford was an assistant coach at Eastern Michigan (1995-96), defensive coordinator at Lehigh (1994), assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at New Hampshire (1988-93) and assistant coach at Southern Utah (1987).

Eastern Michigan set 43 school records while Bradford was on staff; Lehigh went to the Patriot League championship game and his defense was the league's second best; and the '90 New Hampshire and '87 Southern Utah squads both established school interception records under his watch.

Bradford attended Ricks Junior College, where the '84 team played for the junior college national championship in the Valley of the Sun Bowl.

Todd and his wife, Sondra, have three daughters (Ashlee, Hailee and Whitnee) and a son (Kody).

John Palermo

Assistant Head Coach & Defensive Line

Building strong defenses is nothing new to assistant head coach and defensive line boss John Palermo.

During Notre Dame's rise to the top of the college football world in the late 1980s, Palermo and Badger coach Barry Alvarez devised the Fighting Irish defensive game plan.

Palermo is starting his 11th year as an aide to Alvarez at Wisconsin, and the duo has, once again, built some fine defenses.

The 1998 Badger defenders ranked first nationally in scoring, fourth in rushing, fifth in total and seventh in pass efficiency defense. That defense was led by Tom Burke, the hard-charging defensive end tutored by Palermo. Burke led the nation and set a Big Ten record for quarterback sacks. Burke was Palermo's second all-America end at UW.

Palermo's first national honor recipient at UW was Tarek Saleh, who set many school sack and TFL marks and earned all-America praise in 1996.

Palermo has also been a strong recruiter at UW having drawn Saleh, Tennessee Titan Bobby Myers and prep all-American Anttaj Hawthorne to the UW from Connecticut.

As assistant head coach, Palermo had to step in for Alvarez at Minnesota in '00 to serve as head coach. Alvarez was out after knee surgery and Palermo helped the Badgers to a 20-17 overtime victory.

Palermo's time at Wisconsin has been split between coaching outside linebackers (1991-94) and the defensive line (1995-present). Before his appointment with the Badgers, Palermo was head coach at Austin Peay State (1990) and an assistant at Notre Dame (1988-89), Minnesota (1984-87), Appalachian State (1983), Memphis State (1980-82) and Austin Peay State (1979)

His star player prior to UW was former college lineman of the year Chris Zorich, a consensus all-American at Notre Dame.

John, and his wife, Donna, have a son (Jason) and a daughter (Jessica). Jason will be a Badger freshman football player in 2001.

Darrell Wilson

Special Teams & Outside Linebackers

When Darrell Wilson joined the Wisconsin staff prior to the 2000 season, most people realized the addition of the former New Jersey high school coach would strengthen one of the Badgers' prime recruiting areas.

That was accomplished for sure. But the contributions that Wilson made on-field were just as important during his first season on the UW-Madison campus.

As outside linebackers coach, Wilson watched over the development of Roger Knight (93 tackles, third-most on the team).

Wilson, who coordinates all special teams, may have been proudest of the spectacular senior season of punter Kevin Stemke.

The Badger punter helped UW lead the NCAA and set a Big Ten record for net punting average (42.5). Stemke capped off his career by earning the inaugural Ray Guy Award, given to the nation's top college punter.

Wilson, previously an assistant coach at Rutgers, worked with the Scarlet Knight running backs in 1999. He was also an assistant at Rhode Island from 1996-98.

Wilson's reputation in the East was earned during a successful prep coaching career at Woodrow Wilson High School (Camden, N.J.) from 1988-95. His teams registered a 65-15 overall record (.815), won five conference championships and advanced to the NJSIAA South Jersey Group III title game four times.

Among his players at Wilson HS were former Badgers Duer Sharp and Ron Johnson, along with former Syracuse all-American Donovan Darius. Off the field, Wilson was named Camden's "Citizen of the Year" by the Rotary Club in 1992.

The former honorable mention Div. I-AA all-American played collegiately at Connecticut (1976-80). Wilson was named to the Huskies' 100th anniversary all-time team in 1998. He played one year with the New England Patriots and five seasons (1982-86) with the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL helping them win the 1983 Grey Cup.

Wilson earned a B.A. degree in sociology from UConn (1981) and entered the coaching ranks at that school as a graduate assistant in '82.

Wilson and his wife, Monica, have three daughters: Brianna, Kayla and Kiana.

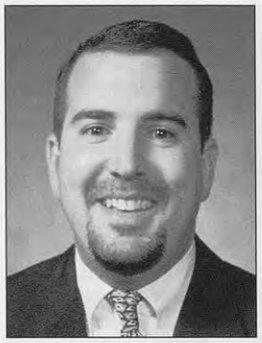
Football Support Staff



John Chadima
Asst. AD / Football Operations

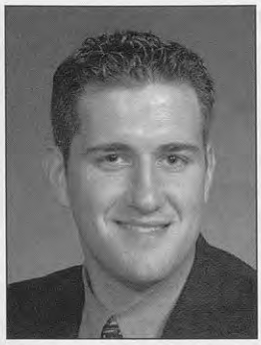
John Chadima, who has worked for the Wisconsin Department of Athletics since 1990, was named an Assistant AD / Director of Football Operations last spring.

One of the original members of Barry Alvarez' staff at Wisconsin, Chadima is responsible for coordinating all off-the-field activities (budget, team travel, summer job program, supervision of the managerial staff and scheduling).

He also worked as the department's Director of Facilities and Events for three years (1997-99). In that role, he was in charge of the artificial turf replacement in Camp Randall Stadium and the McClain Center plus the construction of the Goodman Softball Diamond.

He was a football manager at Iowa from 1983-87 and was a G.A. in administration for the Iowa Athletic Department (1987-89).

The 1988 Iowa graduate (B.S. degree in athletic administration) is single.



Jason Eck
Graduate assistant for offense

Jason Eck, an offensive lineman for the Badgers' 1998 Big Ten champions, is in his third year as an offensive graduate assistant.

Eck was a three-year center and three-time scout team player of the week honoree during his career. Eck capped his career by earning academic all-Big Ten honors in '98 and the Athletic Board's scholar-athlete award for football. He studied psychology at the UW.

The four-year honor roll student at St. Pius X High School (Atlanta) was a National Merit Commended Scholar as a prep. He is the son of former University of Toledo head basketball coach Jay Eck.

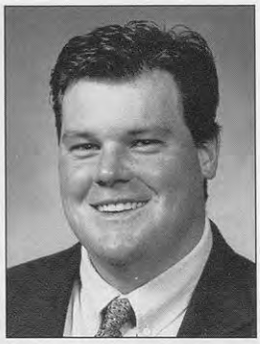
Spence Nowinsky
Graduate assistant for defense

Spence Nowinsky, a former academic aide for the football team, starts his second season as a graduate assistant coach on defense. He works primarily with the secondary.

Nowinsky coached in the prep ranks for six years ('95-98) and was an assistant on Wittenberg Birnamwood's Div. 4 state championship team in 1997.

The 1996 graduate of Minnesota State-Mankato was a three-year football letterman for the Mavericks. He has a B.S. in physical education.

Nowinsky attended D.C. Everest High School and was an all-state linebacker for the '89 state champs.



Brian Murphy
Administrative Assistant

Brian Murphy returns for his second season as an administrative assistant, where he assists in recruiting efforts. He served as recruiting coordinator previously at UW before three years as a G.A. with the offensive and defensive lines.

Murphy's college coaching experience includes stints at Illinois Benedictine, Baylor, San Diego (he was defensive coordinator) and Lehigh.

Murphy graduated from Lehigh with a degree in international relations. He earned his M.A. in education administration from UW-Madison in 1997.

He and his wife, Maggie have one son: Eamon.

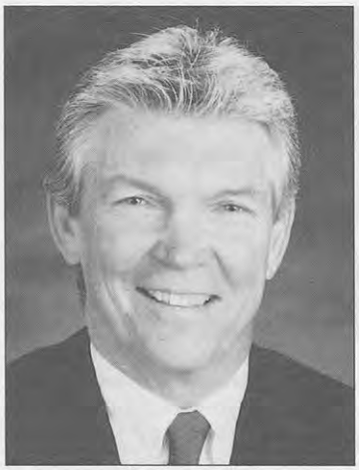
Director of Athletics



Pat Richter, the dean of Big Ten Directors of Athletics, begins his 12th year heading the athletic department at his alma mater.

The former all-star student-athlete, not only rescued the Badger athletic department in the early 1990s, but has also charted a plan for a prosperous future in the new millennium.

When Richter accepted then-Chancellor Donna Shalala's offer to run the division in '89, he inherited a $2.1 million debt, a downtrodden program on the field, subpar facilities and deteriorating fan support.

During his administration, the Badgers have eliminated the red ink on the financial ledgers, won on the playing field, built new facilities, added three new women's sports and made it fashionable to "be a Badger."

The cumulative effect of Richter's efforts are appreciated in a recent survey conducted by The Sporting News which ranked the Badgers as the 10th-best program in the nation.

Every program has flourished during his administration. Some of the highlights include:

- the football team, which has three Big Ten titles, six bowls and filled Camp Randall Stadium for the past nine years.
- the men's basketball team, which has played in five NCAA tourneys and three NITs and produced the two winningest teams in school history.
- the women's hoops team, which has played in four NCAA tournaments and three NITs.

Three teams -- men's hockey (1989-90), men's crew (1989-90) and men's soccer (1995) -- have won national titles during Richter's tenure.

Richter's own college athletic prowess is well-documented. He earned all-America (1961-62) and academic all-America (1962) honors as a tight end.

Richter led the Big Ten in receiving twice and topped the nation as a junior. As a senior, Richter won the prestigious 1963 Big Ten Medal of Honor.

Richter was recognized for his college gridiron exploits in 1997 with his induction into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame.

He also earned all-league honors in baseball at UW as a power-hitting first baseman, but the 6-5 center received his scholarship for basketball.

Pat was a first-round draft pick of the Redskins and played professionally from 1963-71. Richter earned his B.S. degree from the UW-Madison in landscape architecture (1964).

Upon retirement from the NFL, he earned a law degree (1971) from UW-Madison. After working at a Madison law firm, he joined Oscar Mayer where he was V.P. of personnel.

Richter was honored with an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award for post-college achievements in 1988. He is a member of the State Athletic and Madison Sports Halls of Fame and the NFL Player Alumni Association.

Pat was enshrined into the UW Athletic Department and Rose Bowl Halls of Fame in '91 and '94, respectively. In 1995, he gained induction into the GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame. The Sales & Marketing Executives of Madison named Richter their "Executive of the Year" in 1997.

Pat and his wife, Renee, have four sons: Scott (wife Khaki and grandsons J.P. and Cole), Brad (wife Chrissy and grandson Max and granddaughter Samantha), Barry (wife Kim and grandson Blake) and Tim.

Special Assistant to the Chancellor

David McDonald, the former chair of the Athletic Board, has been named a special assistant to the Chancellor for Athletics. In that role, McDonald will oversee some day-to-day operations of the Department of Athletics, including academics and rules compliance.

McDonald, a history professor first appointed to the 22-member UW Board of Athletics in 1994, served as its chairman one year succeeding Jim Hoyt.

McDonald's research and teaching interests are in the history of imperial Russa (1649-1917). He is the author of "United Government and Russian Foreign Policy, 1900-1914" (Harvard University Press, 1992).

10-20-20 Club

Perhaps one of the most-satisfying seasons for Richter was 1999-2000. Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne led UW to a Rose Bowl victory and 10 wins overall. Both the men's and women's basketball teams won at least 20 games. The men made the Final Four and the women won the WNIT. Only 21 schools in history have accomplished that 10-20-20 success in the same season.

Management Team

Barry Alvarez

Football Operations

Barry Alvarez is in his second year as an Associate Athletic Director. He oversees the football program he has built into a national power. Alvarez was named UW head coach in 1990 and has led the Badgers to three Big Ten titles and three Rose Bowl wins. The winningest football coach in UW history, Alvarez was previously an assistant coach at Notre Dame and Iowa. His Badger teams have posted the three winningest seasons in UW annals. Among his many outstanding players was '99 Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne. Alvarez earned his B.A. and M.A. degrees from Nebraska. He and his wife, Cindy, have two daughters and a son.

Cheryl Marra

Sports Administrator

Cheryl Marra begins her 12th year as an Associate A.D. / Sports Administrator at Wisconsin. Along with serving as the school's Senior Women's Administrator, Marra has responsibility for overseeing all sports except football. Marra also supervises the internal units of academic affairs and compliance. Marra has served on several NCAA committees including post-graduate scholarships, women's soccer and women's athletics. A 1977 graduate of Slippery Rock State, Marra received her M.A. from Ohio State in 1983. Cheryl and her husband, Jerry, have three children: Kelly, Kenny and Peter.

Jamie Pollard

Chief Financial Officer

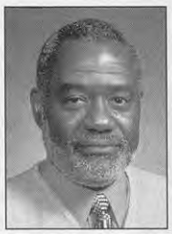
Jamie Pollard enters his fourth full season as the Athletic Department's Chief Financial Officer. Additionally, Pollard has assumed a broader role in managing the division's support functions. The former Associate A.D. at Maryland (1994-98), oversees facilities and events, equipment, sports medicine, technical services and strength and conditioning as well as running the business office. The UW-Oshkosh graduate ('87) was inducted into that school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1999. He was the '87 Div. III NCAA champion in the 5,000 meters. He and his wife, Ellen, have three children (Thomas, Annie and Maggie).

Al Fish

Capital Projects

Al Fish, an Administrative Officer for the department of athletics since 1989, is the division's Associate A.D. for Capital Projects. With the initiation of more than $100 million of capital projects in the next five years, Fish will oversee those efforts which include the refurbishing of Camp Randall Stadium. Fish will continue to supervise the University Ridge Golf Course. Fish spent two years coordinating construction of the $76.4 million Kohl Center and serving as its interim General Manager. The 1973 graduate of Luther College is married to Susan Goodwin. They have three children: Cassie, Molly and Nick.

Mike Moss



Student Services

Mike Moss starts his sixth year at the UW as an Associate A.D. / Student Services and Activities. This newly created area is responsible for addressing the needs of student-athletes. Key initiatives will be the Champs Life Skills program and the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. He is also a representative for Plan 2008, a campus-wide diversity program. Previously, Moss was Director of Sports Operations for the Atlanta Olympic Games. He was chief administrator for six sports. The 1961 graduate of Ohio, received his M.A. from Cal State Hayward. He is also a retired lieutenant in the U.S. Naval Reserve. His wife's name is Betty Gordon.

Vince Sweeney

External Relations

Vince Sweeney is in his seventh year as an Associate A.D. in charge of external relations. Last fall, he was given additional responsibilities with various entities on campus, including the Chancellor's Office. Sweeney oversees marketing and promotions, sports information, spirit squads, special events and fundraising. He serves on the Board of the National Association of Collegiate Marketers and Greater Madison Convention & Visitors Bureau. Sweeney was 1994 "Marketer of the Year" by the American Marketing Association. Sweeney has a B.A. in journalism (1978) from UW. He and his wife, Sharon, have two daughters (Kelsey and Keara).

22 HONORS CANDIDATE

Nick Davis

WR, 5-10, 183, Sr.

Manchester, MI (High School)

Did you know? Davis told Barry Alvarez that he "could catch a B.B. in the dark" when asked if he could field punts during camp of his freshman year.

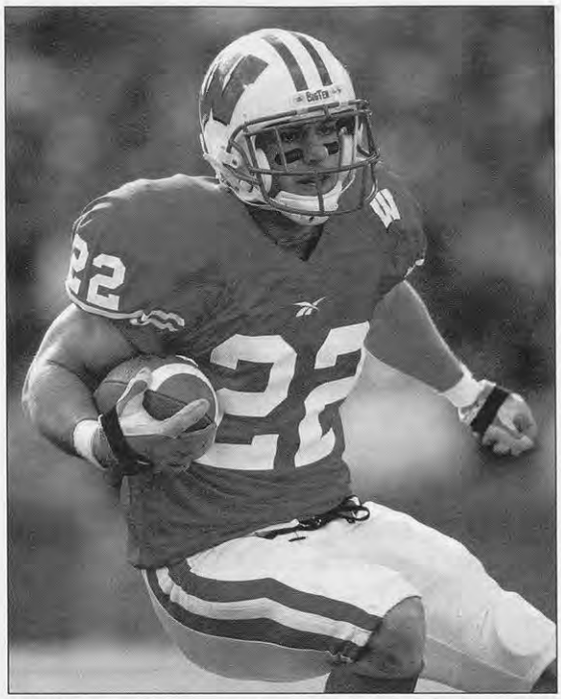
Background: an electrifying playmaker, who has topped the Big Ten in both punt (freshman) and kickoff returns (sophomore) during his career ... five career returns for touchdowns ... enters final season ranked second in Wisconsin history for career punt return yards (761) and kickoff return yards (1,183) ... needs 13 yards on punt returns to pass all-time leader Troy Vincent (Philadelphia Eagles) ... trails Fred Owens in career kickoff return yardage by 327, despite having 28 fewer attempts ... has a reasonable chance to become the first player in school annals to record more than 1,000 yards in three categories (kickoff returns, punt returns and receiving) ... has 2,687 all-purpose yards, ninth-best in school history (Davis is the only receiver among the Badgers' career top 10) ... has averaged 15.99 yards every time he's touched the ball as a Badger ... career average in punt returns (12.1) is tops in Wisconsin history (Vincent is second at 11.4) and his kickoff return norm (23.7) is third all-time (Greg Johnson was 24.6 and Chris Davis was 23.8) ... three career punt returns for scores (one off Ira Matthews' school record) and two kickoff returns for TDs (tied with Matthews for the top spot) ... started 12 games in career ... 2000: ranked 33rd nationally in kickoff return yardage (23.0) ... had a 95-yard return called back because of penalty at Hawaii ... if that hadn't happened, his 27.2-yard average would have ranked seventh in the NCAA ... team's special teams P.O.W. vs. Purdue when he posted a season-best 93 yards in kickoff returns ... missed four games and still recorded career bests for receptions (21) and touchdown catches (two) ... 56 receiving yards vs. Minnesota were his best and included a 45 yarder to set up a score with 45 seconds left in the opening half ... career-best seven catches in the Ohio State game ... 1999: third-team all-America (as a returner) by The Sporting News ... semi-finalist for Mosi Tatupu Award, given to the nation's top special teams performer ... ranked 14th nationally (second in Big Ten) in punt returns (13.8) and 15th nationally (first in Big Ten) in kickoff returns (26.3) ... Davis and Minnesota's Tyrone Carter were only league players to rank among top 10 in both punt and kickoff returns ... first Badger to score touchdowns three ways (reception, punt return and kickoff return) in the same season since Ira Matthews in 1978 ... Matthews had three punt returns, three runs and one reception for TDs that year ... leading receiver in the two games Chris



Nick Davis, one of the nation's top special teams players, has led the Big Ten in both punt and kickoff returns during his college career.

Chambers missed with a broken finger ... Davis had four catches for 91 yards vs. Ball State and three grabs for 55 yards at Cincinnati during Chambers' absence ... an 81-yard TD reception against Minnesota was third-longest pass play in school history and helped him to a 91-yard day ... earned Wisconsin offensive and special teams P.O.W. honors vs. Ball State (91 yards receiving and 77-yard kickoff return for a TD) ... earned team P.O.W. accolades on special teams vs. Murray State (76-yard punt return for a TD) and Purdue (91-yard kickoff return for a TD) ... Big Ten special teams P.O.W. vs. Ball State ... Badgers' longest reception (81), punt return (76) and kickoff return (91) of the season ... recorded 13 plays of at least 20 yards, second-most on team ... started eight games ... second on Big Ten championship team in all-purpose yardage (1,025) ... 1998: winner of school's inaugural offensive rookie of the year award ... led Big Ten and ranked third nationally in punt returns (15.3) ... that average was second-best in school annals (Ira Matthews, who led the nation with a 16.9-yard average in 1978, has the record) ... freshman all-America kick returner by The Sporting News ... 427 yards on punt returns broke Thad McFadden's Badger season record ... scored two TDs on punt returns (68 vs. Northwestern and 82 vs. Penn State) ... TD vs. PSU, the fifth-longest in school history, was chronicled in Sports Illustrated's "Breakdown" segment and opened scoring in the Rose Bowl-clinching win over Penn State ... caught a 34-yard pass while on his back at Indiana to set up the winning score ... 126 all-purpose yards in the Rose Bowl vs. UCLA ... led team with three receptions for 57 yards in upset win against Bruins ... High School: all-state pick at Manchester ... Ann Arbor News all-area choice three times ... career totals of 4,530 rushing yards (12.3 ypc), more than 6,000 all-purpose yards and 69 TDs ... rushed for 1,880 yards and scored 28 TDs as a senior ... registered 435 all-purpose yards one game ... rushed for more than 1,000 yards three times ... greatest sports thrill was a 95-yard interception return for a TD to win a game ... state runner-up in 100 and 200 meters ... coach was Wes Gall ... Personal: born 10/6/79 ... consumer science major ... father's name is Robert and mother's name is Cheryle.

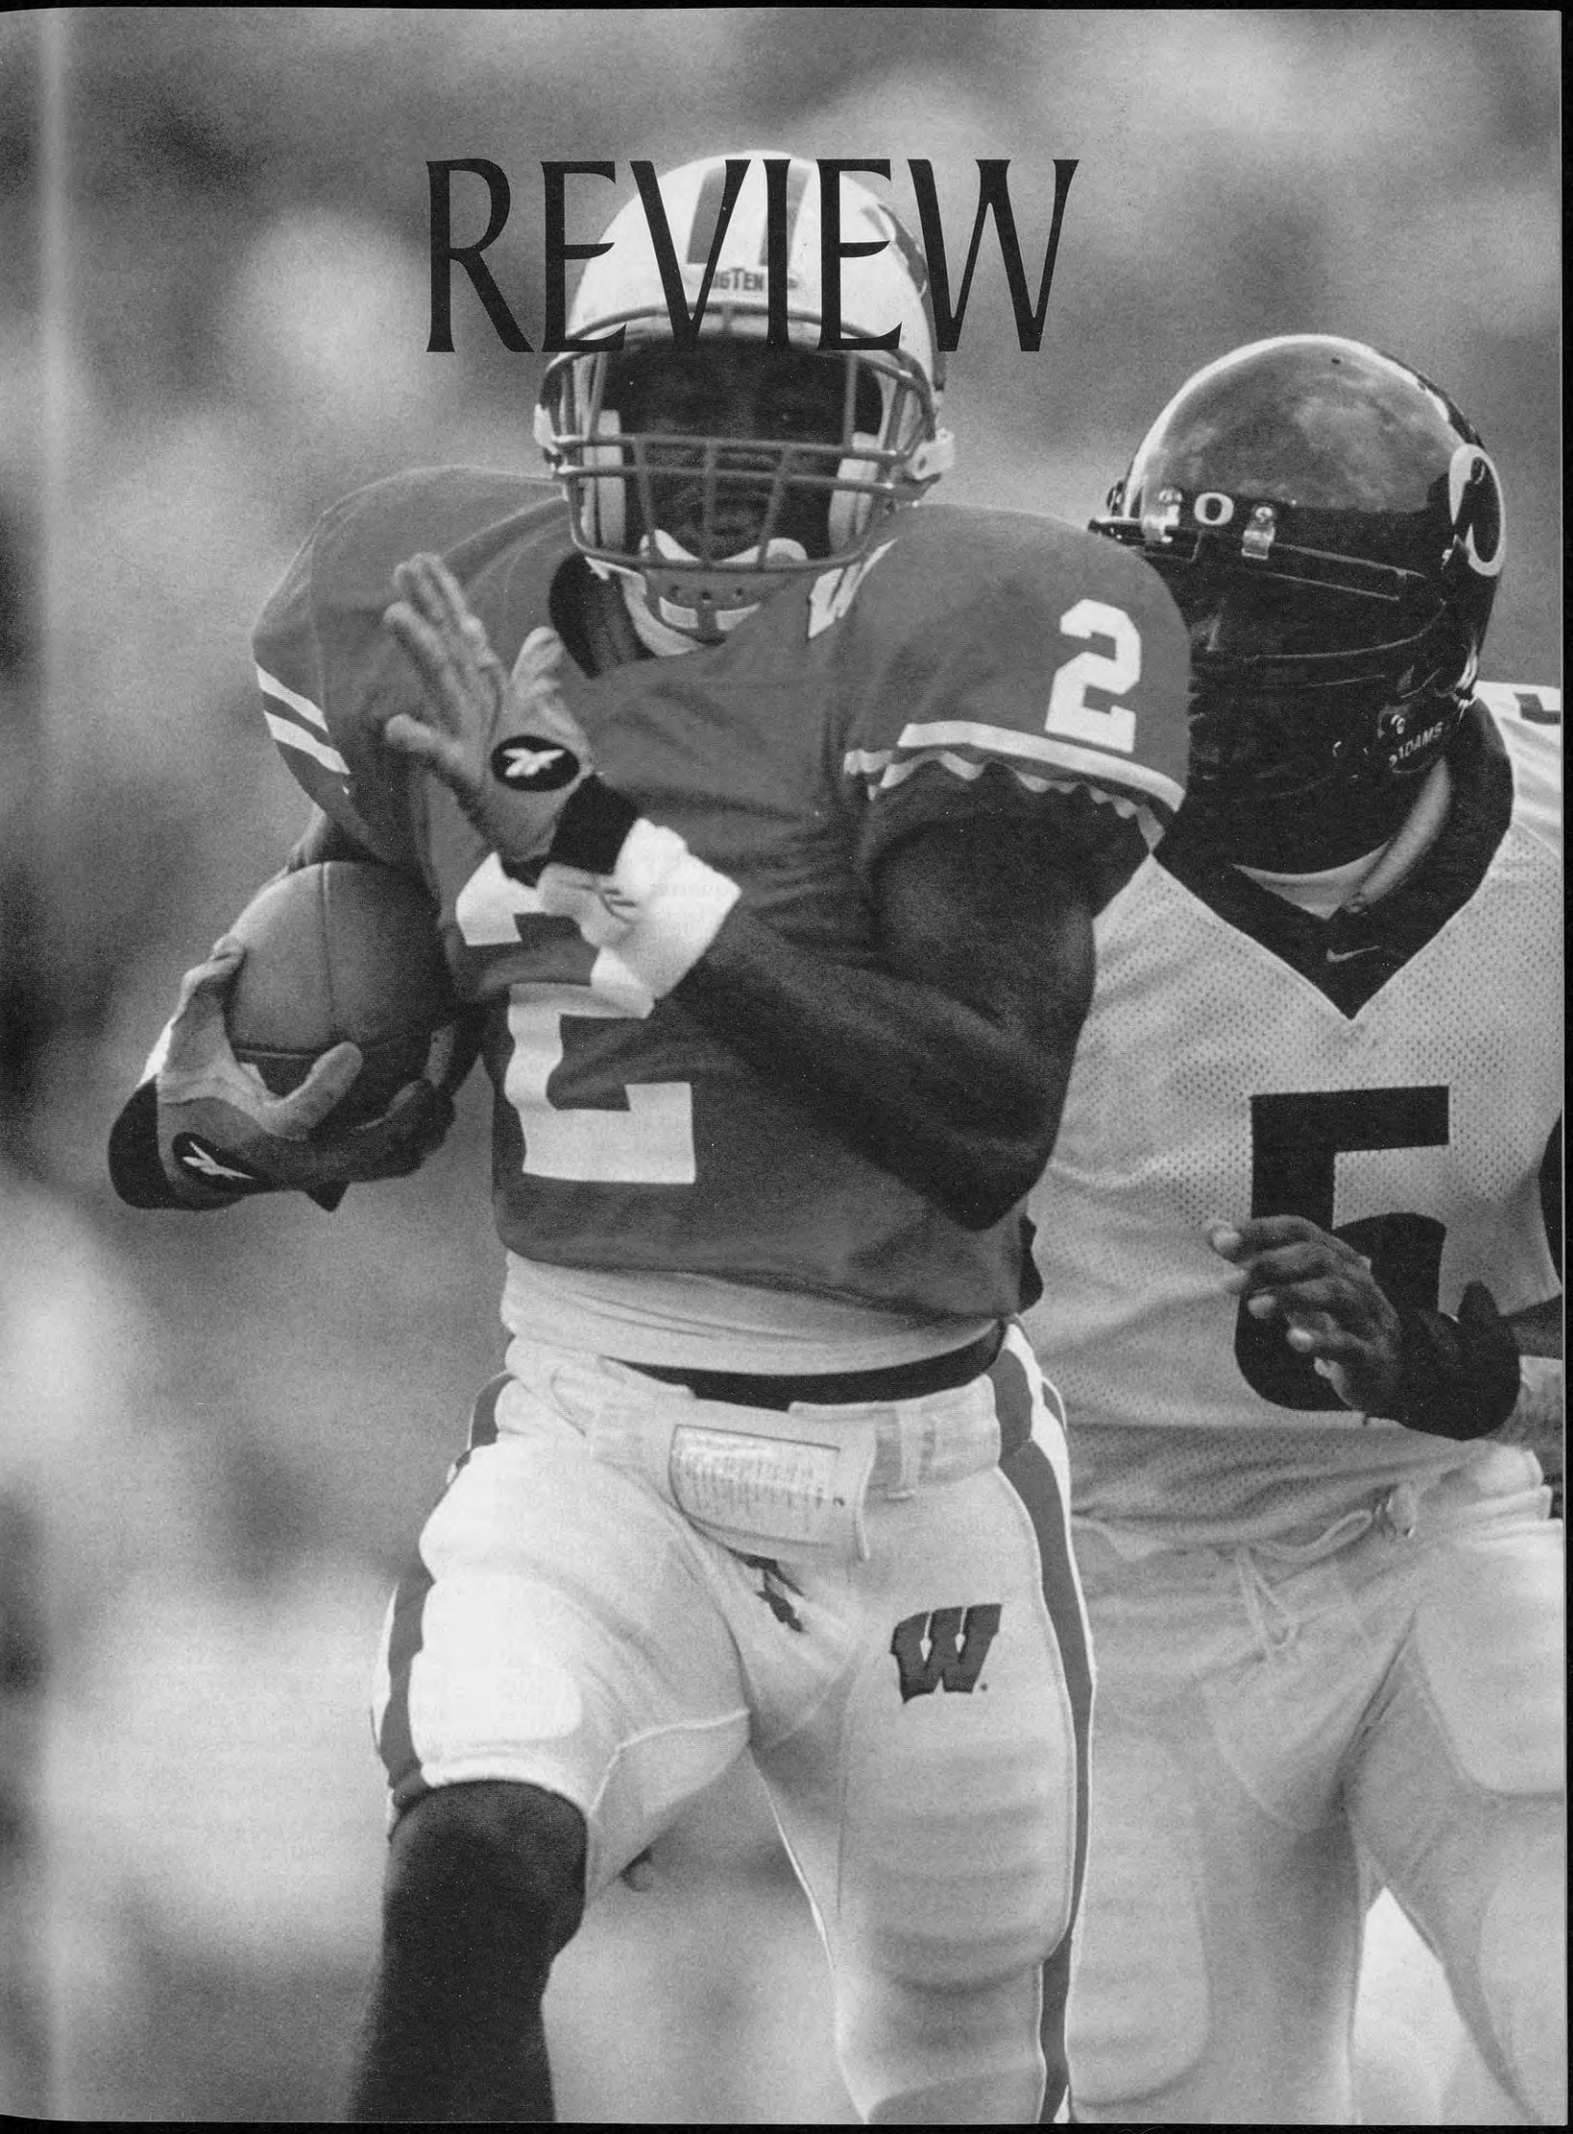
REVIEW



Reviewing 2000

These are the facts: The 2000 Wisconsin football team overcame many challenges — an unusual number of injuries, suspensions to 27 players and one of the nation's most-difficult schedules — to register a 9-4 overall record. A closer look at that mark reveals that this club ...

- became only the fourth in school modern-era history (third in a row) to win at least nine games.
- ended the season with a five-game winning streak, including a victory over UCLA in the 67th Sun Bowl.
- joined Michigan as the only schools in the league to win at least nine games. Wisconsin also topped the conference in victories in 1998 and 1999. The last league school to have a share of the Big Ten's top win total three seasons in a row was Michigan (1989-91).
- won four road games, equalling the school mark registered by the 1974, 1993, 1998 and 1999 clubs.
- kept possession, for the sixth season in a row, of the Paul Bunyan Axe.
- played in front of a school-record 78,711 average crowd at Camp Randall Stadium.
- tied the school record for most academic all-Big Ten selections (10).
- had winners of the Jim Thorpe (Jamar Fletcher) and Ray Guy Awards (Kevin Stemke).

You Can Look These Up

Winning ways: Barry Alvarez' last eight teams have won 71.4 percent of their games and averaged 8.5 victories per year. Included during that stretch are the four winningest teams (1998, '93, '99, '00) in UW modern-era history.

The top 10: Wisconsin's berth in the Sun Bowl was the school's seventh bowl since 1993. The only other schools in the nation that can make that claim are Florida, Florida State, Kansas State, Michigan, Nebraska, Penn State, Tennessee, Virginia and Virginia Tech.

Alvarez among the best in postseason: Barry Alvarez' 6-1 bowl record is tied (with Gene Stallings, Frank Kush and Warren Woodson) for the second-best winning rate in NCAA history for coaches with at least six bowls. John Robinson (8-1) is the only coach with a better win percentage than Alvarez and the others.

Working overtime: The Badgers played three overtime games in 2000, equalling the NCAA season record.

Close calls, mostly: Eight of Wisconsin's games were decided by seven or fewer points in 2000.

Fourth quarter dominance: The Badgers' best quarter was the fourth in 2000. Wisconsin had a 117-61 scoring advantage in the final stanza. Northwestern was the only school to outscore the Badgers (17-11) in the fourth period.

Taking care of the ball: In the last three seasons (1998-2000), Wisconsin has won 26 of 27 games (.963) when the opponent has the same or more miscues. The exception was vs. Ohio State last fall when both clubs had two turnovers.

200 two ways: Wisconsin is 11-0-1 for Alvarez in games it rushes and passes for at least 200 yards.

On the ground and in the air: Wisconsin registered at least 200 yards running and passing in the same game only eight times in the last 85 outings. Three of those games (Minnesota, Indiana and Hawaii) came in 2000.

Getting to 100 isn't so hard: Chris Chambers, the team's Most Valuable Player in 2000, proved that recording 100 yards receiving in a game isn't so tough. In his first 31 games as a Badger, Chambers never recorded a 100-yard game. After returning from his fall camp foot injury, Chambers surpassed the century mark three times in his final six games. Chambers registered the third- (191 vs. Iowa), fourth- (173 vs. Purdue) and sixth-best (169 vs. Hawaii) receiving games in UW history.

All-Big Ten spotlight: Five Badgers — CB Jamar Fletcher, P Kevin Stemke, RG Casey Rabach, LB Nick Greisen and DL Wendell Bryant — earned first-team all-Big Ten distinction in 2000. Fletcher was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year (coaches and media), while Bryant was chosen co-Defensive Lineman of the Year by the coaches. Wisconsin had eight players named to either the first- or second-team all-Big Ten squads, most in the conference.

Leading the league: Three Badger defenders led the league in a statistical category. Jamar Fletcher topped the circuit in interceptions for the third time in as many seasons. Nick Greisen became the first Badger since Pete Monty (1996) to pace the Big Ten in tackles. Mike Echols led the Big Ten in passes defended.

Inside The Numbers

38: The number of victories in the four-year careers of the 2000 senior class. No group won more games at UW.

50: Career starts for Bill Ferrario, tied for the most in school history. Former teammate Chris McIntosh and Michigan's Jon Jansen are the only other players in Big Ten history to start 50 games.

22: Catches in back-to-back weeks by Chris Chambers vs. Purdue and Iowa (11 in each game). He became the first player in UW history to have multiple double-digit reception games in the same season. Chambers joined Al Toon as the only players in UW history with more than 2,000 yards receiving in a career. Chambers had 2,004.

179 & 459: Return yards on interceptions for Jamar Fletcher in 2000 and in his career. The season total (179) broke David Greenwood's 19-year-old school record and the career total (459 in three years) bettered a 31-year-old league mark.

8: Consecutive seasons that Wisconsin has produced a 1,000-yard rusher, extending the longest streak in Big Ten history. Michael Bennett, in 2000, became the most-recent Badger to reach 1,000 yards. Only North Carolina (12) and USC (10) have longer streaks of consecutive years with a 1,000-yard rusher.

258: Rushing yardage gained by Michael Bennett in the second half vs. Oregon. That set a school record (Ron Dayne had 250 vs. Hawaii) and came against the NCAA's top-rated rushing defense at the time.

54 to 46: The ratio of rushing yardage gained vs. passing yardage gained in 2000. That was the most-balanced offense at the UW since 1992 (52:48).

11.9: Advantage in yardage that Wisconsin enjoyed in the kicking game each week. The Badgers averaged more yardage than the opposition in punting (by 5.7 yards per attempt), punt returns (+4.2) and kickoff returns (+2.0).

10: The number of points off turnovers scored by Badger opponents in the last eight games. UW surrendered 24 points off turnovers in the first five games.

Josh Hunt's 89-yard punt return for a TD, the second-longest in school history, was a key play in a 19-7 win over Western Michigan.

7: Games it took for Michael Bennett to reach 1,000 yards rushing in 2000, tied (with Ron Dayne in 1997 and 1999) for the fewest in school history.

6: Number of games that Wisconsin passed for more than 200 yards in 2000. That total tied the school record set in 1983.

1: Number of Badger offensive skill position players (QB, RB or WR) to touch the ball in every game last season. WR Lee Evans caught at least one pass in all 13 games in 2000.

Two-minute Offense

- Walk-on Josh Hunt's 89-yard punt return for a TD vs. Western Michigan was the second-longest in school history.
- Lee Evans completed a 22-yard pass to QB Brooks Bollinger in the Cincinnati game. It was the first completion by a non-quarterback in the Barry Alvarez era at Wisconsin.
- Michael Bennett rushed for 188 yards and Chris Chambers had 173 yards receiving in the Purdue game. That was the first time since the 1997 Minnesota contest when both a runner (Ron Dayne with 183) and receiver (Donald Hayes with 113) eclipsed the century mark in the same game.
- Ohio State outrushed the Badgers and Wisconsin outpassed the Buckeyes in their Oct. 7 matchup. That broke a string of 12 consecutive games that UW had more rushing yardage and less passing yardage than the opposition.
- The Badgers became just the second team in league history (Penn State in 1998 and 1999 is the other) to sweep the Big Ten Player of the Week honors for offense, defense and special teams in the same week. Michael Bennett (offense), Jamar Fletcher (defense) and Kevin Stemke (special teams) won the awards for the Oregon game. Interestingly, when PSU won all three honors (both times), only two league schools played that week. All 11 conference schools played when UW swept the slate after the Oregon game.
- Wisconsin's net punting average of 42.89 (bowls not included) was the nation's best and broke the Big Ten season record.

Wisconsin 19, Western Michigan 7

MADISON, Wis. — Wisconsin overcame the afternoon suspension of a number of star players to escape with a 19-7 victory over Western Michigan before a Thursday evening crowd in the season opener.

"I couldn't be more proud of a staff and a group of players to respond the way they did tonight," Coach Barry Alvarez said.

Michael Bennett, making his first start after replacing Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne at tailback, gained 128 yards rushing. One of the key plays came from walk-on Josh Hunt, whose 89-yard punt return gave UW a 10-0 lead. It was the second-longest punt return in the modern era at Wisconsin.

"It feels great. There's nothing like it in the world," Hunt said. "I owe a lot of thanks to my teammates. The blocking was excellent."

Prior to that punt return, Wisconsin managed just a 21-yard field goal from senior Vitaly Pisetsky at 5:55 of the first quarter. WMU closed the gap to 10-7 on a two-yard TD pass from Jeff Welsh to Mobolaji Afariogun. Welsh accounted for 75 of the Broncos' 80 yards on the drive.

The score stayed 10-7 until Bennett's eight-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter.

Wisconsin 27, Oregon 23

MADISON, Wis. — Michael Bennett ran for 290 yards, the fourth-most in UW history, and set up the game-winning TD with an 83-yard scamper as fifth-ranked Wisconsin defeated Oregon 27-23.

Thorpe Award candidate Jamar Fletcher, making his season debut, picked off three passes.

"I'm pleased to have a win," Coach Barry Alvarez said. "I thought it was a great football game. I'm proud of the way my players competed and how they answered a very good Oregon team."

Leading 20-16 with just over six minutes to play, quarterback Brooks Bollinger was intercepted and Matt Smith returned it 47 yards for a TD and a 23-20 Ducks' lead.

On Wisconsin's first offensive play following that score, Bennett rambled 83 yards before being dragged down at the Oregon one. Bollinger's one-yard sneak was the game-winning TD.

Fletcher ended the Ducks' final drive with his third pick of the game.

Bennett had scoring runs of 59 and 75 yards on the way to a school-record 250-yard performance in the second half. In addition to Bennett's heroics, Ryan Marks blocked and recovered a punt for another score.

Wisconsin 28, Cincinnati 25 (OT)

MADISON, Wis. — Senior backup tailback Eddie Faulkner scored on a 16-yard run in overtime to give Wisconsin a come-from-behind 28-25 victory over Cincinnati.

Faulkner, making his first start of the season in place of the NCAA's second-leading rusher (Michael Bennett), gained a career-high 124 yards.

Five of Wisconsin's top playmakers (Bennett, defensive tackle Wendell Bryant, cornerback Jamar Fletcher, wide receiver Nick Davis and wide receiver Chris Chambers) were serving NCAA suspensions.

After Cincinnati led for most of the game, Vitaly Pisetsky's 40-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter tied the game at 13. Cincinnati responded with a 51-yard TD pass although the missed PAT left the score 19-13. The Bearcats took an intentional safety with 2:15 left. Brooks Bollinger's one-yard TD run with 0:23 left to play made it 22-19.

Cincinnati took the ensuing kickoff and moved downfield to set up Steve Mammarelli's 46-yard field goal to send the game into overtime.

Faulkner's 16-yard run kept Cincinnati from its second upset in as many weeks. The Bearcats defeated Syracuse one week earlier.

Northwestern 47, Wisconsin 44 (2 OT)

MADISON, Wis. — Wisconsin played overtime for the second week in a row, but the results weren't as good after Damien Anderson's 12-yard run in the second extra session gave Northwestern a come-from-behind 47-44 victory in the league opener.

In the second OT, Wisconsin settled for a 39-yard Vitaly Pisetsky field goal and the Wildcats answered with Anderson's game-winning TD run.

"I'm disappointed with the loss," Coach Barry Alvarez said, "but we made too many mistakes."

Michael Bennett rushed for a career-best 293 yards on 48 carries (second-most in school annals), but it wasn't enough to overcome two lost fumbles for UW. One of those miscues occurred when Brooks Bollinger was sacked by Dwayne Missouri and his fumble was returned 50 yards for a TD by Kevin Bentley.

Each team registered more than 500 yards of total offense, but an error-free effort by the Wildcats was the difference.

For the second week in a row, the UW opponent had a long drive to set up a FG (a 46 yarder as time expired for the Wildcats) to send the game into overtime.

Michigan 13, Wisconsin 10

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — Michigan QB Drew Henson hit David Terrell on a 15-yard TD pass with 6:42 left in the game to give the Wolverines a 13-10 win over Wisconsin.

The Badgers had taken the lead on a Brooks Bollinger-to-Chad Kuhns five-yard throw early in the fourth quarter.

On the scoring play, Henson eluded a rush, rolled to his right and threw across the field over two defenders and one of his own receivers, to a leaping Terrell in the back of the end zone.

Wisconsin's Vitaly Pisetsky had a chance to tie the game but a 42-yard field goal missed with 2:42 remaining.

Michael Bennett, the nation's leading rusher, continued his stellar play with 123 yards, his fourth consecutive game over 100 yards. Cornerback Mike Echols recorded 16 tackles (14 solos) to lead the defense.

The Badgers suffered four turnovers, including three interceptions, in front of 111,341 fans at Michigan Stadium.

Ohio State 23, Wisconsin 7

MADISON, Wis. — Ohio State scored touchdowns on its first two possessions and went on to claim a 23-7 win in Madison. It was a revenge game for the Buckeyes, who lost 42-17 at Columbus a year ago.

Running back Derek Combs had an 80-yard TD on the Buckeyes' second play from scrimmage. Badger linebacker Nick Greisen ended up with Combs' shoe in his hand after the Buckeye ballcarrier fought through a gang tackle into daylight.

Combs added his second TD, a 21 yarder, on the next OSU drive and the Buckeyes closed first-half scoring on a 20-yard pass from Steve Bellisari to Darnell Sanders.

Jamar Fletcher tied the UW career record for interceptions (18) when he picked off Bellisari in the first half.

On the Badgers' second drive after halftime, Michael Bennett put UW on the scoreboard with a 35-yard run on fourth down. Bennett, who gained 106 yards, became just the second Badger in history (1993 Big Ten MVP Brent Moss was the other) to go over the century mark vs. Michigan and Ohio State in the same season. Brooks Bollinger threw for 209 yards, but was sacked 11 times.

Wisconsin 17, Michigan State 10

EAST LANSING, Mich. — Lee Evans caught a 45-yard touchdown pass from backup quarterback Jim Sorgi with 0:29 left to give Wisconsin a 17-10 win at Michigan State. The win snapped a three-game losing streak and was the UW's first victory at MSU since 1984.

Sorgi, who made his college debut in a stadium only 80 miles from his hometown of Fraser, Mich., replaced Brooks Bollinger after the Badger starter suffered a first-half concussion.

The game-winning touchdown pass was set up by Michael Bennett, who leaped for a first down on fourth-and-one near midfield. Sorgi then followed with his memorable pass to Evans.

The Wisconsin defense held MSU's T.J. Duckett in check. The sophomore runner, who entered the game averaging 162 yards per game, gained just 80.

The Badgers intercepted three passes (two by Mike Echols) and also recovered a muffed punt late in the fourth quarter. The Badgers had no turnovers.

Senior punter Kevin Stemke, second in the NCAA in punting, averaged 44.4 yards on nine punts in windy conditions. Three of his punts were downed inside the 20-yard line.

Purdue 30, Wisconsin 24 (OT)

MADISON, Wis. — Ashante Woodyard returned a blocked field goal for the game-winning touchdown in overtime as Purdue defeated Wisconsin 30-24. It was the Badgers' third overtime game of the season, equalling an NCAA record.

Purdue's Craig Terrill blocked Vitaly Pisetsky's 58-yard field goal attempt on the Badgers' first overtime possession and Woodyard scooped the ball up and went the distance.

Wisconsin had come from behind to tie the game with 3:50 remaining in regulation on a five-yard catch by John Sigmund.

In overtime, Purdue won the toss and elected to play defense first. The Badgers lost 15 yards on three plays, which set up Pisetsky's long-range attempt.

Jim Sorgi, making his first career start, completed 21 of 29 passes for 243 yards and two touchdowns. Sorgi's numbers were comparable to Purdue Heisman Trophy candidate Drew Brees (21-43, 274 yards, two TDs).

Many of Sorgi's completions went to senior Chris Chambers, who had 11 catches for 173 yards.

Brees became the Big Ten's career passing leader on a 78-yard TD throw to Seth Morales that gave the Boilermakers their first lead of the game.

Wisconsin 13, Iowa 7

IOWA CITY, Iowa — Wisconsin's defense held Iowa to 206 yards of total offense and picked off two passes deep in its own territory to defeat the upstart Hawkeyes 13-7 at Kinnick Stadium.

Jamar Fletcher became the UW career leader for both interceptions (recording his 19th) and passes broken up (48) with his one-pick, five-PBU performance. He limited Kevin Kasper, the NCAA's third-rated receiver, to three catches for 10 yards.

Brooks Bollinger had a career-high 292 yards passing with Chris Chambers setting a career-best yardage figure (191) for the second week in a row.

Two Vitaly Pisetsky field goals and a one-yard TD dive by Michael Bennett was the total Badger scoring output, despite piling up 410 total yards.

Iowa scored its only points of the game on a seven-yard reception by Kahlil Hill with 2:09 left in the third quarter.

The Hawkeyes threatened to take a fourth-quarter lead, but a 17-play Badger drive that lasted 8:17 in the fourth quarter sealed the victory.

Wisconsin 41, Minnesota 20

MADISON, Wis. — Wisconsin scored 21 unanswered points in the final 11:14 of the game to defeat Minnesota 41-20 in the annual battle for Paul Bunyan's Axe. QB Brooks Bollinger accounted for 321 total yards, including 127 on the ground and three TDs, while the UW defense forced three turnovers.

Minnesota tied the game at 20 early in the fourth quarter on a one-yard TD by Tariq Abdul-Khaliq.

On the next drive, a 50-yard pass to Chris Chambers set up Bollinger's one-yard dive for the game-winning points.

After a Golden Gopher fumble, the Badgers added an insurance score on Matt Unertl's one-yard run. He carried on seven of the nine plays on the drive. Mike Echols iced the game with a 56-yard interception return for a TD.

Trailing 12-3, Wisconsin got a huge break at the end of the first half when a failed 57-yard Minnesota field goal attempt left UW with good field position. A 45-yard bomb to Nick Davis got the Badgers within 12-10 at the intermission.

Wisconsin outscored their interstate rivals 31-8 in the second half to win its sixth straight in the series.

Wisconsin 43, Indiana 22

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. — Wisconsin scored 22 points in the fourth quarter to beat Indiana 43-22 and become bowl eligible.

Freshman Jim Sorgi, who replaced injured starter Brooks Bollinger in the first quarter, completed 16-21 passes for 207 yards and three TDs. After the Badgers fell behind 6-0, Sorgi drove the club 80 yards on four plays to take a 7-6 lead into the break. He hit Lee Evans on a 26-yard toss for the score.

A couple of third quarter touchdown passes to tight ends John Sigmund and Dague Retzlaff sandwiched a 58-yard run by Hoosier QB Antwaan Randle El.

Matt Unertl came off the bench to rush for 59 yards and a fourth-quarter TD.

Jamar Fletcher's 87-yard interception return, which made him the Big Ten's leader in return yardage, set up a three-yard touchdown by Michael Bennett. Evans closed the scoring with a 34-yard return off an on-sides kickoff attempt.

Wisconsin 34, Hawaii 18

HONOLULU — Wisconsin overcame 12 penalties, a negative turnover margin and two TDs called back because of penalty to defeat Hawaii 34-18 and collect its eighth win of the season. More than 4,000 Badger fans made the trip to Honolulu.

Tailback Michael Bennett rushed 36 times for 218 yards as the Badgers had a nearly 24-minute advantage in time of possession. Bennett recorded his third game of at least 200 yards rushing and had 10 runs of at least 10 yards.

Hawaii freshman QB Timmy Chang kept the Badgers off balance with 56 pass attempts to a variety of receivers. Mike Echols and Jason Doering had interceptions to slow the Warriors.

Chris Chambers ended his regular season with eight catches for 169 yards. He scored two TDs (27 and 30 yards) but the second tally came one play after he had a TD erased by a penalty.

Hawaii assumed a 12-7 lead with a 35-yard TD toss by Chang and a one-yard run by James Fenderson. The short run was set up by an errant punt snap that the Warriors recovered at the Badger one-yard line.

Kevin Stemke handled all kicking duties in the game and made four of five extra points in addition to averaging 40.5 yards on punts.

Wisconsin 21, UCLA 20

EL PASO, Texas — A furious second-half comeback -- including big plays on special teams, a turnover from the defense and a balanced offense -- contributed to Wisconsin's 21-20 victory over UCLA in the 2000 Sun Bowl.

After falling behind 20-7 with a little more than one-and-a-half quarters left, Michael Bennett turned the momentum with a 54-yard kickoff return. Brooks Bollinger's three-yard TD pass to Chris Chambers brought the Badgers to within 20-14.

On UCLA's next possession, Ben Herbert made a key fourth-down stop on a fake field goal by the Bruins. The Badgers took over on their own 30-yard line and drove for the tying score, a six-yard run by Bennett. Vitaly Pisetsky's conversion was the winning point.

However, the game was far from over.

UCLA had three more possessions, but the Badgers held each time and wrapped up the victory with Jamar Fletcher's interception in the final minute.

Bennett was named Special Teams Most Valuable Player, while UCLA's Freddie Mitchell (nine catches for 180 yards) was the game MVP.

Besides Bennett's TD run and Chambers' short scoring catch, the Badgers got their other points from Lee Evans (54-yard catch).

It was the Badgers' third bowl win over UCLA in the last eight years.

Scoring Summary

W: Evans 54 pass from Bollinger (Pisetsky kick), 13:16

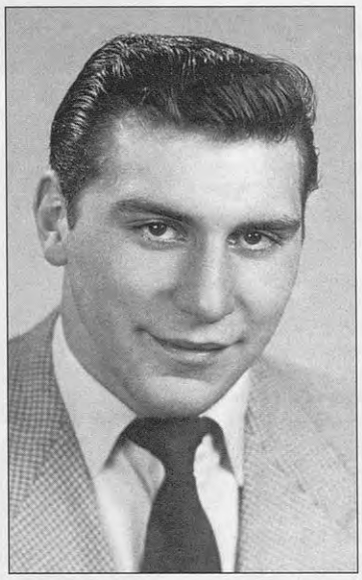
Retired Numbers

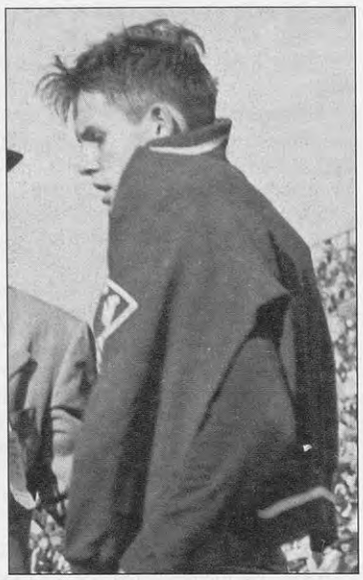
#80 Dave Schreiner

Dave Schreiner, the two-time all-America end, was named Western Conference Player of the Year in 1942. Schreiner lettered three years at the UW as an end, both on offense and defense. He is a member of the National Football Foundation and W Club Halls of Fame. He was voted to the UW's all-time team in 1969.



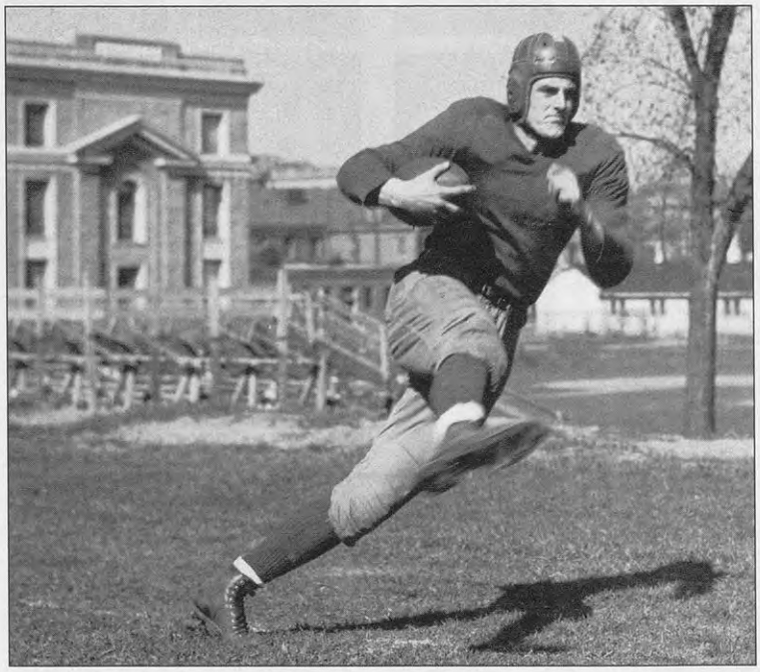
#35 Alan Ameche

Alan Ameche, the 1954 Heisman Trophy winner, was a three-time all-American and ended his career as the NCAA's all-time rushing leader. He led the Badgers to the 1953 Rose Bowl and rushed for 133 yards in that game. The five-time NFL Pro Bowl pick was inducted into the College Hall of Fame in 1975.



#83 Allan Shafer

The memory of former quarterback Allan Shafer is continued with the "Living Memorial" Scholarship that is given in his name. Shafer was fatally injured during the 1944 Wisconsin-Iowa game. Shafer is one of two Badgers (Jay Seiler is the other) to die from a football-related injury.



#40 Elroy Hirsch

Although he played football only one season (1942) at the UW, Elroy Hirsch is one of the most beloved figures in Badger sports history. Hirsch, nicknamed "Crazylegs," rushed for 786 yards for Wisconsin's 8-1-1 team in 1942. He also starred for nine seasons with the Los Angeles Rams before returning to the UW-Madison as Director of Athletics from 1969-87.

Camp Randall Stadium Facade

33 DAYNE

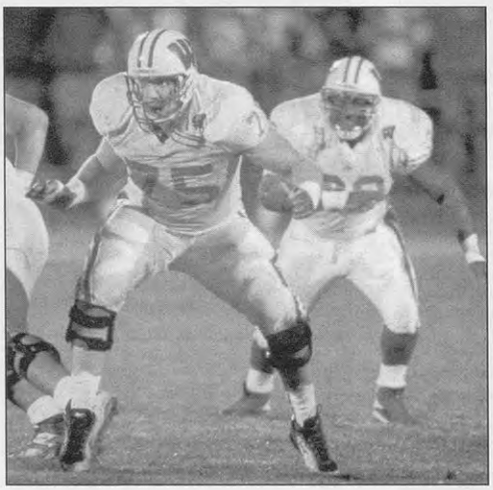
The University of Wisconsin began a tradition in 1999 to honor outstanding achievement in Badger football history. The school has displayed the names of two of its greatest girdiron heroes -- Ron Dayne and Alan Ameche -- on the facade of the second deck at Camp Randall Stadium.

The tradition began during a special post-game ceremony on Nov. 13, 1999, when the Department of Athletics saluted the accomplishments of Dayne by putting his name on the upper deck facade. It was Dayne's last game in Camp Randall Stadium, a contest in which he became college football's all-time rushing leader.

Ameche became the second Badger honored when his name was added to the facade prior to the Badgers' game vs. Oregon on Sept. 9, 2000. The Kenosha, Wis., native was represented by his widow and son at the ceremony.

Additional names will be added to the facade as warranted.

(pictured from right): Alan Ameche's widow Yvonne, former teammate Jim Hammond, UW Director of Athletics Pat Richter and Ameche's son Brian honor the former Heisman Trophy winner during a pre-game ceremony vs. Oregon in 2000. Ameches' name was added to the facade (joining Ron Dayne) on the second deck at Camp Randall Stadium.



Tackle Chris McIntosh (75) and tailback Ron Dayne (33) were consensus all-Americans in 1999. It was only the second time in UW history that multiple Badgers received that distinction in the same season.

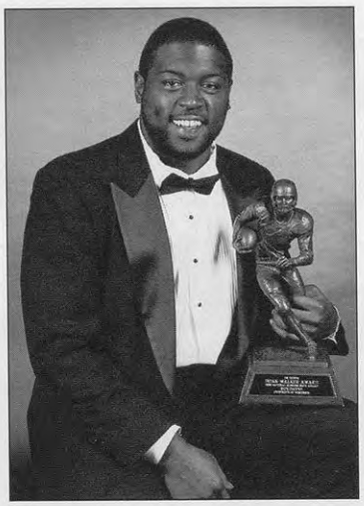
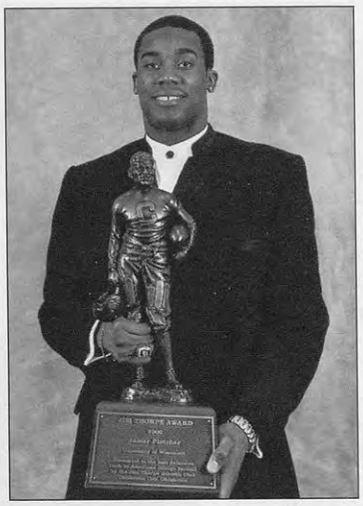
Tom Burke was the nation's leader in quarterback sacks en route to earning consensus all-America honors at defensive end in 1998.

Major Awards



Ron Dayne won nearly every major award for outstanding player in 1999. That includes the Doak Walker Award (above), which goes to the top running back.



Jamar Fletcher poses with the Jim Thorpe Award, emblematic of the NCAA's best defensive back. Fletcher won the prestigious award as a junior.

Kevin Stemke won the inaugural Ray Guy Award, given to the nation's top punter. Stemke led the nation in net punting his final season at Wisconsin.

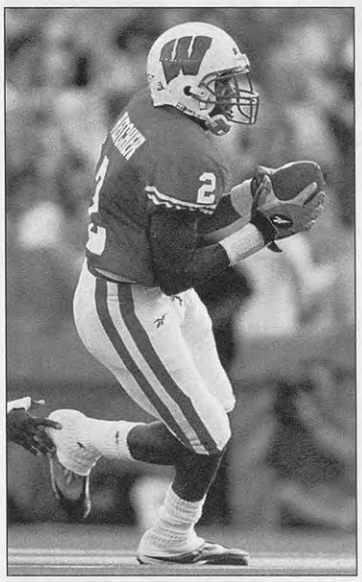
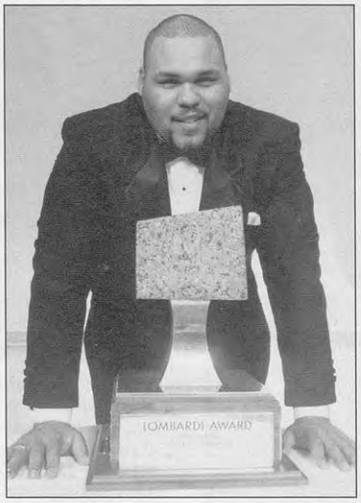
ESPN's Ron Jaworski presents Ron Dayne with the 1999 Maxwell Award at the Home Depot/ESPN College Football Awards Show in Orlando.

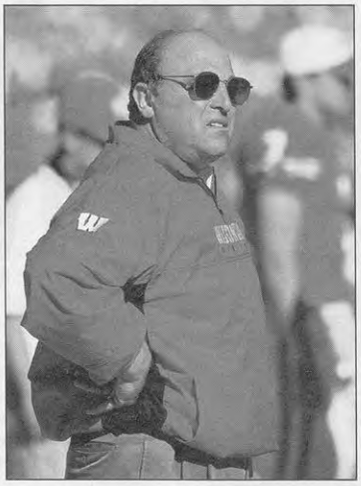


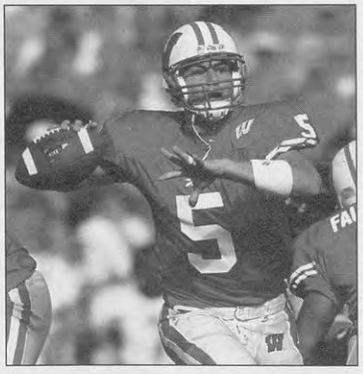
Jamar Fletcher was the Big Ten's Defensive Player of the Year in 2000. He was the conferences' leading interceptor for the third season in a row.



Tackle Aaron Gibson was a finalist for the 1998 Lombardi Award.

Vitaly Pisetsky (second from right) was one of three players invited to the Lou Groza Award festivities in 1999.



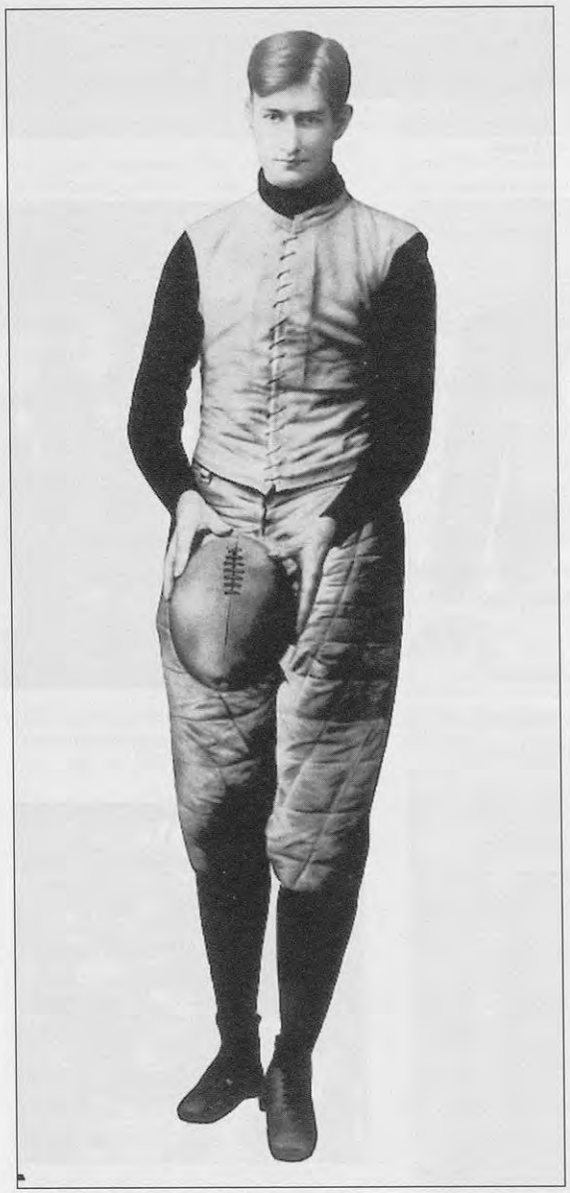


Barry Alvarez (left) was national coach of the year by the Bobby Dodd Foundation and the AFCA in 1993. Brooks Bollinger (above) was the '99 Big Ten's Freshman-of-the-Year.

College Football Hall of Fame

National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame

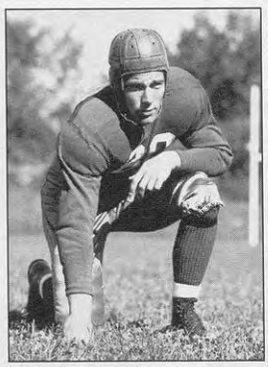
These former Badgers have received the highest honor the game of football affords. They have been inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame. They are the greats of the game and their achievements are documented at the College Football Hall of Fame in South Bend, Ind.



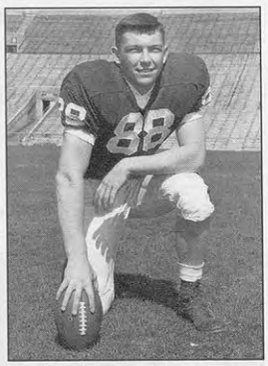
Pat O'Dea (elected in 1962), nicknamed "The Kangaroo Kicker," was a two-time all-America fullback and punter between 1896-99. He was also a two-time team captain.

Robert Butler (elected in 1972) was a three-year letterman at tackle and won all-league (1912-13) and all-America (1913) laurels. He played pro ball for Canton.

Pat Harder (elected in 1993), an all-America fullback, was the Big Ten's scoring and rushing champion in 1941. Harder was a three-time NFL scoring champ, too.



Dave Schreiner (elected in 1955), the two-time all-America end, was the Western Conference's MVP in '42. Schreiner had his jersey retired by Wisconsin.



Pat Richter (elected in 1996) was a two-time all-America end and led the nation in receiving as a junior. He is also a member of the CoSIDA Academic all-America Hall of Fame.

Marty Below (elected in 1988), a rugged right tackle, earned all-America praise as a senior. "Below was the greatest lineman I ever played against," said fellow Hall of Famer Red Grange.

Alan Ameche (elected in 1975) was the 1954 Heisman Trophy winner and a multi-year all-American in the classroom and on the field. His jersey No. 35 is retired at the University.

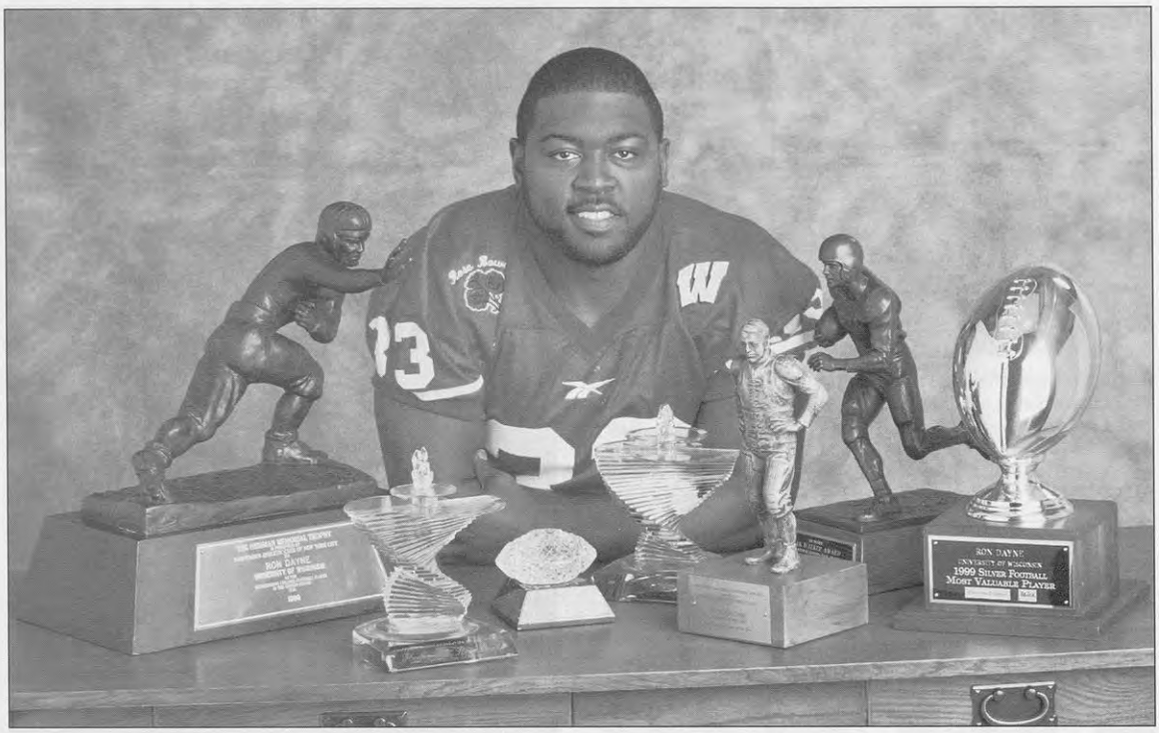
Wisconsin's Ron Dayne



Honors, awards and records were never the focus of Ron Dayne's career. "I just tried to do what I could to help the team win," is what the soft-spoken tailback repeated many times throughout his career. Helping the Badgers win may be Dayne's favorite personal legacy, but other witnesses to his career will forever marvel at his on-field accomplishments.

Here's a look at some of his achievements:

- college football's most-decorated player after winning the Heisman Trophy and Maxwell and Doak Walker Awards in 1999.
- national player of the year by Associated Press, Football News, The Sporting News and Walter Camp.
- first player in college history to run for more than 7,000 career yards (bowl play included).
- college football's all-time leading rusher with 6,397 yards (no bowls). He bettered the old mark of 6,279 on a 31-yard run in his last game (vs. Iowa).
- three-time bowl game MVP (1996 Copper, 1999 Rose and 2000 Rose).
- first three-time Big Ten rushing champion.
- second nationally in rushing (by only 16 yards) as a senior despite sitting out six full quarters in large-margin wins.
- tied NCAA record for career 200-yard games (bowls not included) when he gained 216 yards vs. Iowa. Dayne along with Marcus Allen (USC) and Ricky Williams (Texas) had 11 such games.
- Big Ten career leader in rushing and scoring.
- an average of 148.8 yards rushing per game (career) ranks fifth all-time in the NCAA.
- Big Ten offensive P.O.W. four times in '99 (equalled the conference record).
- only player to lead the Big Ten in three categories (rushing, all-purpose yardage and scoring) during the 1999 season.
- recorded five games of at least 200 yards rushing in 1999, a national-best figure.
- had his name and number unveiled on the facade of Camp Randall Stadium after the Iowa game on Nov. 13, 1999.
- personally outrushed the opposing team 29 times in 43 career starts.
- joined Amos Lawrence (North Carolina), Tony Dorsett (Pitt) and Denvis Manns (New Mexico State) as the only players in history to rush for more than 1,000 yards in four consecutive years.
- recorded 2,000-yard seasons as both a freshman and senior (counting bowl games).
- gained just over 50 percent of his career yardage after contact.
- landslide winner in the Heisman Trophy balloting. His 2,042 votes were the 10th-most of all time.
- honored with "Ron Dayne Days" as proclaimed by Governor Tommy Thompson, Madison Mayor Sue Bauman and Milwaukee Mayor John Norquist.

WHAT THEY SAID

Barry Alvarez, UW Head Coach: "Ron really exemplified our program. I don't think there's a player that has ever meant more to a program. He's what our program is all about ... blue-collar, tough, hard-nosed. He doesn't do it the easy way, but he does what you have to do for wins."

Brian White, UW Assistant Coach: "What will stick with me the longest is the smile he gives when talking about his daughter. That's when I knew what a special young man I was coaching. The fact that, at 19 years old, he didn't shirk the responsibility of fatherhood. He embraced it."

ABC's Tim Brandt (on Dayne's carry when he became college football's career rushing leader): "Open up the record books for Ron Dayne. He is the man of few words and many yards."

Verizon/CoSIDA Academic All-America All-Time Team

Four former Badger football greats were named to GTE's Academic All-America All-Time team at the College Sports Information Directors of America convention in 1998.

Fullback Alan Ameche was a first-team choice and center Ken Bowman, defensive lineman Don Davey and defensive back Dale Hackbart were named to the second team.

All four Badgers are former academic all-Americans. Davey, a native of Manitowoc, Wis., is the only four-time academic all-America pick in university-division history.

Verizon/CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame

Two former Badger gridiron stars (Alan Ameche and Pat Richter) have been inducted into the GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame.

To gain admittance to the Hall, student-athletes must be former academic all-Americans who distinguished themselves off the playing field after graduation.

Ameche, who played professionally after graduation, retired in Philadelphia after his career and became one of the city's philanthropic leaders. Richter played pro football in Washington before returning to the UW to earn his law degree. He worked at a Madison law firm and at Oscar Mayer before his appointment as Director of Athletics at the University of Wisconsin.

All-time Team

In conjunction with the centennial celebration of college football in 1969, Wisconsin fans selected the school's all-time team. The 11-man unit features 1954 Heisman Trophy winner Alan Ameche, who was voted "All-time Greatest Player."

ALAN AMECHE (1951-54): 1954 Heisman Trophy winner ... set NCAA career rushing mark (3,345).

KEN BOWMAN (1961-63): 10-year NFL career with Packers ... played in East-West Shrine Game.

HOWARD "CUB" BUCK (1913-15): Labeled by some as the best lineman of his era ... consensus all-America.

PAT HARDER (1941-42): Second pick in NFL draft ... MVP of Chicago Tribune College All-Star Game.

ELROY "CRAZYLEGS" HIRSCH (1942): Set many receiving records with Rams ... eventually served as Badger A.D.

DAN LANPHEAR (1957-59): Madison native was a '59 all-American before pro career with Oilers.

ARLIE MUCKS, SR. (1914): All-American on gridiron and silver medalist at Olympics (discus).

PAT RICHTER (1960-62): Hall of Fame inductee both on field and in classroom ... current Badger A.D.

DAVE SCHREINER (1940-42): First two-time all-American ... three TD catches in one quarter still a school record.

RON VANDER KELEN (1962): Passed for 401 yards vs. No. 1-ranked USC in the 1963 Rose Bowl.

ROBERT "RED" WILSON (1946-49): Big Ten MVP in '49 ... played baseball for the Chicago White Sox, Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers.

Conference Champions

1896 Western Conference Champions

After opening the season with seven victories, the Badgers tied Northwestern 6-6 and lost to the Carlisle Indians. Despite the late-season swoon, the Badgers claimed the inaugural Western Conference title. The Badgers' tough defense registered shutouts in six of its seven victories. The loss to the Carlisle Indians was the first night game in school history (played indoors at the Chicago Coliseum).

1897 Western Conference Champions

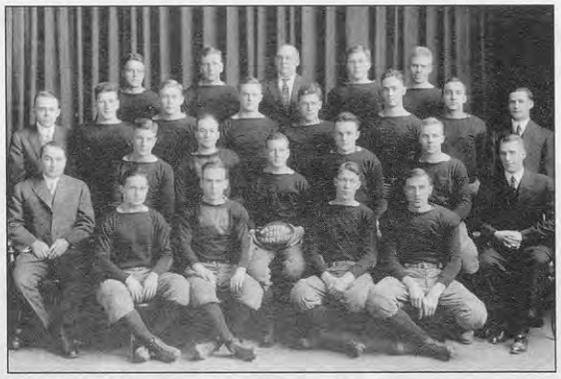
Wisconsin won its second straight conference title and registered eight shutouts on the way to a 9-1 mark. The only loss was a 6-0 decision to the UW Alumni. Victories over Minnesota, Chicago and Northwestern propelled the Badgers to the Western Conference title. Australian kicker Pat O'Dea, the famed "Kangaroo Kicker," booted 14 field goals. It was the second league title for Coach Phil King.

1901 Western Conference Champions

Phil King's Badgers won nine straight games to become the first undefeated team in school history. Using a potent offense and stingy defense, Wisconsin defeated every opponent by at least three TDs and recorded eight shutouts. The Badgers outscored the opposition 317-5. Wisconsin's slate included two wins over high school teams and conference wins over Chicago and Minnesota.

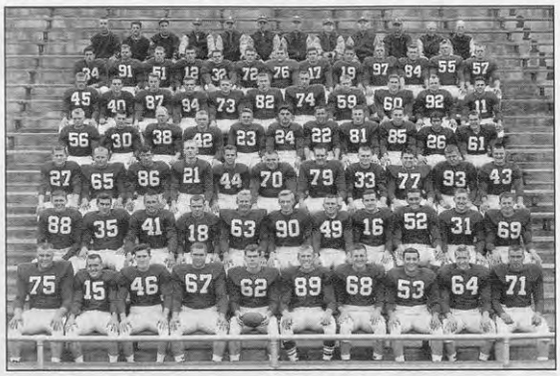
1906 Western Conference Champions

Although traditional league powers Minnesota, Michigan and Chicago were missing from the schedule due to a faculty reform movement, Wisconsin claimed a share of the conference championship with the Gophers. Coach Dr. C.P. Hutchins' team posted Western Conference wins over Iowa, Illinois and Purdue by a combined score of 63-15.



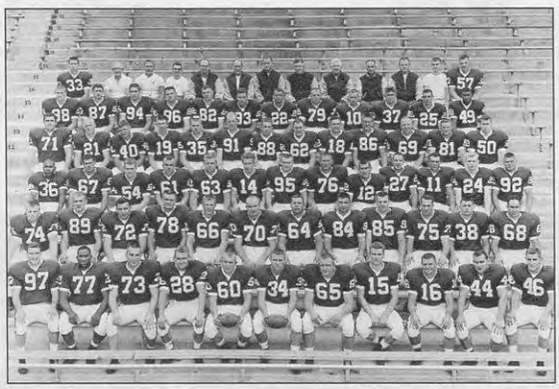
1912 Western Conference Champions

The Badgers ended their third undefeated (7-0) season with a 28-10 win at Iowa. Coach William Juneau's squad was the last Badger team to post a perfect record. Led by consensus all-America tackle Robert "Butts" Butler, the Badgers placed a school-record nine players on the all-Western Conference team. Wisconsin registered four shutouts and allowed only 29 points all year.



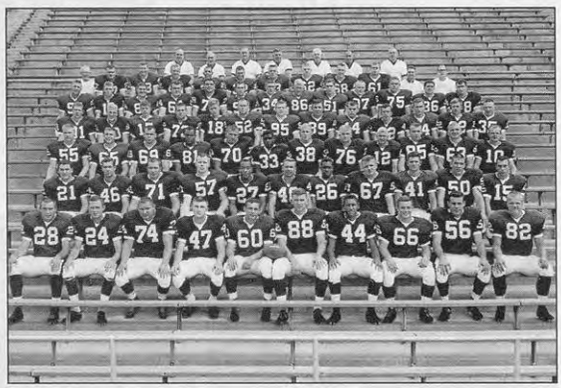
1952 Big Ten Conference Champions

Following a 20-6 win over Illinois in the second game of the season, Wisconsin sat atop the polls as the nation's No. 1 team. The Badgers lost the following week, but went on to a 6-3-1 record and the school's first Rose Bowl appearance. After losing to USC 7-0 in Pasadena, the Badgers ended the season ranked 10th by United Press International and 11th by Associated Press.



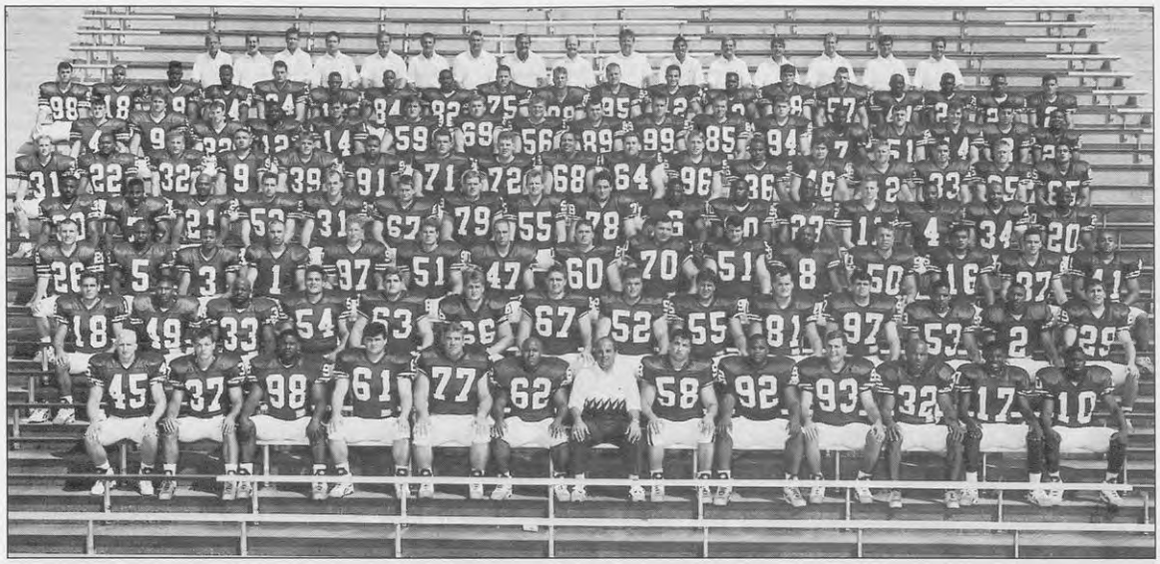
1959 Big Ten Conference Champions

Needing a victory in the regular-season finale to clinch a league title, Wisconsin beat Minnesota 11-7. It was the Badgers' first undisputed title since 1912. At the Rose Bowl, Washington scored 17 points in the first quarter on the way to a 44-8 win. All-Big Ten QB Dale Hackbart and all-Big Ten guard Jerry Stalcup were stars on a club that finished the season ranked sixth by AP and UPI.



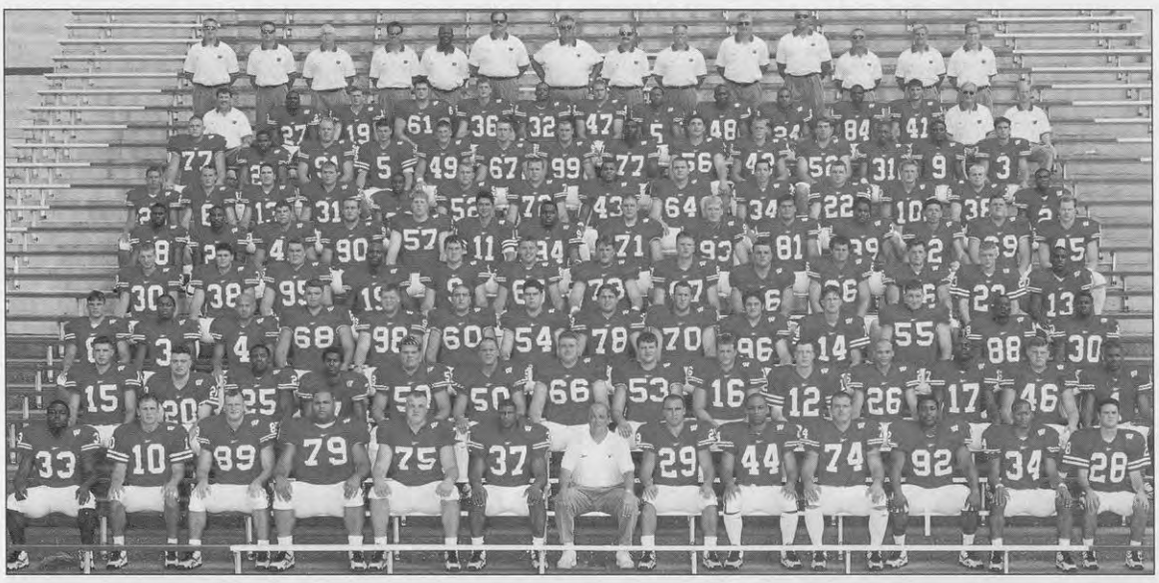
1962 Big Ten Conference Champions

Although USC defeated Wisconsin 42-37 in perhaps the most exciting Rose Bowl ever, the Badgers finished the storybook campaign with an 8-1 record and ranked second nationally in both the AP and UPI polls. Ron Vander Kelen set a Rose Bowl record with 401 yards passing as the UW scored 23 straight points in a fourth quarter rally. Pat Richter was a consensus all-American after catching 49 passes.



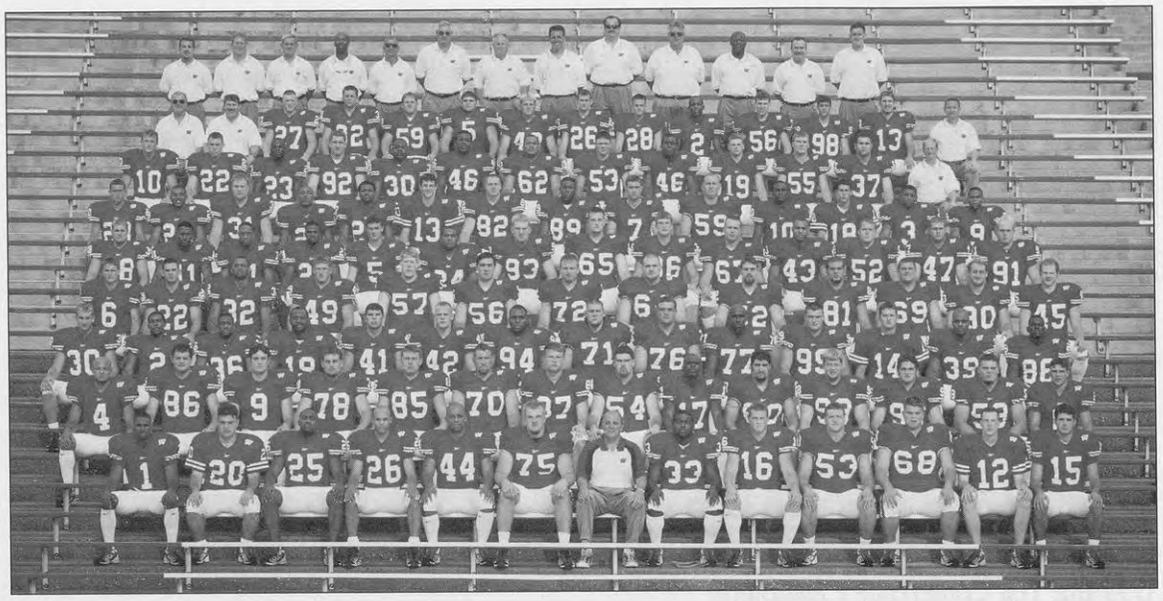
1993 Big Ten Conference Champions

The 1993 Badgers established a new standard of excellence, shattering school records and earning numerous honors. After claiming Wisconsin's first Big Ten title in 32 years (a co-championship with Ohio State), the Badgers defeated UCLA 21-16 in the Rose Bowl. The 10-1-1 club set a Wisconsin record for wins and boasted eight first-team all-Big Ten players, including Big Ten and Rose Bowl MVP Brent Moss. Wisconsin ended the season ranked fifth and sixth by the coaches (CNN/USA Today) and media (Associated Press), respectively.



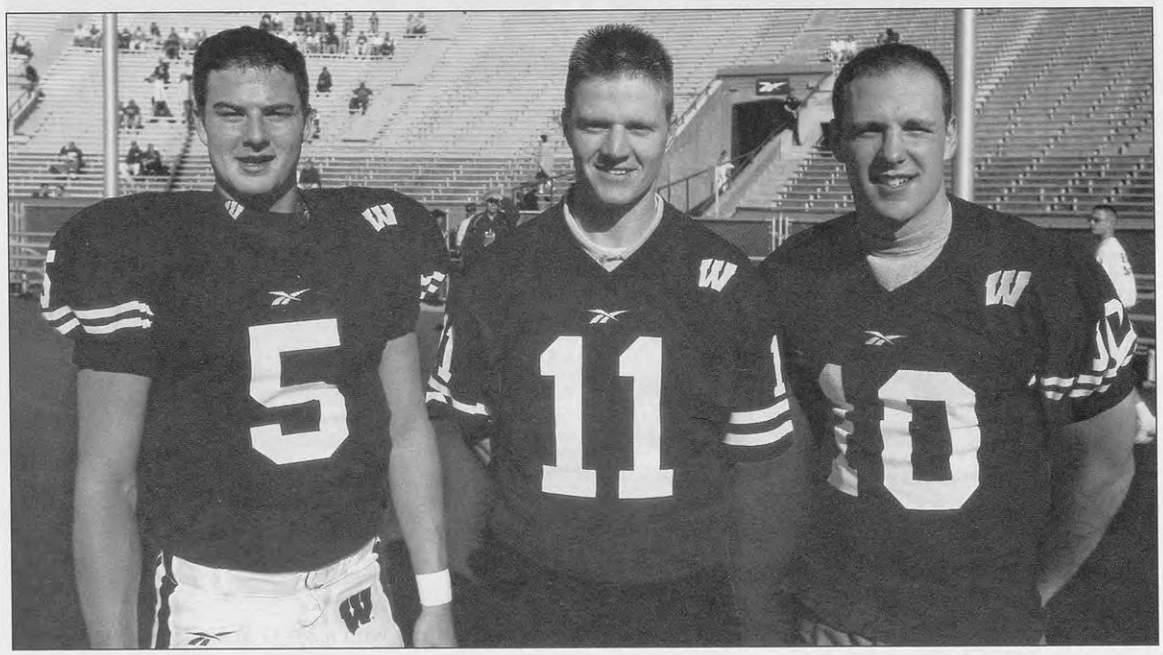
1998 Big Ten Conference Champions

The 1998 Badgers concluded the winningest campaign in school history with a 38-31 Rose Bowl victory over sixth-ranked UCLA. The 1998 club opened the season with a nine-game winning streak and registered the best winning percentage (.916) in the modern era at the UW. Aaron Gibson was a finalist for the Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy and Ron Dayne was a finalist for the Doak Walker Award. Tom Burke led the nation in sacks and Jamar Fletcher topped the NCAA in interceptions. Wisconsin was first nationally in turnover margin and scoring defense.



1999 Big Ten Conference Champions

The 1999 Badgers ended the season with an eight-game winning streak after splitting their opening four contests. A 17-9 win over Stanford in the Rose Bowl allowed UW to become the first Big Ten school in history to win consecutive games in "The Granddaddy of them all." Wisconsin won its first undisputed Big Ten championship since 1962 and finished fourth in each of the final national polls. Ron Dayne was the consensus national player of the year and won the Heisman Trophy. Chris McIntosh and Jamar Fletcher joined Dayne as first-team all-Americans.



These Signalcallers Won In Pasadena

These three Badger quarterbacks -- (from left) Brooks Bollinger (5), Darrell Bevell (11) and Mike Samuel (10) -- are the only ones in school history to lead Wisconsin to a victory in the Rose Bowl.

Badger Bowl Games

1953 Rose Bowl

USC 7, Wisconsin 0

PASADENA, Calif. — USC scored the game's only points on a 22-yard pass from Rudy Bukich to Al Carmichael in the Trojans' 7-0 win over Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl.

The Badgers dominated the game from a statistical standpoint, outgaining USC by 120 yards. Led by Alan Ameche's 133 yards rushing, Wisconsin had a 211-48 advantage on the ground. However, both defenses rose to the occasion when necessary.

One of Wisconsin's best scoring chances came in the opening minutes of the third quarter. Ameche broke loose for a 54-yard run as the Badgers got to the USC 21-yard line. On third down, Archie Ray Burks fumbled on an end run and USC recovered.

The Trojans then put together the game-winning drive (73 yards), which ended with Bukich's TD pass. Wisconsin countered with a 13-play, 84-yard drive that ended at the Trojan 2-yard line when Jerry Witt was stopped a yard short of a first down on a fake field goal play.

Coach Ivy Williamson's club was the first in Badger history to play in a bowl game.

1960 Rose Bowl

Washington 44, Wisconsin 8

PASADENA, Calif. — Washington scored the game's first 17 points en route to a 44-8 Rose Bowl win over Wisconsin.

Washington tallied the first TD on a 6-yard run by Don McKeta 10 minutes into the game. George Fleming booted a 26-yard field goal after the Huskies recovered one of four Wisconsin fumbles. Fleming then returned a punt 53 yards for a score on the final play of the period for a 17-0 Husky lead.

Badger fullback Tom Wiesner tallied Wisconsin's only points on a 4-yard run with 5:27 left in the opening half. Dale Hackbart connected with Al Schoonover for a two-point conversion that cut the lead to 17-8.

Washington quarterback Bob Schloredt, who shared game MVP honors with Fleming, tossed a 23-yard TD pass to close the first-half scoring. Schloredt completed four passes for 102 yards and rushed for 81 yards.

Wisconsin mounted a challenge in the third quarter, but four plays inside the Husky 10-yard line failed. The Badger defense entered the bowl with a defensive average of barely 10 points allowed per game for the regular season.

1963 Rose Bowl

USC 42, Wisconsin 37

PASADENA, Calif. — A 23-point fourth quarter explosion wasn't quite enough as the Badgers dropped a 42-37 Rose Bowl encounter to USC. The Trojans had claimed a 42-14 lead on the first play of the fourth quarter before the Badger rally.

USC had a 21-7 halftime lead and extended it on the first play of the third stanza, before Ron Vander Kelen led one of the biggest charges in bowl history.

Vander Kelen reached paydirt on a 17-yard scamper to reduce the margin to 28-14. USC responded with a pair of touchdown passes by Pete Beathard and the Trojans led 42-14.

Lou Holland (13-yard run) and Gary Kroner (4-yard reception) tallied for the Badgers within three minutes. A bad snap on a punt resulted in a UW safety. After the free kick, Vander Kelen hit three straight passes, including a 19-yard score to Pat Richter for the final 42-37 margin.

Vander Kelen, the game MVP, set both school and Rose Bowl records with 401 yards passing. Richter caught 11 of those aerials for 163 yards. The 79 total points scored was a Rose Bowl record that stood for 28 years.

1981 Garden State Bowl

Tennessee 28, Wisconsin 21

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — Tennessee scored 18 straight points in the first half and held on to defeat Wisconsin 28-21 in the Garden State Bowl.

The Badger defense limited UT to 89 yards rushing, but Volunteer QB Steve Alatorre unleashed a potent passing attack. Alatorre threw for 315 yards. WR Anthony Hancock caught 11 passes for 196 yards.

After Fuad Reveiz booted a field goal in the first quarter, Wisconsin assumed its only lead of the game on a 3-yard run by Jess Cole. Willie Gault returned the ensuing kickoff 87 yards to give Tennessee a lead it never lost.

Reserve quarterback Randy Wright came off the bench to throw a pair of second-half touchdown passes for the Badgers. Wright hit Jeff Nault and Thad McFadden on scoring tosses in the final period.

The game featured two high-powered offenses that combined for 49 points, 793 total yards and 49 first downs.

Wisconsin's fourth bowl in school history and first non-Rose Bowl drew a crowd of 53,220.

1982 Independence Bowl

Wisconsin 14, Kansas State 3

SHREVEPORT, La. — Wisconsin won its first bowl game with a 14-3 decision over Kansas State in the Independence Bowl.

Randy Wright threw a game-record two TD passes and the Badger defense set a scoring record before 24,684 fans. The anticipated crowd was more than 49,000, but a 23-mile-per-hour wind dropped temperatures to 10 degrees below zero.

Wright, the game's offensive MVP, completed nine of 24 throws. However, his 87-yard pass play to Tim Stracka was the longest in UW and Independence Bowl history. The Wisconsin defense limited Kansas State to 192 total yards in the Wildcats' first-ever postseason appearance.

KSU had taken a 3-0 lead on Steve Willis' 29-yard field goal before the Badgers scored 14 straight points. Tim Krumrie was the game Defensive MVP. He helped limit the Kansas State running attack to less than two yards per carry.

Game totals showed five turnovers, 14 punts, 22 completions in 59 attempts (.372) and 14 penalties.

1984 Hall of Fame Bowl

Kentucky 20, Wisconsin 19

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — A fumbled snap on a 26-yard game-winning field goal attempt was the deciding play in Wisconsin's 20-19 loss to Kentucky in the Hall of Fame Bowl.

Trailing by a point after the Wildcats' Joe Worley booted a 52-yard field goal with eight minutes left, the Badgers drove inside Kentucky's 20-yard line.

Todd Gregoire's field goal with 1:55 left never materialized after holder Bob Kobza dropped the center snap. Gregoire, a freshman, had tied a school record with four field goals earlier in the game.

Wisconsin assumed a 13-0 lead on a pair of Gregoire three pointers and a 3-yard TD pass from Mike Howard to Thad McFadden. The Badgers outgained their SEC foe both on the ground and through the air.

However, UW was assessed 13 penalties for 133 yards, both Hall of Fame Bowl records. The Badgers also threw two interceptions. Kentucky, which was making its second straight postseason appearance in Birmingham, had no turnovers.

1994 Rose Bowl

Wisconsin 21, UCLA 16

PASADENA, Calif. — The Wisconsin defense forced six turnovers, while the offense churned out 250 yards rushing as the Badgers downed UCLA 21-16 in the Rose Bowl. It was the Badgers' first-ever New Year's Day bowl victory.

More than 70,000 Badger fans attended the game and provided a distinct home-field advantage in the Bruins' home facility.

Tailback Brent Moss, the Rose Bowl MVP, helped the UW to a 14-3 halftime lead by scoring on a pair of short runs. Moss rushed for 158 yards on 36 carries.

Wisconsin extended its lead to 21-10 when Darrell Bevell provided the game's most unlikely play. On second down from the UCLA 21, Bevell broke containment and weaved his way to the end zone for the game-winning points.

Trailing 21-16, UCLA's final drive made it to the Badger 18-yard line before Wayne Cook was stopped and the clock expired before the Bruins could run another play.

"The win, as much as it was for our players and coaches, was for our fans," said Coach Barry Alvarez. "They supported us all the way."

1995 Hall of Fame Bowl

Wisconsin 34, Duke 20

TAMPA, Fla. — Senior Terrell Fletcher rushed for a Hall of Fame Bowl-record 241 yards as Wisconsin won its second January bowl game in as many years with a 34-20 triumph over Duke.

Fletcher gained 190 yards and scored two touchdowns in the second half to ice the win. Wisconsin intercepted three passes in the opening half. Jeff Messenger's 19-yard return of one of those pickoffs resulted in the Badgers' first score.

Duke eventually tied the game in the third period before Fletcher took over the contest. Fletcher broke the deadlock with a one-yard run late in the third quarter. Jason Burns extended the margin to 27-13 with an 11-yard reception from Darrell Bevell.

After the Blue Devils cut the margin to seven (27-20) on Robert Baldwin's second score, Fletcher turned a critical third-and-one play into a 49-yard touchdown run to clinch the win.

More than 30,000 fans made the trip to Tampa as UW won its third game in a row and second bowl in two years to close the season 8-3-1.

1996 Copper Bowl

Wisconsin 38, Utah 10

TUCSON, Ariz. — Freshman tailback Ron Dayne concluded his remarkable rookie season with a 246-yard, three-touchdown performance in Wisconsin's 38-10 win over Utah in the Copper Bowl.

Dayne was named the game's Most Valuable Player. He totalled 152 yards by halftime as the Badgers opened up a commanding 31-3 lead. QB Mike Samuel got the UW on the board with a 38-yard run. After Utah kicked a field goal, Dayne scored (two carries for 77 yards) to give the Badgers a 14-3 lead.

The Utes were driving again when Cyrill Weems intercepted a pass and returned it 82 yards for a TD and a 21-3 bulge. The Badgers' secondary picked off four Mike Fouts' passes.

The featured matchup between Dayne and Utah's Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala, the nation's two largest runners, never materialized. The Ute ballcarrier hurt his ankle early in the game.

Badger defensive end Tarek Saleh was game defensive MVP with six tackles, one for a loss, one pass broken up and a blocked field goal. It was the Badgers' third bowl win in four seasons.

1998 Outback Bowl

Georgia 33, Wisconsin 6

TAMPA, Fla. — A potent offense and suffocating defense were on display in Georgia's 33-6 win over the Badgers in the 1998 Outback Bowl.

Buoyed by a game MVP performance from Bulldog QB Mike Bobo (26-28 passing for 235 yards), the Bulldogs scored the game's opening 33 points. UGA completed 89.7 percent of its passes, the best-ever mark vs. a Badger defense.

A 12-yard pass from back-up quarterback Scott Kavanagh to tight end Dague Retzlaff was the Badgers' lone tally.

In a game that featured two of the nation's best runners — Wisconsin's Ron Dayne and Georgia's Robert Edwards — the Bulldog ballcarrier was the most effective. Edwards rushed for 110 yards and, more importantly, scored three TDs.

Georgia's multi-threat receiver Hines Ward caught a bowl-game record 12 passes (122 yards), threw one pass (incomplete) and rushed seven times (for eight yards).

"I don't think we played our best game," Wisconsin Coach Barry Alvarez said. "But I think Georgia had an awful lot to do with that."

1999 Rose Bowl

Wisconsin 38, UCLA 31

PASADENA, Calif. — The 85th Rose Bowl was billed as a battle between Wisconsin's nationally rated defense and UCLA's vaunted offense. In truth, the Badgers' Ron Dayne rambled his way to four touchdowns and the UW defense got a stop in the final minute to earn a hard-fought 38-31 Rose Bowl triumph over the sixth-ranked Bruins.

UCLA's defense struggled to stop Dayne, whose 246 yards rushing were one yard shy of the game record. The Badgers mixed in some timely running (65 yards) and passing (154) from QB Mike Samuel in building a 31-21 lead in the third period.

The Bruins cut the lead to three on Jermaine Lewis' second TD and were driving again when freshman Jamar Fletcher intercepted all-American Cade McNown and returned the pick for a TD.

Once again, UCLA battled back and pulled within 38-31. The Bruins' last drive started on their 46-yard line with 1:42 left. Three incompletions by McNown set up Wendell Bryant's game-clinching sack on fourth down.

More than 55,000 Badger fans enjoyed the school's second Rose Bowl win. Dayne's record-setting performance earned him bowl MVP honors.

2000 Rose Bowl

Wisconsin 17, Stanford 9

PASADENA, Calif. — In what was supposed to be a battle of high-powered offense, the 86th Rose Bowl game between Wisconsin and Stanford ended up a defensive struggle. The Badgers, getting a boost from Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne, rallied in the second half for a 17-9 win over the Cardinal. In the process, Wisconsin became the first Big Ten school in history to win the Rose Bowl in back-to-back seasons.

Dayne, whose 64-yard run on the second play of the second half energized the Big Ten champs, gained game MVP honors for the second year in a row. Dayne's stats in his final game as a Badger included 200 yards on 34 carries.

The Badger defense bottled up Stanford's running attack all game and limited the Cardinal to minus five yards rushing (tied for the second-best mark in school history). QB Todd Husak threw for 258 yards, but UW's defense dictated the action for most of the game.

Wisconsin had a 17-9 lead in the second half on TD runs by Dayne and Brooks Bollinger, but it took another defensive stand to clinch the win. Stanford's final drive ended when Husak was sacked on fourth down with just over a minute left.

2000 Sun Bowl

Wisconsin 21, UCLA 20

EL PASO, Texas. — A furious second-half comeback -- including big plays on special teams, a turnover from the defense and a balanced offense -- contributed to Wisconsin's 21-20 victory over UCLA in the 2000 Sun Bowl.

After falling behind 20-7 with a little more than one-and-a-half quarters left, Michael Bennett turned the momentum with a 54-yard kickoff return. Brooks Bollinger's three-yard TD pass to Chris Chambers brought the Badgers to within 20-14.

On UCLA's next drive, Ben Herbert made a key fourth-down stop on a fake field goal by the Bruins. The Badgers took over on their own 30-yard line and drove for the tying score, a six-yard run by Bennett. Vitaly Pisetsky's conversion was the winning point.

The game was far from over.

UCLA had three more possessions, but the Badgers held each time and wrapped up the victory with Jamar Fletcher's interception in the final minute.

Bennett was named Special Teams MVP, while UCLA's Freddie Mitchell (9-180) was the game MVP.

Besides Bennett's TD run and Chambers' scoring catch, the Badgers got their other points from Lee Evans (54-yard catch).

It was the Badgers' third bowl win over UCLA since 1994.

Badgers vs. Golden Gophers

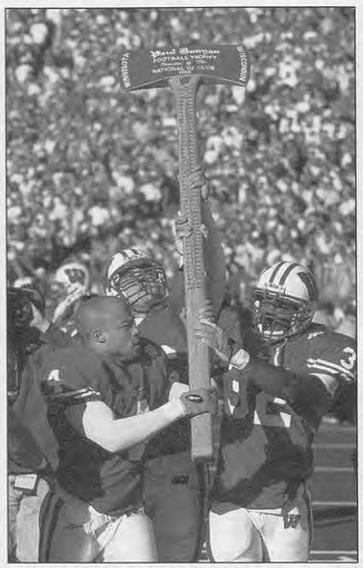
There is more at stake than just a win or loss on the team record when Wisconsin and Minnesota face each other on the gridiron. The most-played rivalry in NCAA Division I-A football (110 meetings, including every year consecutively since 1907) is also a battle for possession of Paul Bunyan's Axe. The winner of the game each fall gets to keep the Axe on its campus.

"The records can be thrown away when these two rivals meet on the football field," said Coach Barry Alvarez. "It didn't take very long for me to understand the importance of the game and the history associated with it."

Probably not many people in attendance realized the history they were watching on Nov. 15, 1890. That was the first time that bordering state universities from Wisconsin and Minnesota met on the gridiron in Minneapolis.

The game was just the Badgers' fourth gridiron battle ever. The Golden Gophers won the inaugural battle 63-0, but the start of one of college football's hottest rivalries was born.

The schools met for 15 consecutive years after that (the Badgers won seven and the Golden Gophers won eight) before the series took a one-year hiatus in 1906.



Eddie Faulkner (4) and Bryson Thompson (32) carry the Paul Bunyan Axe around after the Badgers' 2000 win over Minnesota.

The resumption of the series was a 7-7 tie in 1907 and the schools have met every year since. It is the longest-running rivalry in Division I-A football.

Madison and Minneapolis have alternated hosting the historic matchup since the beginning of the modern era in 1946.

Much prestige has always been associated with the game, but another factor was added in 1948. After Minnesota won a hard-fought 16-0 decision in 1948, the Wisconsin lettermen's group (the National W Club) presented Minnesota with an axe wielded by legendary lumberjack Paul Bunyan.

Each year since, the winner of the annual battle between the Big Ten rivals is presented with the axe, complete with final scores painted on its handle, for display on its campus.

The Badgers have taken six straight games from their border rivals. Wisconsin also won six straight in the series between 1978-83.

In the all-time series, Minnesota holds a 57-45-8 advantage. Wisconsin has a 27-22-6 mark in Madison and the Gophers have registered a 35-17-2 mark in Minneapolis.

There have been many notable contests between Wisconsin and Minnesota. Consider these:

- In 1961, Wisconsin intercepted three Gopher passes and upset No. 3-ranked Minnesota 23-21. The loss was Minnesota's only conference defeat of the season and cost it a share of the Big Ten title.
- No. 3 Wisconsin met fifth-ranked Minnesota in 1962 at Camp Randall Stadium. The Badgers, playing for a league title and Rose Bowl berth, won a 14-9 decision. Ralph Kurek scored the winning TD with just 1:37 left.
- Fifth-ranked Wisconsin dropped a 28-21 verdict at the Metrodome in 1993, costing the Badgers an undefeated season. "The loss to Minnesota in '93 might have cost us a national championship," said Alvarez. Wisconsin got a school-record 423 passing yards from Darrell Bevell, but UW had six turnovers.
- With Alvarez watching from a hospital bed after knee surgery, the '99 Badgers escaped with a 20-17 win. Kicker Vitaly Pisetsky ended the first overtime game in school history with a 31-yard field goal.

"There are a lot of folks who have personal attachments to this matchup," Alvarez said. "The game is a critical one each season for our players and supporters."

Slab of Bacon Trophy

The Slab of Bacon Trophy was the precursor to Paul Bunyan's Axe as the prize for the winning team in the Wisconsin-Minnesota football series.

Apparently the trophy was given to the winning school by a sorority from the losing institution. The trophy was discontinued in the 1940s and was eventually discovered in a storage room at Camp Randall Stadium by an intern from the UW Men's Sports Information Office during a cleanup project.

The Slab of Bacon trophy is currently housed in the football offices at the UW. "We took home the bacon," Coach Barry Alvarez said in 1992, "and kept it."

We're #1

The Badgers have been ranked as the nation's No. 1 squad just once in their history. That was on Oct. 7, 1952, after a 20-6 win over Illinois. The Badgers lost the next week to Ohio State but went on to a 6-3-1 record and a Rose Bowl berth.

Quarterback Brooks Bollinger scores on a two-yard run vs. Iowa in the Badgers' 41-3 victory in the 1999 regular season finale. Bollinger gained 113 yards rushing in the game. Ron Dayne, the pitchman on this play, became college football's career rushing leader earlier in the contest.

Traditions & Folklore

Ameche, Alan "The Horse"

Alan Ameche, the school's first Heisman Trophy winner was born in Italy as Lino Dante Ameche. At the age of 16, Ameche changed his first name to Alan. Lino, in his mind, was not rugged enough.

As a youth, Ameche won the light heavyweight Golden Gloves novice boxing championship of Kenosha by default. All of his rivals withdrew after learning that he was in the tournament.

During his college recruitment, Ameche was being heavily pressured to attend Notre Dame by Fred Miller, the philanthropic owner of Milwaukee's Miller Brewing Company. Wisconsin partisans, however, threatened a boycott against the buying and consumption of Miller beer if Ameche attended Notre Dame. Because of that threat, Miller backed off and Ameche eventually signed with Wisconsin.

In 1953, when rule changes made it necessary for him to be an all-purpose player, Ameche played defense with such ferocity that he ended up seeing action in 55 or more minutes in each game, prompting a nickname, "The Iron Horse."

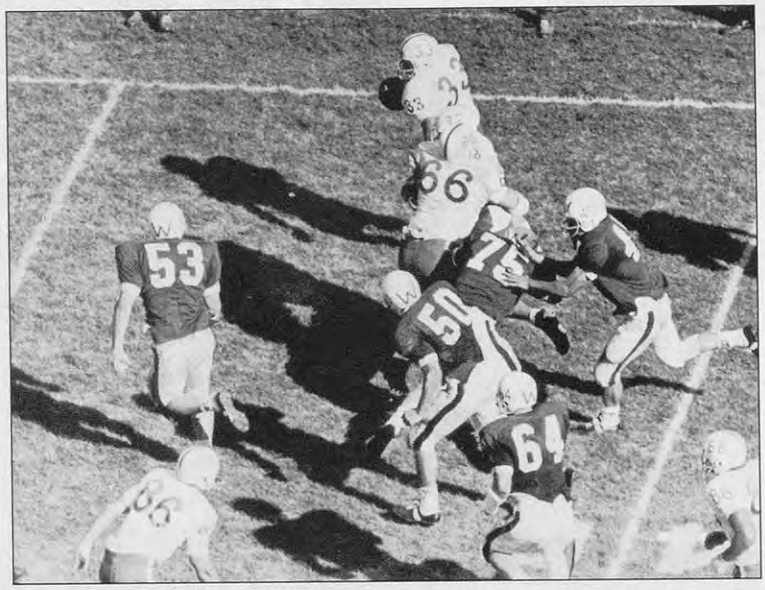
Ameche, drafted by Baltimore, eventually turned down a lucrative offer to join the pro wrestling tour and signed with the Colts. He led the NFL in rushing his first season and was named Rookie of the Year.

Ameche died following heart surgery in 1988 at the age of 55.

Artificial turf

The original artificial turf at Camp Randall Stadium was installed in 1968. Wisconsin was only the second school in the nation to install the surface called "Tartan Turf." The $210,000 project was funded by the UW Parking and Transportation Board in exchange for permission to convert practice fields on the north end of Camp Randall into a 500-car parking lot. That initial artificial playing surface unfortunately turned black in some areas when the green fiber tips broke off. 3M, the developer of the surface, sprayed the field green prior to the 1969 season.

Camp Randall Stadium's playing surface was most recently replaced prior to Wisconsin's 1998 Big Ten championship season. At the same time, the school replaced the surface in the McClain Athletic Center, too. The new turf features yard lines, the "W" logo and field markings that are sewn into the turf.



Nebraska linebacker Barry Alvarez (33) returns this pass interception 25 yards in a 1966 game against the Badgers. Alvarez' Cornhuskers won 31-3.

Badger nickname

The athletic teams' nickname (Badgers) was borrowed from the state. The territory was initially dubbed the "Badger" state. The reason for the moniker was not because of badgers in this region, but instead because of an association with lead miners in the 1820s. Prospectors came to the state looking for minerals. Without shelter in the winter, the miners had to "live like badgers" in tunnels burrowed into hillsides according to folklore.

Band caps

A tradition that dates back to the 1920s says that when a Badger team wins an athletic contest, members of the band turn their hats around and wear them backwards. The practice symbolizes the band looking back at the victory in days when they marched out with the departing crowd.

Barry vs. the Badgers

Coach Barry Alvarez was a linebacker for the Nebraska teams that played Wisconsin in 1965 and 1966. In the 1966 contest, Alvarez intercepted a John Ryan pass at the Nebraska 28-yard line and returned it 25 yards. Nebraska won both of the games that Alvarez played in.

Bucky Badger

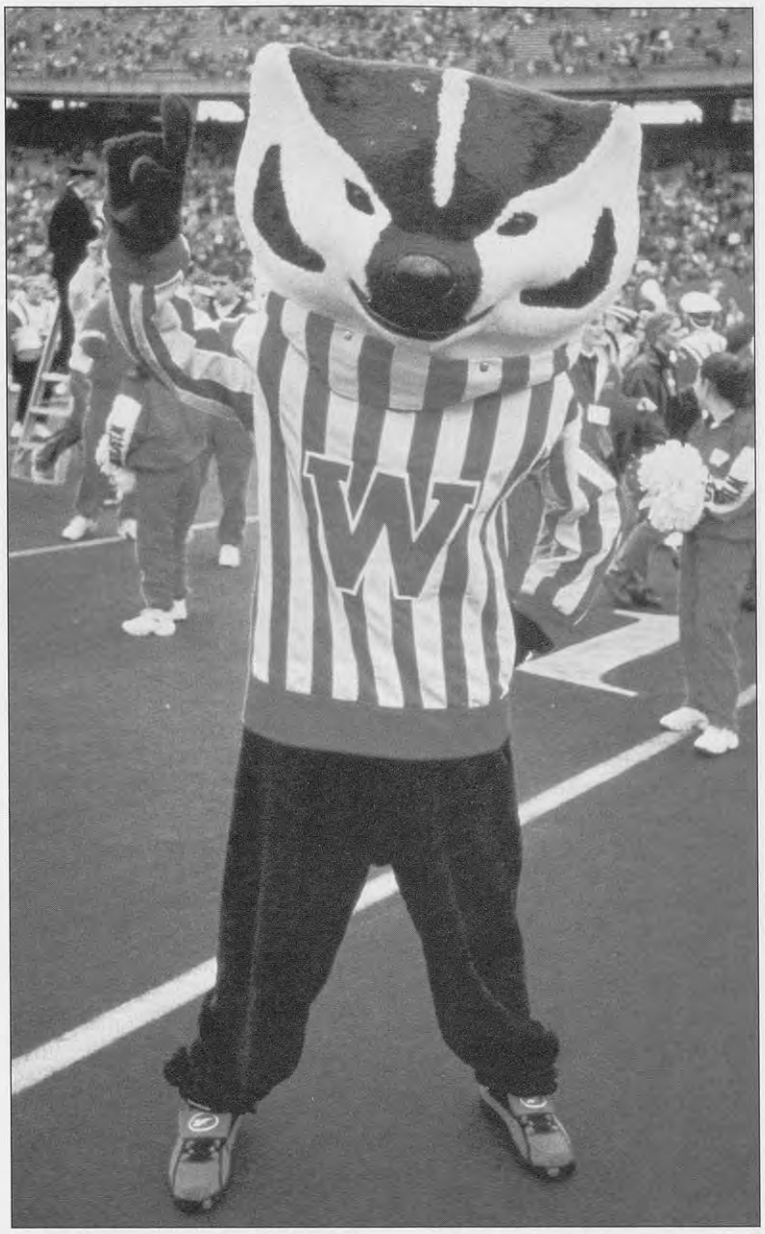
Badgers in various forms have been recognized as the school mascot for decades. The version currently known as Bucky, sporting a cardinal and white striped sweater, was first drawn in 1940 by artist Art Evans. At that time, the badger went by names like Benny, Buddy, Bernie, Bobby and Bouncey. Art Lentz, the department's publicity director, had the idea to bring the mascot to life.

The original badger mascot was too vicious to control. On more than one occasion, the live badger escaped his handlers. It was decided in the interest of fan and player safety that Wisconsin's mascot be retired to the Madison Zoo. The Badger Yearbook replaced the live badger with a small raccoon named Regdab (badger spelled backwards) and passed it off as a "badger in a raccoon coat."

In 1949, a student in the university's art department, Connie Conrad, was hired to mold a paper-mache badger head. Cheerleader Bill Sagal, of Plymouth, Wis., was directed by homecoming chair Bill Sachse, to wear the outfit at the homecoming game. A contest was staged to name the mascot. The winner was Buckingham U. Badger, or Bucky. The name came from the lyrics in a song which encouraged the football team to "buck right through that line."

Bucky Badger has persevered through the years, even surviving a threat by then assistant attorney general, Howard Koop, in 1973. He suggested that Bucky be replaced by Henrietta Holstein, a loveable cow. Koop argued that "kids love cows. A generation could grow up supporting the university and Henrietta Holstein." Koop's effort to overthrow Bucky failed.

Bucky even survived a cameo appearance by former Sports Illustrated writer Rick Telander. In preparation for a book about the department, Telander wore the Badger costume at a 1991 volleyball game. Telander overcame "terminal claustrophobia" in his first and only act as Bucky.



Bud song

An integral part of any Wisconsin band performance is the playing of the Bud song. The tune is a spinoff of the song "You've Said It All," a jingle with words and music originally written by Steve Karmen for Budweiser beer commercials.

The song has become legendary at the University because of its polka-like rhythm. Band director Michael Leckrone said the song's popularity got started at a 1975 hockey game. "The crowd wanted to hear a polka," he said. "I didn't have any polkas. We had, just by accident, added this beer commercial to the tunes we play. I told the band if we substituted the word 'Wisconsin' for 'Budweiser' it would work."

Leckrone said the song became a football tradition after a 1978 come-from-behind victory over Oregon. "Wisconsin was behind by three touchdowns, and the crowd was really dead. I played the song to get everyone pepped up. About 20 seconds after that, Wisconsin scored a TD. I played it again, and we scored another touchdown. From then on, the band could never play enough 'Bud,'" said Leckrone.

Colors

The Athletic Department colors are cardinal and white. PMS 200 is the designated cardinal.

Dayne, Ron

The most-productive running back in college football history was also one of its largest. Reporting to summer conditioning prior to his freshman year, the bruising ballcarrier packed more than 270 pounds on his 5-10 frame. Although many colleges predicted he'd be a fullback, Coach Barry Alvarez liked the idea of big, strong tailback. Dayne played most of his career around 260 pounds, making him the largest runner in UW annals.

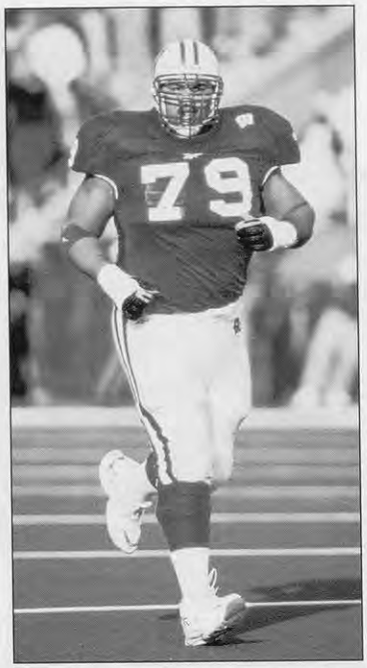
Dayne's career was noteworthy for many reasons, but most fans will remember the rousing announcement of "Ron Dayne" by public address announcer Mike Mahnke after nearly every carry.

Named the greatest athlete of the 20th century at the university in a poll conducted by the Capital Times and the Wisconsin State Journal, Dayne was also an accomplished discus thrower as a high school student. His personal-best throw of 216-10 was the third-longest throw in high school history.

The "Great Dayne" is also remembered fondly by the Dane County Humane Society, which partnered with Ron several times during his career urging the "Humane Treatment of Animals, Not Linebackers."

Fifth Quarter

The Wisconsin band has become famous for its post-game celebration called the Fifth Quarter. Win or lose, fans sing, dance and cheer with the band as they play traditional favorites like "On, Wisconsin" and the Bud song. Originally, the post-game concert was designed to give the fans something to listen to on their way out of the stadium, but it developed into a post-game party as the band built in audience-participation activities.



Aaron Gibson, the 6-7, 381-pound tackle, was college football's largest player. Gibson was featured in many national news stories during his career, including a piece in the New York Times Magazine that dubbed him the "Lineman of the Future."

Gibson, Aaron

Aaron Gibson, the 6-foot-7, 381-pound behemoth, was an all-America lineman at Wisconsin. The largest player in college was a tremendously gifted athlete. The future first-round pick of the Detroit Lions could dunk a basketball and, unbelievably, do the splits. The ABC news program 20/20 came to Madison to film a story on large athletes and Gibson performed the splits to amaze viewers all over the nation.

Hard Rocks

The 1951 Wisconsin defense, known as the "Hard Rocks," led the country in total defense (154.8 ypg) and actually outscored the opponents 58-53. The defense was so terrorizing that the athletic department received a letter from one fan asking Wisconsin to "punt on first down" so he could see more of the defensive platoon.

Eight of the nine seniors on the "Hard Rocks" scored in their careers. The ninth, Bill Lane, came close. With Indiana backed up deep in its own territory for a punt, the seniors told Lane they would refrain from rushing in order to form a wedge, or "meatchopper," for him to run behind and score. Much to the seniors' dismay, freshman Don Voss missed the call and blocked the punt.

After the season, the defensive platoon challenged the offense in a charity game with one interesting twist. The offensive team could have the ball all the time, since the defense felt it could outscore its opponents even without the ball.

Hirsch, Elroy "Crazylegs"

Though he only played one year at UW, Elroy Hirsch's legacy grew through 18 years as athletic director and many more as a goodwill ambassador.

Hirsch was first tagged "Crazylegs" on Sept. 26, 1942, after a 60-yard run vs. Notre Dame prompted a local writer to say, "His crazy legs were gyrating." After leaving Wisconsin, he starred for nine seasons with the Los Angeles Rams.

During those days in L.A., he kept busy by making three movies, including "Crazylegs, All-American" in which he portrayed himself. After retiring as a player, he worked in the Rams' front office before serving as UW athletic director from 1969-1987.

His jersey No. 40, the one he wore at every stop in his football career but one, is retired at Wisconsin. Because of a mandatory league numbering system he wore No. 80 (double-40) for the Chicago Rockets of the NFL, but had the No. 40 stitched on the inside of his jersey.

Hirsch is the namesake of the Crazylegs Run, an annual fundraiser for the athletic department. The event has raised nearly $1.5 million in its 20-year history. More than 10,000 runners made the run/walk from the Capitol Square to the Stadium last spring.

Law students

At the homecoming game, graduating law students throw canes over the crossbar of the goal post in a pre-game ceremony. If students catch their cane, legend claims they will win their first case. If the cane is dropped, the case will be lost. The custom began at the UW in 1910.

Marek, Billy

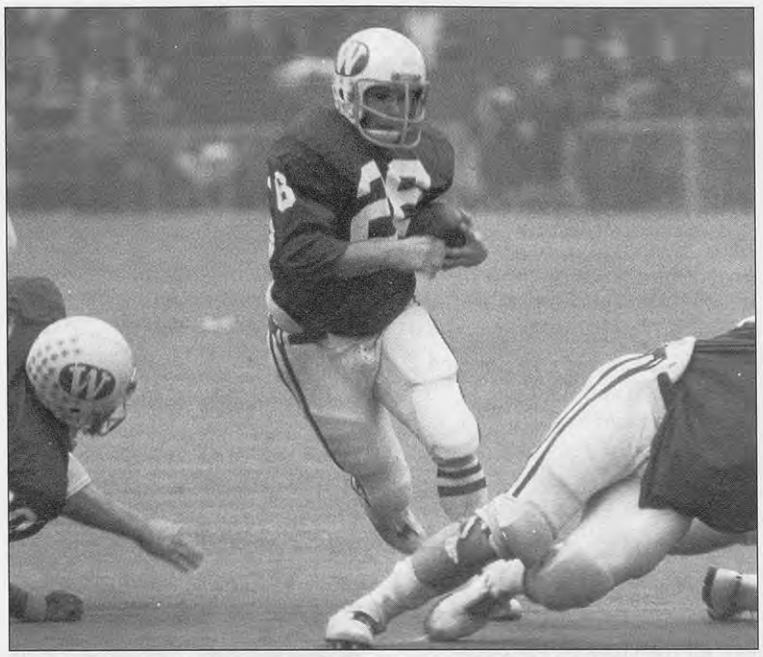
Badger legend Billy Marek was at the center of an April Fool's Day joke played by Wisconsin State Journal columnist Tom Butler in 1975. Butler wrote a tongue-in-cheek piece about moving the Big Ten's leading rusher to the defensive secondary for his senior season. The article ended with the phrase, "April Fools!" Unfortunately, wire service reporters did not make it to the last line, and called head coach John Jardine's house for confirmation. The AP eventually moved the story on its national wire for about a half-an-hour before the hoax was discovered.

Motion W

When Coach Barry Alvarez came to Madison, he decided that the helmet logo needed to be updated to signal a new era. He entertained 15-20 designs in 1990 before Rayovac artist Rick Suchanek developed the "Motion W," which originally included a tail at the back of the logo. Alvarez thought the tail was a bit much, but when it was removed, decided to go with it. The University bought the rights to the design, and the logo has been adopted by all other UW sports.

Mott, Jim

There is no greater authority on UW athletics than former Sports Information Director Jim Mott. His association with the sports information office began as a student assistant in 1953. He was named assistant SID a year later and was appointed director in 1966, a position he held until his retirement in 1990.



Billy Marek was the subject of an April Fool's Day column by Wisconsin State Journal columnist in 1975 that suggested the all-conference runner was moving to defense as a senior.

Mott's memory is legendary among athletic department staffers. When the question of previous home night games was being tossed around the sports information office in 1995, Mott noted that the UW had two previous night games in its history. Obvious was the 1986 battle with Michigan. Mott also recalled the 1896 loss to the Carlisle Indians, including the date of the game, final score, and the fact that it was played in Chicago Coliseum. Mott, a former basketball letterman at the UW, has written a book on the history of Wisconsin athletics.

O'Dea, Pat

One of several Wisconsin greats from the pre-modern era of college football is kicker Pat O'Dea. The Australian-born O'Dea came to Madison in 1896 to join his brother Andy, who was crew coach and football trainer.

Known as the "Kangaroo Kicker," Pat O'Dea brought a different style to the American game of football. He learned to play the Australian game where all punting and drop-kicking was done on the run. O'Dea drop-kicked a legendary 62-yard field goal vs. Northwestern during a heavy blizzard.

After his playing days, he coached at Notre Dame and Missouri before moving to San Francisco. O'Dea, who essentially had disappeared, was thought to have joined an Australian group that travelled through the country. Press releases surmised that he "probably lies beneath an unmarked grave in France."

The truth was, he had moved to California under the assumed name of Charles J. Mitchell, to escape the pressure of being a star ex-athlete. "Probably, I was wrong," he said in an interview with San Francisco sportswriter Bill Leiser after the 17-year exile. "I wanted to get away from my past. As Pat O'Dea, I seemed very much just an ex-football player. I was very happy as Charles Mitchell for awhile," O'Dea said.

On, Wisconsin

The school's fight song was originally composed in 1909 by Chicago's William Purdy, and the words were written by Carl Beck. Purdy and Beck had been fraternity brothers at Hamilton College (Clinton, N.Y.) and were roommates in Chicago. Purdy was going to submit the song for consideration to win a $100 prize that the University of Minnesota was offering for a new football song. When Beck heard the music, he offered to write words and suggested that Purdy offer it to Wisconsin, where Beck had once studied. The song was an instant hit on campus and spread throughout the world.

Some 2,500 schools have adopted the music and changed the words to suit their needs. "On, Wisconsin" was sung for the first time at the 1909 homecoming game vs. Minnesota.

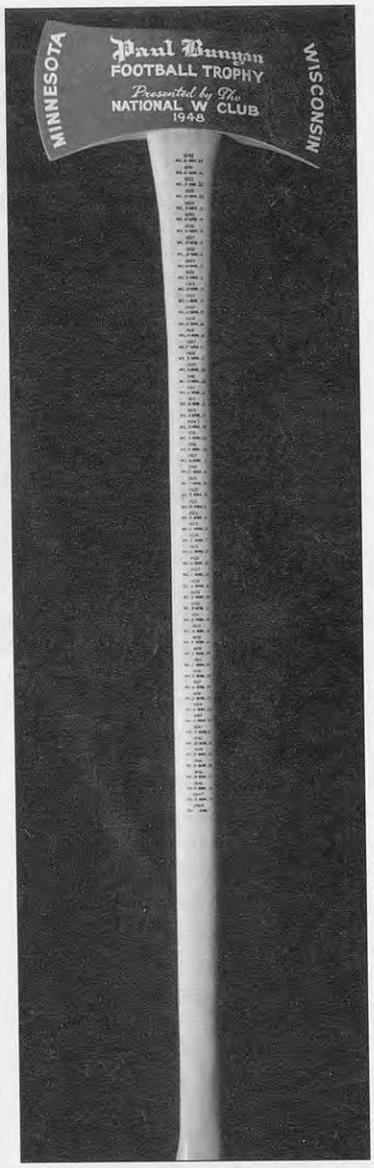
The music was adapted by Band Director Michael Leckrone in 1969. The original version had been played virtually unchanged since its inception. "I got a lot of flak for the change," Leckrone said. "The old version was one you had to wait on. I wanted to generate immediate crowd reaction, so I stepped it up a bit."

Here are the words to one of the nation's most-recognized school fight songs:

On Wisconsin, On Wisconsin
Plunge right through that line,
Run the ball clear down the field, boys
Touchdown sure this time
On Wisconsin, On Wisconsin
Fight on for her fame,
Fight, Fellows, Fight, Fight, Fight
We'll win this game!

Paul Bunyan Axe

The most-played rivalry in Division I-A football continues this fall when Wisconsin and Minnesota meet. The UW-UM series is the nation's oldest and has been played continuously since 1907. The game has alternated sites between the university campuses since 1946. Much prestige was always associated with the game, and the significance was emphasized with its place on the schedule. Between 1933 and 1982, the Wisconsin-Minnesota game was always the final regular-season contest for each school.



The Paul Bunyan Axe, wielded by the mythical lumberjack of the midwest, is the prize that goes to the winning school in the annual gridiron battle between Wisconsin and Minnesota. The schools have played continuously since 1907, but the axe tradition has been a part of this storied rivalry since 1948. That year the National W Club, began the tradition of presenting the trophy to the winning school.

The series took an added twist in 1948 when more than state bragging rights were on the line. After a 16-0 setback that season, the Wisconsin lettermen's group, the National "W" Club, presented Minnesota with an axe wielded by Paul Bunyan. He was the mythical giant of midwestern lumber camps. Each year since, the winner of the annual battle between the Big Ten rivals is presented with the axe, complete with scores inscribed on the handle, for display on its campus.

Slab of Bacon

The Slab of Bacon trophy was the precursor to Paul Bunyan's Axe as the prize in the Wisconsin-Minnesota football series. Apparently, the trophy was presented to the winning school by a sorority from the losing institution. The trophy was discontinued in the 1940s and was discovered by UW Sports Information intern Will Roleson in a storage room at the UW Department of Athletics in 1994. It is currently housed in the football office at Wisconsin. "We took home the bacon," Coach Barry Alvarez said, "and kept it."

"Varsity"

The traditional arm-waving at the end of the song, "Varsity," was the 1934 brainstorm of then-band leader Ray Dvorak. He saw Pennsylvania students wave their caps after losing a game. Dvorak later instructed Wisconsin students to salute UW-Madison President Glenn Frank after each game. These are the words for Wisconsin's time-honored tune, "Varsity."

Var-sity! Var-sity! U-rah-rah! Wisconsin!
Praise to thee we sing
Praise to thee our alma mater
U-rah-rah, Wisconsin!

Coverage Guidelines

The 2001 Wisconsin football guide has been produced to assist the news media with covering the Badgers. We have continued to try and add relevant materials to this publication each year and would welcome additions or corrections with proper documentation. Additional information on Wisconsin football will be produced throughout the year by the Sports Information Office. We also encourage you to regularly check the department's website (uwbadgers.com) to get updated information on the team. Our staff looks forward to working with you this fall.

Requests For Interviews

All Badger practices, including Friday walk-throughs, are closed to the media. Interviews are conducted as follows:

Alvarez Interviews

Barry Alvarez holds a weekly media conference Mondays at 1 p.m. in the "W" Club Room at Camp Randall Stadium. Alvarez' comments are available on the university's website late Monday afternoon. Alvarez is available for interviews after practice Tuesday through Thursday. He will do interviews after Friday walk-throughs on the road only.

Additionally, Alvarez is available every Tuesday from 11:50-noon CT on the Big Ten Teleconference.

Assistant Coach Interviews

Wisconsin assistant coaches are available after practice on Tuesdays and Wednesdays in the basement of the McClain Center. If you wish to arrange a special interview with an assistant coach during the week, contact the Sports Information Office at (608) 262-1811.

Ordering Phone Lines

Several courtesy phone lines (credit card and collect calls only) on level four of the press box are available on a first-come, first-served basis for the news media. News organizations requiring their own phones should call JoAnne Rock at (608) 265-8546 or email her at jmr@athletics.wisc.edu to order lines.

Player Interviews

Badger players can be interviewed during the week on Tuesdays and Wednesdays after practice (approximately 6 p.m.) in the lower level of the McClain Center outside of the Wisconsin locker room area.

Phone calls by players to out-of-town media are made at the players' convenience between 7:30-10 p.m. CT on Tuesdays and Wednesdays only. Interviews should be arranged through Brian Lucas (608/262-1811) of the Sports Information Office. Home numbers will not be made available to the media, and players have been instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted without prior approval from the SID staff.

Additionally, 3-4 players attend the weekly Monday media conference with Coach Alvarez.

Guidelines For Credentials

Press Box & Sideline Passes

Requests for credentials to cover Wisconsin football should be sent on company letterhead to: Sports Information Office, University of Wisconsin, 1440 Monroe Street, Madison, WI 53711. The fax number is (608) 262-8184. Requests should be received at least 10 days in advance of the game.

Sideline credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers and reporters on assignment. You must display both a credential and an armband prominently to be on the field level. Your media credential alone will not give you access to the sidelines. Armbands can be picked up in the Reinke Room (north end) of the Field House. Media members cannot work between the 25-yard lines as recommended by the NCAA in its game management manual.

Credentials will be mailed if time permits. Those passes which cannot be mailed will be left with the parking attendant (white vehicle) at the entrance of Lot 17 on Engineering Drive (north end of the Stadium).

Credentials will be issued according to the following priorities: 1) TV and radio stations originating a live broadcast; 2) national publications, newspapers filing for the following day's publication and news outlets designated by the visiting SID; 3) TV and radio stations covering for nightly news; and 4) other requests, which will be evaluated on a space-available basis. Spouses, dates, non-workers and children are not allowed in the media areas as dictated by the NCAA. Anyone violating these standards will be denied credentials to future games.

Media Parking Passes

A very limited number of parking passes in the Lot 17 ramp (north of Camp Randall Stadium) are available for working media. Make your request to the Sports Information Office for consideration.

Satellite Truck Parking

For news organizations that send a satellite truck to cover a game at Camp Randall Stadium, please contact Barry Fox (Director of Facilities) prior to arrival. His

Important Dates To Remember

Preseason fall practice is held at the Bishop O'Connor Catholic Center (3577 High Point Road, Middleton, WI).

July 31	Freshmen report to O'Connor Catholic Center
Aug. 2	Big Ten Kickoff Luncheon (Chicago)
Aug. 3	Veterans report to O'Connor Catholic Center

phone number is (608) 262-3631. Extremely limited parking (for the satellite vehicle only) is available at the south end of Breese Terrace (the road on the east side of the Stadium). The electrician that can assist with powering up is Ed Walsh (cell: 608-235-8552).

Game-day Services

Media Services

Facilities for the working press are located on the fourth level of the press box. Flipcards, notes and game programs are delivered to each working location prior to kickoff. A full statistics packet will be available after the game in the press box. Final packets will be distributed in the McClain Center weight room once they are completed.

Faxing Statistics Packets

Final game statistics are sent immediately after the game to the mediateamlink.com website. That website is the quickest way to retrieve final packets after Badger home football games. If you do not wish to use this service (directions for access are listed in the box on this page), packets will be faxed to your outlet for $10 (payable at the game).

Post-game Interview Procedures

With approximately four minutes left in the game, media members will be escorted to the interview areas by Sports Information staff. Barry Alvarez holds his post-game media conference on the first floor of the McClain Center. The session is for credentialed news media only.

After Alvarez' session, requested Wisconsin players are available for interviews in the McClain Center weight room (basement). The Wisconsin locker room is closed to the media.

The opposing head coach is available for interviews in the Camp Randall Stadium weight room (downstairs from the opponent locker room).

Professional Scouts

Scouting Tickets & Parking

As per the Big Ten's policy, professional scouts must purchase tickets through the UW Ticket Office at 608-262-1440. Press box passes are not available for scouts. You can fax your request to (608) 265-4931.

Weekly Schedule

Contact the Sports Information Office for confirmation of practice schedules. The typical weekly schedule is:

Day	Practice	Interviews
Mon.	None	Media conference
Tue.	3-6	After practice
Wed.	3-6	After practice
Thu.	3-4:30	Alvarez only
Fri.	3-4	Alvarez only

mediateamlink.com

The Big Ten and its member schools provide 24-hour access to the latest press releases, statistics and notes on Big Ten sports via the web at www.mediateamlink.com.

This exciting technology allows media members to pick specific team reports and have them delivered as soon as they are updated. These documents are in PDF form, which you can view or print in high quality. Delivery comes via e-mail or fax, depending on the desires of the requester.

For access to this system, log on to the web at www.mediateamlink.com, click the "Sign Up Here" button and complete the form. It is also necessary to download the free Adobe Acrobat Reader software to view the documents. Documents requested by e-mail are free to accredited media members.

Because of this immediate and efficient technology, Wisconsin does not mail its weekly releases.

UW Satellite Feeds

The University of Wisconsin, in cooperation with WISC-TV of Madison, uplinks comments from Coach Barry Alvarez and selected players throughout the regular season. The particulars are:

Media Guidelines

- Interviews with all staff members or players should be scheduled through the Sports Information Office (608-262-1811).
- Home numbers for players and coaches will not be provided to the media and players have been told not to accept phone calls for football-related inquiries without clearance from the Sports Information staff. Please do not contact a player or coach without arranging the interview through the Athletic Communications Office.
- We ask that you do not arrive unannounced at the Football Offices to interview players or coaches without setting it up in advance. Media members must be escorted to the Wisconsin football office / locker rooms by a member of the Sports Information staff.
- All practices are closed to the media. Players will be available for interviews through Wednesday's practice. Player interview requests will not be granted on Thursday or Friday of game week.
- With the exception of post-game, Badger football players are not permitted to participate in live radio interviews. Players will be available for taped interviews, when schedules permit.

NCAA Guidelines Relating To The Media

Media members should be aware of several NCAA rules that apply to student-athletes. If there is a question regarding a media relations activity or promotional opportunity, please clear it through the University of Wisconsin Sports Information Office at (608) 262-1811.

- Coaches and University officials cannot make comments on prospective student-athletes until they sign and return their National Letter of Intent. A coach cannot comment on a prospective student-athlete who verbally commits to an institution.

- Student-athletes are not permitted to endorse commercial products, services or businesses. They are not allowed to do promotional spots for individual radio or television stations or shows.

- The institution cannot publicize the visit of a prospect on an official or unofficial campus visit and cannot comment on such activity.

Additional questions can be directed to the UW Compliance Office at (608) 265-2973.

Radio Coverage

Radio coverage

For the eighth year in a row, exclusive radio coverage of Badger football can be heard on the 43-city Wisconsin Radio Network. The Department of Athletics and Learfield Communications entered into an agreement for radio broadcast rights for football and basketball in 1994.

WIBA-AM (1310 AM) and WIBA-FM (101.5 FM) are the rights holders in the Madison market, and WTMJ (620 AM) carries the games in Milwaukee.

Entering his eighth season handling play-by-play duties for Wisconsin football is Matt Lepay, named the state's Broadcaster of the Year for 2000. Lepay has also called Badger basketball the past 13 seasons. A 1984 graduate of Ohio State, Lepay was Sports Director at WTSO in Madison before joining WIBA in 1994. He previously served as Sports Director at WNCI in Columbus, and prior to that worked at stations in Athens and Piqua, Ohio. Lepay also provides frequent sports reports for WISC-TV. Lepay is host of the Barry Alvarez Show, both on WIBA Radio and WISC-TV.

Color commentary on radio broadcasts is provided by Mike Lucas, long-time sports columnist at the Capital Times. Lucas, who worked previously on the broadcast team for the Badgers' delay television package on the Wisconsin Public Television Network, also provides daily sports commentaries on WIBA. Lucas and Lepay are co-hosts of the popular WIBA Sports Review and Lucas also hosts "Sidelines", a talk-show on TVW. He has reported on Badger sporting events for the Capital Times since 1971. Lucas has been a color analyst (radio and TV) for Badger football, men's basketball and men's hockey during his career.

Wisconsin Radio Network

You can hear Wisconsin football (Matt Lepay, play-by-play and Mike Lucas, color commentary) on any of these network stations.

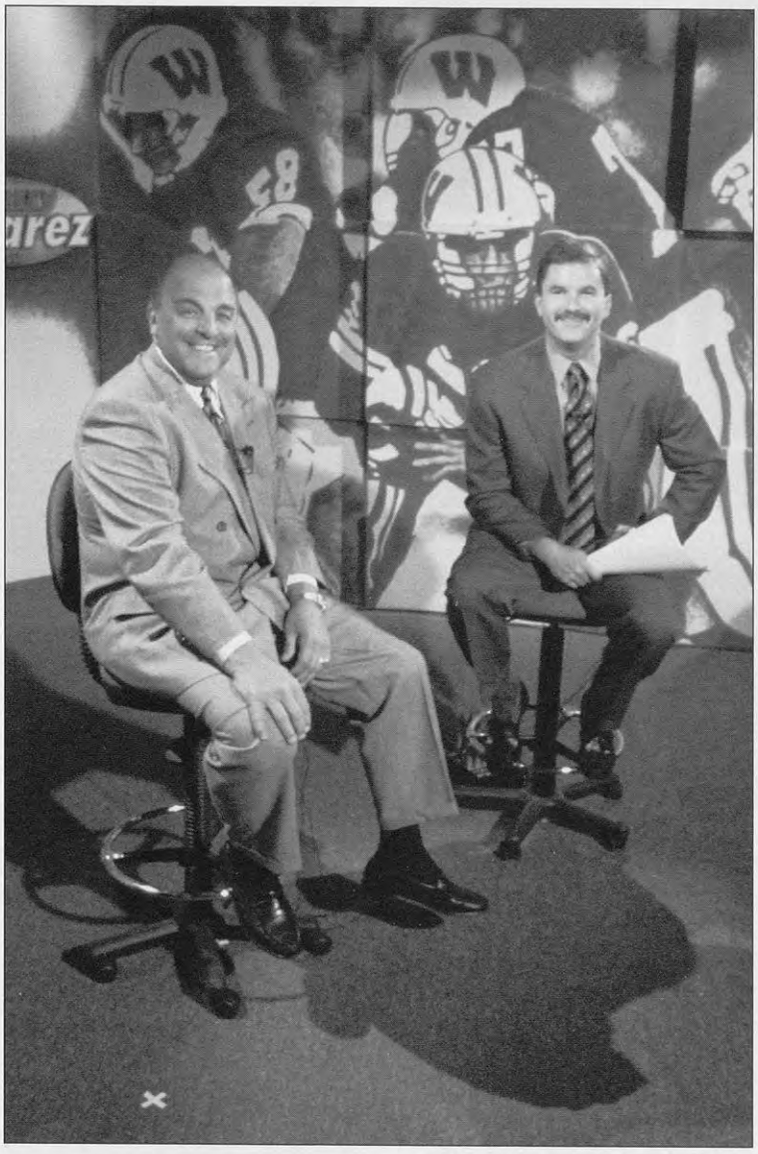
TV Coverage



The Barry Alvarez TV Show

The "Barry Alvarez Television Show," produced by WISC-TV, is a 30-minute program of highlights, interviews and features on Badger football.

Eight stations — WISC-Madison (11 a.m.), TVW-Madison (10:30 p.m.), WISN-Milwaukee (11 a.m.), WSAW-Wausau (11 a.m.), WFRV-Green Bay (11 a.m.), WXOW-La Crosse (11 p.m.), WQOW-Eau Claire (11 p.m.) and WJMN-Marquette, Mich. (11 a.m.) — show the program each Sunday throughout the season.

Twelfth-year head coach Barry Alvarez joins "Voice of the Badgers" Matt Lepay each week to break down the previous week's game and look ahead to upcoming action. Produced by WISC, the show is one of the most popular and highly watched of its kind.

Internet Cybercasts

Exclusive real-time broadcasts of Wisconsin football are available on the web and can be downloaded at www.broadcast.com. Follow the links to the Wisconsin site.

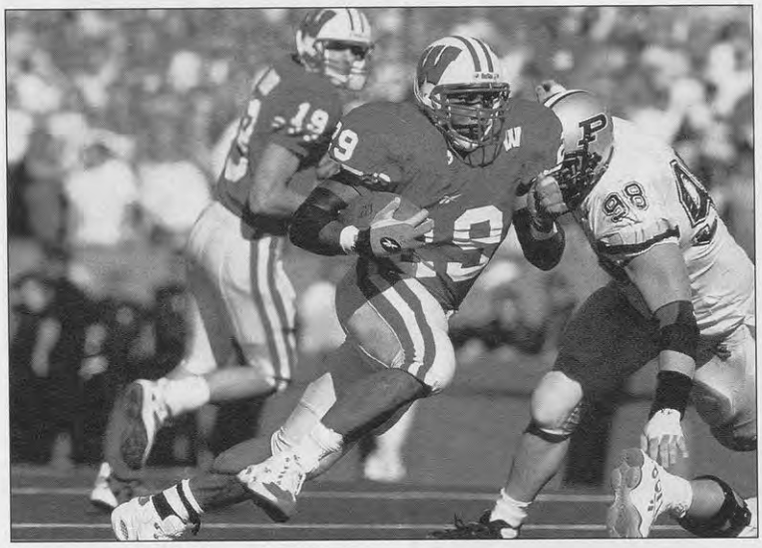
Television Coverage

It's easy to follow Badger football through the Big Ten's comprehensive television package. Most Wisconsin games will be selected for live TV coverage on either ABC, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPN Regional or Fox Sports.

All Badger home games are televised on a delayed basis by Wisconsin Public Television (WHA-Madison, WPNE-Green Bay, WLEF-Park Falls, WHWC-Menomonie, WHLA-La Crosse, WHRM-Wausau and WMVT-Milwaukee). Broadcast across the state educational network, the football replays on WPT air most Saturdays at 10:30 p.m. WPT and Badger sports have been partners for more than 25 years. Longtime Madison sports personality Van Stoutt and former Badger offensive lineman Jamie Vanderveldt describe the action.

The state educational network also televises a number of Badger men's and women's basketball, men's hockey and volleyball contests to its audience on both a live and delayed basis.

Badger Fund



To sustain the kind of academic and athletic success that has characterized the UW-Madison as one of the nation's finest athletic programs, there must be widespread support.

That support begins at the top, through the commitment of the Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System, the UW-Madison Chancellor's Office and the Athletic Board. That commitment extends to the thousands of Badger boosters throughout the nation who contribute in many different ways.

Ultimately, the success of the Department of Athletics depends in great part on the collective loyalty and generosity of alumni and friends. One of the areas in which people can support the Badger Athletic Department is through their contributions to the newly establish Badger Fund.

The Badger Fund was started to enhance the University's athletic programs by helping to financially support more than 750 student-athletes in 23 sports as they strive for excellence both academically and athletically.

Because the UW-Madison Athletic Department receives less than one percent of its $52 million annual budget from state appropriations, private support from supporters of the program is essential to its continued success.

Contributions to the Badger Fund from more than 8,000 individuals fund the scholarship needs of student-athletes and help provide the finest public university education and athletic facilities experiences available.

Your continued support will help UW student-athletes achieve their academic and athletic dreams, and will assist the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics in its effort to reach lofty goals both on the field and in the classroom.

For more information on the membership benefits of the Badger Fund, please contact the office staff at:

Madison, WI 53711

Directors of the Badger Fund are Marija Neubauer and Rich Franchak.

Endowment Program

For a student who wants to participate in intercollegiate athletics at the University of Wisconsin, one of the greatest opportunities available is an athletic scholarship.

Many alumni and friends have contributed to the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics by establishing endowed scholarships to help student-athletes take full advantage of the academic and athletic experience at UW-Madison.

These scholarship endowments benefit today's student-athletes as well as those in future years.

The endowed scholarships listed on this page provide full or partial scholarship support for Badger student-athletes. The Wisconsin Athletic Department thanks these donors for their tremendous support of Badger Athletics.

For information about how to create a named scholarship in men's or women's athletics or how to contribute to an established endowment, please contact the UW Foundation at 608/263-4545.
